Boots and Spurs

By SUSAN YOUNGQUIST

This Saturday night, December 5, is the night for another Saddle club dance, with a four-piece band from Albany coming to provide the music. Square dances usually hold the spotlight for a portion of the evening, and nearly everyone participates in these. Waltzes, polkas and the Bunny Hop take up another part, with some of the time spent on just ordinary, regular dancing. All Saddle club members and their guests are invited to attend. The dress is semi-formal, and the hours are from 9:00 to 12:00, with a no-host lunch at midnight. The place — Four Corners Community hall. General chairman for these affairs is Thelma Youngquist.

Seems Art Martin started a fad when he went to Mexico last month. The latest to go to the "land of the bullfights, beautiful señoritas, and moonlight nights" is Rod Hofstetter. He left for Mexico City last week, planning to go on to Acapulco for about a week. Naturally, he'll be the envy of the Saddle club when he returns, just radiating health, and sporting a deep tan. Some people have all the luck!

The Bulldogging club, mentioned last week, has more or less been formed. No definite plans have been made, but the fellows seem to think it's a good idea. Two of the backers of this are Orville Schryder and Ralph Stangeby, both out last Sunday. Calf ropers report a big crowd out Sunday. Guess the boys are all "coming out of the hills" being's hunting seasons are almost over.

A small calf roper made his appearance last Saturday, when Hank and Janet Hess welcomed a baby boy. The baby has been named Sage, and will no doubt prove to be a welcome playmate for his older brother, Piney.

Have you seen what artists we have in our club? In the coffee room, the sign-up cards are very cleverly done with spaces in which to put your John Henry if you want to have Fun Night, serve coffee, etc. But one card that no one voluntarily signs is the Tanbarker list. A Tanbarker is one who "hits the dirt" unwillingly, or, in other words is thrown off his horse. If you're really talented, you can get a star behind your name. The latest one to receive this dubious honor is Bonnie Jenkinson. She was "unseated" got back on, and was promptly thrown again. Guess she doesn't know when to quit. Anyhow, a star for you, Bonnie, and better luck next time.

Meanwhile cut celery and carrots about size of beans; add to beans with boiling water and a little salt; cook rapidly until beans are tender—about 15 to 20 minutes.
