

Miss Nieswander Tells Troth at Monday Party

A surprise for a group of relatives and friends gathering for a party Monday evening was announcement of the engagement of Miss Shirley Nieswander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nieswander, to Donald Sepich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sepich of Eureka, Calif.

The party was arranged as a shower for Miss Joanne Perry of Portland, bride-elect of Paul Nieswander, Jr., and during the late dessert the betrothal of Miss Nieswander and Mr. Sepich was told.

Miss Nieswander is a former student at Willamette university and is now employed in the business office of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. Mr. Sepich is a senior at Oregon State college where he is affiliated with Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.

A summer wedding is planned.

Miss Perry, honoree for the Monday party, is to be married on December 12 to Paul Nieswander, Jr., the wedding to be at 8 o'clock that evening in the Faith Lutheran church in Portland. The reception following also will be at the church. Miss Perry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Perry of Portland.

Local Artists' Work Is Displayed

An art show for the Christmas shopper is the main theme for the next two weeks at the Gleason-Simpson studio, 162 North Commercial street. The local chapter of the Amateur Artists association of America is exhibiting works in water color and in oils in good variety and offer the shopper an opportunity of seeing both the work of the club and at the same time gifts for the season.

Among those exhibiting are Maxine Shurtleff, Evelyn Benner, Geneva Dee Harrison, Gloria Voelsch, Kenneth Burnett, Reginald Garratt, Luella Moses and Pat Collins.

The open house is slated for Friday this week, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. The showing is open to the general public without charge.

AMONG the week's bazaars will be the one by the women of the First Methodist church, Wednesday, at the church. The event starts at 9:30 o'clock. Cafeteria luncheon and dinner also will be served.

Credit Women Hear Discussion

Thirty attended the meeting of Credit Women's Breakfast club this morning at Nohlgren's when Mrs. Lloyd Myers led a discussion on what to do and what not to do in letter writing. Mrs. Leo Wahl won the prize for the best discussion on the subject.

Guests at the meeting were Miss Myrtle Ingram, Mrs. E. L. Hildreth, Mrs. Glenn Bowman, Mrs. Lorne Newkirk, Mrs. Sid Jary, Mrs. Leo Wahl, Mrs. Myrre Males, Mrs. Emma Dorman.

Plans were made for the Christmas meeting on Tuesday morning, December 15, when members will take food packages to be given a needy family at holiday time. In January the club is sponsoring a white elephant sale.

Bazaar Friday

Members of the April-October circle of Jason Lee Methodist church are sponsoring a bazaar on Friday of this week on the mezzanine at Roberts store on Court street. There will be holiday gifts, cookies and other items. On the committee for the event are Mrs. Joe Klinger, Mrs. Roy Lively, Mrs. Glenn Larkins, Mrs. E. L. Moore, Mrs. W. T. Bromley.

HOME from a trip to Davis, Calif., for over the Thanksgiving holidays are Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Scott, who visited at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Scott.

PRINGLE Pleasant Point Social club is meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. P. M. Hilmoe, 268 North 17th, a luncheon to be served at noon.

Today's Menu

- An old standby with new flavor to delight family and guests.
 - Company Dinner
 - Roast Beef
 - Browned Potatoes
 - Mashed Turnips
 - Green Salad
 - Bread and Butter
 - Coffee
 - Rice Pudding
 - Beverage
 - Coffee Rice Pudding
 - 1 teaspoon instant powdered coffee
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 cup rice
 - 1 1/2 cups boiling water
 - 1/2 cup seedless raisins (rinsed in hot water and drained)
 - 1 cup cream
 - 1/2 cup sugar
 - 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 - 1/2 cup chopped walnuts
 - 2 tablespoons chopped marshmallows
 - 2 tablespoons cherries
- Method: Stir coffee, salt and rice into boiling water; allow water to boil again, then cover closely and cook over very low heat 20 minutes. Add raisins; cover and cook 5 minutes longer or until rice is tender. Chill. Whip cream until stiff, fold in sugar, vanilla, walnuts, cherries and cooled rice mixture. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

Are Newlyweds — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gooding (Bernadette Meistrick), above, were married in mid-November at a ceremony in St. Joseph's Catholic church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Meistrick and Mr. Gooding is the son of James Gooding of St. Paul. The couple are at home in Salem. (Steimonts studio picture.)

