

WATER FOR CEMETERY

Lebanon—Planning perpetual care for Providence cemetery, the drilling of a deep well, left, was completed last week by the Providence Memorial Association. When the installation is complete it will provide a blanket of summer green for the extensive grounds where the church's founder, Joab Powell, is buried in company with many of the state's pioneers. Providence Cemetery Gets Water After Hundred Years findings by scientific methods. Their predictions proved correct and a water vein was encountered at the 224 foot level which provides a flow of 600 gallons per hour.

Lebanon — Joab Powell's church at Providence, waterless since its founding in 1853, now has a well on its grounds. Drilling was started Nov. 17 by the Providence Memorial Association which is financing the operation.

Lucille Ball Gets Surprise

Hollywood (AP) — After 13 years of married life, Desi Arnaz finally surprised Lucille Ball.

Television's top-rated couple celebrated their 13th wedding anniversary last night at the Mocambo, Sunset Strip night spot. Lucy had expected a quiet dinner with Desi and two friends — director Vincente Minnelli and his guest Georgette Martel, sister of Miss Universe.

When Desi and Lucy arrived at the Mocambo, he took his wife to a back room.

"We can't go in there," said Lucy. "Someone's having a party."

She was right. She was the surprised guest of honor. More than 40 guests sang "Happy Anniversary" to her as she entered.

Visibly stunned, she answered: "This is the first time in my life I've ever really been surprised." Then, kissing her husband, she added, "Honey, I just love the way you did this."

DODD RESIGNS

Rome (AP)—Norris E. Dodd, former U. S. undersecretary of agriculture, told FAO Tuesday he is retiring as director general "to avoid competition over the post." His withdrawal left the way for election as head of the Food and Agriculture Organization virtually clear for another American, Dr. Philip V. Cardon, backed by the Eisenhower administration.

Erie F. Hall Died Monday

Erie F. Hall, barber in Salem for many years until ill health caused his retirement, died Monday at his home at 1320 North 17th street, following an extended illness.

Born in Illinois January 1, 1879, Hall came to Oregon at the age of 10 years with his parents, George E. and Margaret Ann Hall, and the family settled in Benton county. He came to Salem to make his home in 1929 and first had a barber shop on South Commercial street. Later he moved to a location on Market street. He retired about 10 years ago.

Hall was a member of the United Brethren church. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Minnie B. Hall of Salem; two daughters, Mrs. N. O. Thompson of Salem and Mrs. Myrtle Merriman of Medford; a son Merton D. Jones of Myrtle Creek and a sister, Miss Mary E. Hall of Alpine, Oregon.

Funeral services will be held at the Virgil T. Golden company chapel Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock with Rev. Lloyd Uecker officiating. Interment will be in the Alpine cemetery at Alpine, Oregon.

Sigler Killed In Plane Crash

Battle Creek, Mich. (AP)—Kim Sigler, who rocketed to the Michigan governor's chair seven years ago after a sensational grand jury expose, plummeted to his death late yesterday in a fiery plane crash. Three companions died with him.

Sigler's own four-place plane, threading its way through a dense fog, snagged onto a guy wire supporting a 540-foot television tower. The impact sheared off one wing and sent the fuselage hurtling into a woods three-quarters of a mile away, where it crashed and burned.

The 59-year-old Republican ex-governor presumably was at the controls.

The other victims were Sigler's secretary, Mrs. Ruth Prentice, 41; her sister, Mrs. Virginia Schuyler, 28; and Mrs. Schuyler's husband Harold, 37, of Lansing.

SIX DIE IN HEAVY SEAS

Sules Skerry, Scotland (AP)—The 296-ton British trawler Hildina foundered with the loss of six crewmen in heavy seas near the Orkney Isles, off Scotland's northern coast, early Tuesday.

THESE ATROCITIES ON U.N. AGENDA

Relatives and friends pass by bodies of some 300 political prisoners the U.S. Army says were killed by suffocation when the Communist-led North Korean Army forced them into caves, background, then sealed off the entrances. Scene is outside Hanhung, Korea. The Department of Defense released this and other atrocity pictures last October. In the U.N. General Assembly in New York (Nov. 30) the United States accused the Communist world of fearful atrocities such as these and for holding back World War II prisoners. Cult Leaders Plead Guilty

Kingman, Ariz. (AP) — The 27 purported leaders of the Short Creek multiple marriage cult will be sentenced Monday for conspiracy.

They pleaded guilty yesterday—just four months after a police force set up martial law in Short Creek, on the Arizona-Utah border, and rounded up the tiny community's men, women and children.

Charges of conspiracy were dropped against 69 other defendants.

Death Claims Hardy Zumwalt

Lebanon — Hardy Zumwalt, member of a pioneer Lane county family, died Sunday night at the home of his stepdaughter, Mrs. C. M. Iverson, 107 Harrison. He was born at Eugene, April 3, 1869, and lived there until coming to Lebanon in 1941. He was a retired farmer.

Survivors include his widow, Emma Anna Zumwalt; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Iverson and Emma Henry of Darrington, Wash., and a sister, Mrs. Marie Pollock of Cloverdale.

Funeral services will be at the Jost Funeral home, Wednesday at 2 p.m. Interment will be in the IOOF cemetery.

Earthquake Rocks Greece West Coast

Athens, Greece (AP) — A new earthquake terrorized Greece last night, collapsing 90 houses and damaging 300 others in the south-central part of the country. Press accounts made no mention of casualties. The quake also rocked the nation's west coast and was felt in the Ionian Islands, where thousands were killed or left homeless last summer by the worst such disaster in modern Greek history.

3 Networks Turn Down Reds

New York (AP)—Three major networks have turned down requests from the communist party and its organ, the Daily Worker, for radio and television time to answer Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R., Wis.).

CBS, ABC and NBC announced their decisions last night.

The communists had asked for free time after McCarthy a week ago tonight made references to the Daily Worker and Reds in general during a TV-radio talk carried by major networks and some stations.

NBC, in announcing its action, said the requests from the communist party and the Worker were turned down because "the public interest would not be served by granting time for this purpose."
