Mt. Angel Collects Clothes for Korea

Mt. Angel—The St. Mary's school will serve as a collection depot for the annual archbishop's Thanksgiving clothing drive, conducted this week in all Catholic parishes, to receive donations of used but serviceable clothing, blankets, and shoes for relief of the destitute men, women and children of Korea, Europe, the Near and Far East.
The appeal is part of a nationwide effort under auspices of War Relief Services of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, which in the past 10 years has made available for free distribution overseas relief materials having a total gross weight of more than 556 million pounds and valued at $212,365,000. All materials are given to those most in need, regardless of race, creed or color.
If cash is contributed, checks should be made payable to "Thanksgiving Clothing Collection," and either sent or brought to the Rev. Cyril Lebold, O.S.B., pastor of St. Mary's parish.
