In high school, the height factor is not as important as some people think. You find that a good-sized amount of the large boys in prep circles don't know how to use their height.
Therefore, they have no great advantage over the small fast graduation so I haven't player.

John Lattner To Get Two Grid Honors

South Bend, Ind. (P) — If Johnny Lattner gets on his feet to address his hosts at the Maxwell and Heisman awards the subject is Johnny Latiner.

"Sure a Thrill"

Asked by a reporter for his reaction to being chosen for college football's top two individual honors, the boyish All America hesitated, then said it was "sure a thrill."

However, he hastened to turn the talk to the Irish team. Said John:

for this season's title race, we find the coaches agreeing on no point, the noticeable lack of height, which will be the thing that will hurt the chances of all the teams.

Sacred Heart of Salem has what little edge there is with two 6-3 boys, but the rest of the Cardinals average around 5-9. Salem academy has a 6-1 center, but again the other members of the squad are under the 6' mark.

Central boasts five boys over the coveted mark, while Stayton has but one. Cascade has two six-footers as does Philomath.

C. of I.'s Hayes Picked To AP Little All-America

New York, W—The Associate Press. Little All-American football team of 1953 honors players from colleges in 10 different states, giving recognition to athletes who helped their teams win conference or regional championships, sided in winning bowl bids and, in one case, set national records.

It is doubtful if ever in the past the colleges termed with the past the colleges the past the colleges termed with the past the colleges the past the Maxwell and Heisman awards dinner those present may witness a neat bit of sidestepping.
Notre Dame's brilliant 20-year-old halfback, voted both awards yesterday, is just as hard to corner in conversation as he is on the football field.
That's especially true when the subject is Johnny Lattner.

the East Tennessee State aggre-gation which won the Burley Bowl laurels on Thanksgiving

The team this year, with the return to one platoon football, names only 11 men in contrast to the 22 picked during the two-platoon era.

Cutting the first team honors in half shunted Ron Billings of Pacific Lutheran to the second team after he made the top rung a year ago. It also probably cost Jim Gray, a teammate of Ashley on the East Texas State team that has won 29 in a row, a first team berth. The players that did make the team represent clubs that won 89 games out of 96 for a washington College of Education:
