

Quartet to Sing Here

Quartet to Sing For Group Dec. 8

A musical program will feature the December 8 meeting of the Christian Business and Professional women. The program will be presented by the Four Flats Quartet. The quartet, originally from George Fox college, Newberg, has twice won the Northwest Barber Shop contest. They have sung in Alaska, Canada and various parts of the United States. The quartet will sing some lighter numbers during the dinner hour, followed by a sacred concert. Men as well as women are invited to the December meeting which will be at the Marion hotel at 6:15 p.m. on Tuesday, December 8. The public is invited and all those wishing to attend may telephone their reservations in to Mrs. Abbott, 3-8829, by Sunday, December 6.

Schwabers Feted On Silver Wedding

Aurora—One hundred seventy five relatives and friends greeted Mr. and Mrs. John H. Schwabauer on their 25th wedding anniversary last week in Christ Lutheran church, Aurora, where the couple was married on November 22, 1928. The Rev. L. C. Leikauf, present pastor of the church, was master of ceremonies at the anniversary event, and led a devotional service and sang an anniversary song. The Rev. H. Mau, former pastor, now of Portland, spoke. Miss Mariene Driever sang and Miss Lavone Leikauf accompanied her.

Mrs. Schwabauer wore a blue crepe afternoon dress, with a corsage of pink roses as she and Mr. Schwabauer received their guests. The church social rooms were decorated with baskets of white and deep toned chrysanthemums for the affair. At the reception, Mrs. Fred Leffler cut the three tiered cake. Mrs. Allen Yost poured coffee. Punch was dispensed by Mrs. William Schwabauer. Mrs. Geo. S. Berg served ice cream and Mrs. Louis Schwabauer assisted. The gift table was presided over by Mrs. H. H. Oaksford and Miss Ellen Yost, passed the guest book.

Womack-Taylor Wedding Recently

Sweet Home — Miss Ruby Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Taylor, was wed to Tommy Womack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Womack, in an early afternoon ceremony on November 21, in the Church of Christ with the Rev. B. Ross Evans performing the ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Robert Taylor, wore a gray suit with white accessories and a red rose bud corsage.

Miss Joanne Taylor, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant and wore a dress of blue with red carnation corsage and the best man for the occasion was Alvin Blankenship. Usher was Neil Robertson.

Chrysanthemums of bronze and yellow decorated the church and the reception room where the reception was, immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. Neil Robertson and Miss Vivian Triplett served the cake and ice cream. Mrs. Neil Robertson was soloist for the ceremony with Miss Vivian Triplett supplying the organ music. The couple will be at Sweet Home 1226 Larch street in Sweet Home following a short honeymoon trip.
