GUNN IS GUNNER OF THE WEEK

GUNN IS GUNNER OF THE WEEK Bowler of the week is Ray "Lefty" Gunn, number four man for Lana Avenue Service in the Commercial No. 1 league at the Capitol who broke loose for a big one Monday night. Ray started with a 258 game, high for the night, slipped to an average 181 the second game and then finished strong with 214 for a fat 653 series. Sad to report, however, that Ray and his mates lost three points to the strong Nick's Inn team, who were led by Warren Miller and a 576 series, ably supported by Shelton, Willett and Wilberg. We'll not mention your series Mr. L. D. Also shooting nicely was Clayt Foreman, who checked in with 617. 607 SERIES "WASTED" Checking in with 607 in the Commercial No. 2 was Keith Checking in with 607 in the Commercial No. 2 was Keith Hayes of the Jewel Box, whose efforts also went for naught as his team lost three points to Marv's Sudsery. Also shooting well were Bob Ryan of Martin Bros., Millard Pekar of Holly-wood Finance, and John Doerfler of Jones & Fagg.

Food Finance, and John Doerfler of Jones & Fags. Industrial No. 1 action Tuesday night saw Jack Olney, (for the fourth straight week) continue his hot streak as he nothing-balled his way to a 253 middle game and a 614 series, his umpty-umpth of the season. His Stevens & Sons, Jewelers mates failed to support him sufficiently and they, too, won but one point from Elwood Masonry. BENNAN BOWI S are and a context BRENNAN BOWLES 259 TO LOSE

Major league action Wednesday night saw Salem Elks Lodge win four points from Marion Hotel & Car Parks, Bren-nan Tree Service taking three from Gardner Grocery, Kar's 5 Old Misers winning three from The Meadows, and Gerlinger Carrier jarring Marshal's for a 5-0 blanking. High game for the evening was turned in by Tom "The Rail" Brennan, who marked out a 250 his first some colu to loss Tom Tighted mashed out a 259 his first game only to lose. Tom finished strong and wound up with a 833 series for the evening, second to anchor man Dick Phipps 837 for Gardner Grocery. High game was turned in by Salem Elks against Marion Hotel and Car Parks, high series for Brennan's. The Meadows hung on to their substantial lead in the lesgue and high aver-see man Dick Phipps moved back up to 199 as his closest age man Dick Phipps moved back up to 199 as his closes challengers, Pinky Hartwell and John Glodt shot below par CHRISTMAS BONUS SWEEPER BEGINS

HRISTMAS BONUS SWEETER BEGINS Hey, everyone, want to earn some money to help pay the bills your wife is sure to run up during the Christmas spending spree? All you have to do to pick up some easy money is go out to the U-Bowl starting today and bowl in Louie and Bob's Christmas Bonus Sweeper. The U-Bowl will award $200.00 in prizes, free gratis, to the highest three game total for open play bowling between now and Christmas eve. There will be several prizes with the top award heins $75.00. award being $75.00.

There is no entry fee other than regular prices, use high est league average, and only Salem Bowlers may participate. It will be handicap with 70% of 190 scratch with a 35 pin limit per game. Sounds good to me, cause a man has to prac-tice anyway, and you could win some money doing it. THE CREAMERY FAITHFUL

Disa & Data from the record book . . . Did you know that the very first oddity record in the book shows that the Marion Creamery team from Salem stands third in the all-time attendance records for a team? Over the 1950-51 seasons boys bowled 117 games without a man being absent. Men bers of the team were Lloyd Lavenport, Millard Pekar, Bob King, Ernie Garbarino, and a man whose name we have lost. The record number of games bowled by a team without a man be-ing absent is 171 by a Pennsylvania team over the 47, 48 & All assent is 17. by a rennsylvania team over recorded turned in by Skang Mercurio of Cleveland in 1933-1934 season when he averaged 238 for 75 games. At that rate of pin shattering, he could shoot 650 and have a bad nite. It should happen to me!... Here's a heartening note to youse guys having a bad year. In 1952 a 157 average bowler in Detroit, the nation's bothed of bowling shot a game of 9 (nine) Year that's right met. ... Here's a heretening movie in Detroit, the nation's year. In 1952 a 157 average bowler in Detroit, the nation's hotbed of bowling, shot a game of 9 (nine). Yep, that's right, you guys doing a lot of moaning over a 110 or 120 games don't realize how good you did shoot. . . Closest match ever recorded came as Ben Bernicchi, Chicago, beat Ernie Schanz of that city in 1931 by 1 pin over the 60 game route and for a $1000.00. Don't think my heart would stand it to even watch a match like that, much less bowl.

It was the second game for Woodburn, which squeezed by Newberg 49-45 in a double ov-ertime Tuesday, and the open-ing contest for North Marion's Huskies of the Yawama league. It had been Driver, a reserve, who capped a North Marion fourth quarter rally to tie it up at 30-30 and he was the one who fouled Higgins. Thereafter the Huskies could not get their mits on the ball. From a 10-point deficit the Huskies began hitting in spec-tacular fashion up to the tie.