Miss Thomas Wed at Jordan

The Rev. T. J. Bernards read the double ring ceremony for the 10 o'clock nuptial mass at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic church at Jordan, which united in marriage Miss Marjorie Jean Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Thomas of Mill City, and Cletus Schmitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schmitz of Stayton.

Alternate pews marked with silver bells and white satin bows set off the bridal procession.

Miss Thomas was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor length white satin over net dress. A pearl crown held the fingertip veil. She carried a white prayer book topped with white carnation and pink rosebud corsage. For sentiment she carried a white handkerchief which belonged to her mother, and a silver chain and cross which was a gift from the bridegroom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Marjorie Thomas, sister-in-law of the bride. Miss Charlene Schmitz, sister of the bridegroom was bridesmaid. Mrs. Thomas wore a blue net over satin dress. Miss Schmitz wore coral rose net over satin. Both carried nosegays of white chrysanthemums.

Beatrice Ann Schmitz, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl and wore a floor length white satin frock and carried a basket of white chrysanthemums.

Best man was Louie Pietrock and groomsmen was Douglas Thomas, brother of the bride, Miss Josephine Brand was organist and the wedding music was sung by Mrs. Gus Kirch and Mrs. Somak.

The bride's mother wore a suit of blue with black accessories and white carnation corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore a rose suit with navy blue accessories and white carnation corsage. The grandmother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Jake Lambrecht, wore a purple suit with white carnation corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony and was at the Jordan parish hall. Cutting cake was a cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Deloris Toepfer of Woodburn. Assisting in serving were Misses Edith Tietze, Evelyn Johnson, Ardis Meeks. Opening gifts were the same three. Passing the guest book was Miss Evelyn Johnson. Music for the reception was played by the Elzel brothers.

The bride wore a green suit with black accessories and the corsage from her prayer book for going away. After a short honeymoon to California the couple will be at home in Stayton on his father's farm, known as the Jake Lambrecht farm. It was the bridegroom's grandfather's home place.

Advance Night

Salem chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, met Saturday evening at the Masonic temple for advance night for the new officers. Miss Helen Fletcher and John Graybill presided.

Herman Johnston, associate grand patron of the grand lodge of Oregon, was an honored guest. Mrs. Hilda Beck was a guest from Chicago, Ill. Decorations were arranged by Miss Evelyn Danielson and Mrs. Mel Propp.

The refreshment committee included Phil Yoder and Mrs. Mona Yoder, co-chairmen, Mrs. Walter Sogge, Mrs. George Thomason and Mrs. T. W. Leisure.

A SON was born Sunday, November 29, at Salem General hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steeves. He is the second child in the family, there being a daughter, Lisa W. S. Lukins of Salem and Mrs. A. F. Rodgers of Train, Ore., are grandparents. The baby has been named Mitchell Laban.

MISS DELPHINE SAVAGE, formerly of Salem, now of Honolulu, will be home for the holidays to visit her mother, Mrs. Fred E. Perrin, Fruitland, and her sisters, Mrs. Don Kimple of Chemawa road and Mrs. Gordon Hood of Corvallis.

Rehearsal Party

Honoring their daughter Miss Norma Jean Camfield, and her fiancé, Darwin J. Kerber, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Camfield are to host a on Friday evening at a buffet supper at their home, the affair to follow the wedding rehearsal for the young couple. Miss Camfield and Mr. Kerber are to be married next Saturday evening.

Milton Katims to Conduct Symphony

For its next concert on December 7, the Portland Symphony will be directed by the young American conductor, Milton Katims. The program will begin at 8:30 p.m. in Portland's Civic auditorium.

Mr. Katims was first violist for the N.B.C. Symphony when Maestro Toscanini took an interest in the young musician and elevated him to a guest conductorship. Since that time Mr. Katims has distinguished himself as a violist and conductor both in Europe and America. He has appeared with the Detroit, Seattle, Buffalo, and Israel Symphonies as conductor and was chief violist for the 1952 Prades Festival with the famous cellist Pablo Casals.

The program for the Dec. 7 concert will consist of: Adagio and Fugue in C Minor by Mozart, Copland's "Appalachian Spring," and the First Symphony of Brahms, and Tchaikovsky's "Romeo and Juliet."

Tickets for Mr. Katims' concert will be available at J. K. Gill's box office beginning Thursday, Dec. 3.

After his appearance, the Portland Symphony will be directed by Dmitri Mitropoulos, Paul Strauss, Fabien Sevitzky, Igor Stravinsky, and Boris Sirpo.

MEMBERS of Bethel No. 35, Job's Daughters, plan a skating party at the North River roller rink Tuesday night. The senior princess, Miss Susan Youngquist, will have charge of the concession.

CONGRATULATIONS are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lambert upon the birth of a son, David Benjamin, Wednesday, November 25, at Salem Memorial hospital. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Lambert and Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Ringland, all of Salem, and Mrs. Cordelia Maloney of Salem is a great grandmother.

Board Meeting Set by Group

Mrs. H. D. Peterson, state president of the Republican Council of Oregon Women, Inc., announces that the December quarterly board meeting of the state council officers and members will be at Dallas from 10 to 12 o'clock on Saturday, December 5, at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

Walter Norblad, representative in congress from the first congressional district, will be the speaker at the luncheon. He will speak on achievements of the 83rd congress and on what are to be the main issues to come up in the second session of the congress which begins early in January, 1954.

All men and women interested in hearing the congressman speak on the main issues of the coming campaign are invited to attend, but reservations must be secured in advance from Mrs. H. D. Peterson, 214 Clay street, Dallas, Tel. 2006.

Holiday Meeting

A Christmas party and gift exchange will feature the meeting of the auxiliary of Hal Hibbard camp, United Spanish War Veterans, Friday, at the home of Mrs. Joe E. Wood, 1089 South High, at 1:30 p.m. Assisting Mrs. Wood will be Mrs. Johanna Perry, Mrs. Mark Baker, Mrs. Charles O. Wilson.

MRS. F. HOUSSEAS of Portland spent the Thanksgiving holiday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Richey.

Silver Tea at Mt. Angel Set

Mt. Angel — Mrs. Louis A. LeDoux, Oregon state regent of the Catholic Daughters of America, and Mrs. Edward A. Hammer, vice-president of the Oregon City deanery, Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, have been asked to pour at the Christmas festival and silver tea Sunday, December 6, in the sunken ballroom of the Masonic temple, Portland.

The affair sponsored by the "Put Christ Back Into Christmas" committee is one of the outstanding social events to herald the Christmas season and will be held Sunday afternoon from 1 to 7 o'clock p.m.

The date of the festival is the feast of St. Nicholas, the original Santa Claus. In Belgium and Holland it was on this day that the good St. Nick distributed gifts to good children. It was Dutch ancestors who brought the custom to this country of hanging the Christmas stockings and the giving of Christmas presents, the committee states.

The archdiocesan council of Catholic women, the Portland council of churchwomen and the YWCA are unified as the committee for the primary purpose of putting Christ back into Christmas. Mrs. Malcolm and Mrs. Oscar Chappell are co-chairmen of the festival and tea which will be open to the public.

XI LAMBDA chapter of Beta Sigma Phi is meeting Wednesday evening of this week at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss Martha Lierly. The Christmas party for the chapter will be on December 16.

HURRY! HURRY!

NEVER BEFORE SUCH SHOE VALUES!

WOMEN'S SHOES
HOUSE SLIPPERS
HOSIERY
HANDBAGS

ENTIRE STOCK MUST GO!

Regardless of Cost or Selling Price

● Roe Bros., a National Shoe Chain has purchased the entire Fashion Bootery Chain. All existing stocks are to be cleared out regardless of cost to make room for all new merchandise and new fashion policies. A rare opportunity for buying at bargain prices.

WE MUST SELL OUT TO THE BARE WALLS!

$4.99 Values NOW $2.97

$5.99 Values NOW $3.97

$6.99 Values NOW $4.97

$8.99 Values NOW

VALUES to $6.99

$1.97

SEVERAL HUNDRED PAIRS ALL SIZES

Not in all Styles
Mostly size 4-4 1/2
7 1/2 to 9

SAVE 50% OR MORE

your opportunity

GO SHOES
OVERSHOES
Value $7.49 NOW

HANDBAGS

$2.95 Values NOW $1.79

$4.95 Values NOW $2.49

Beautifully sheer
HOSIERY

Values to $1.39
NOW 59¢

60 gauge - 15 denier

FASHION BOOTERY

N. E. Corner Court & Liberty

DENTISTS

often give little patients this pure orange flavored tablet to ease pain.

ST. JOSEPH'S ASPIRIN FOR CHILDREN

World's Largest Selling Aspirin For Children

YOUR NORGE DEALER IS

CHERRY CITY ELECTRIC

339 CHEMEKETA

FRONTS

2715 So. Commercial

Ph. 4-8113