

Willamette Gets Hot Rally to Top St. Martin's 71-63

Bearcats Seize Lead On Reed's Big Effort

By DAVE BARROWS

Willamette university moved into the win column on its second try last night here as it downed St. Martin's college of Olympia, Wash., 71-63.

The Bearcats now have a 1-1 record, having been dropped by the University of Hawaii last Thursday.

The local five had to overcome a 33-27 halftime deficit to post the victory, for the small but scrappy Rangers led for two and one-half quarters. Reed Leads Rally

Willamette was paced by Pete Reed, last year's center converted to forward this year, who tanked 19 points. However, he had to relinquish scoring honors to the St. Martin forward Jack May, who pushed through 20.

Reed sank 10 of his points in a period of a few short minutes when midway in the third quarter he was switched to his familiar center slot. It was like a duck taking to water as Reed couldn't miss with his southpaw hook shot.

The Bearcats were a much improved crew over the team which dropped a 69-50 decision to Hawaii. Coach John Lewis indicated a need for improvement in ball handling and for more speed for a fast break.

In the outstanding player department behind Reed, Tom Gooding, the transfer from Boise junior college, scored 16 points before leaving on furlough.

Guard Dick Hoy turned in his usually fine performance and earned 12 points for his efforts. Forward Bill Colvard, the only senior on the squad, got 15 points.

Lead Changes Often

Dave Gray, second string guard, gave a good performance and fans should see a lot of him before the season is over.

It was nip and tuck for most of the first half, the lead changing five times before St. Martin's went to the front at 18-16, increasing it to 33-27 at halftime in the final two minutes after a 27-27 tie.

The visitors moved to a 39-30 margin after intermission and it appeared that a trend had been established until Reed took the reins at center. Hoy, Jack Bishop and Gray also contributed until it was 46-48, then Reed tied it at 48-48 and Hoy's charity toss put Willamette ahead.

From a 52-49 third-quarter lead, Willamette fought off challenges, putting on a real finish in the final 5:15 with Gray and Colvard closing with two fast baskets.

The Rangers hit 19 of 23 free throws to a record of 15 in 28 attempts by Willamette. From the floor, Willamette outscored St. Martin's 58-44.

Gonzaga Next Tuesday

Next Tuesday, Lewis' Bearcats will meet the highly touted Gonzaga university here, paced by Jerry "Arms" Vermillion, a junior being pushed for All-American. He led the coast in rebounds last year and racked up 38 points against Willamette.

He is aided by a high school star, Dave Tri, and a pair of holdovers, Jerry Wells and Gary Hetherington.

The Willamette frosh will make its first public appearance in an intersquad game.

It's Mine It's Mine—Bill Colvard (No. 35 at left), and Jack Bishop, No. 37, both Willamette players, match reactions with St. Martin's Jackie May for a rebound beside the basket last night. Willamette outlasted the Rangers, 71-63.

Sacred Heart Loses 58-45 To St. Francis Quint Here

By DON WICHMAN

The St. Francis Saints outplayed the Sacred Heart Cardinals 58 to 45 Friday night at the Salem Armory in the Cards' first home game of the season.

The teams played a blow for blow game the entire first half, with a quarter score of 15-13 favoring the SHA five, and a half-time tally of 25-23 for the Saints.

The third period showed the Redbirds "slowing their pace and their 6'3" center Fred Shaub fouled out leaving a short team which resulted in the southern boys outshooting them 20 points to 9. The last eight minutes was a fast fighting free for all netting each 13 points.

The Saints had a decided advantage in height over the local boys with a guard, Robertson, measuring at 6'4" and 6'5" Walsh controlling the backboard for a resounding 58 to 45 win. Regardless of this height the Saints were unable to handle Vince Matt, who through terrific control and speed was able to push through 25 points for the Cards.

The Cardinals' JV's also bowed to Eugene HI for a 30 to 47 loss. The Cards play three games next week, at Woodburn Monday, with Mt. Angel here on Wednesday, and at St. Francis of Eugene Friday.

Central Shades Sheridan, 44-41

Sheridan—Central high's Panthers edged Sheridan 44-40 here last night in a non-league go. The Panthers were behind 11-9 at the end of one quarter but took the lead 22-19 at halftime.

Mel Haveman of Central, a freshman guard, and Larry Green of Sheridan shared high point honors with 12 apiece. Central also won the JV game 50-40.

Woodburn Golfers Elect Adkinson

Woodburn—O. J. Adkinson was elected president of the Woodburn Golf club at a meeting of the board of directors Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. L. J. Plank.

John Schmid was named vice president and Mrs. Plank was re-elected secretary-treasurer. Edgar Tweed was elected to the board of directors to fill out the unexpired term of Antonio DeJardin, who has moved to Salem and who presented his resignation.

Dick Zeller of Salem Stars at George Fox

Newberg—Dick Zeller, 200-pound junior fullback from Salem, led the George Fox college Quakers in punting, passing, running and total offense the past season, it was disclosed here this week.

Zeller, former Salem Academy athletic star, averaged 41 yards for each of 35 punts, improving on his 40 yards for 20 kicks a year ago, and on his 36.1 average in 32 punts in 1951. George Fox college opponents included the Lewis and Clark Jayvees, Linfield junior varsity, Pacific university Jayvees and Oregon College of Education Jayvees, beating the last 12-6.

Zeller, who received the co-captain's star along with his football letter, was one of 21 receiving numerals at the annual banquet. He also is a two-year basketball letterman, catcher on the baseball team, bass soloist in the college choir and Newberg community "Messiah" chorus, student director of the band, president of the Singing Men, the men's group which presents the annual Quartet Festival in February.

Others receiving varsity football letters were Vic Barnick, sophomore center; End Harlan Barnett, Quarterback Steve Ross and Tackle Ralph Cammack, freshmen all from the Salem area.

The Quaker basketball turnout includes Ron Barnick, freshman Ross, Barnett and Cammack. George Fox college will open its Metropolitan Collegiate conference schedule December 11 against the University of Oregon Dental school at the Quaker gym.

Refrigerator Bowl Sunday For Coyotes

Evansville, Ind. (AP)—The Refrigerator Bowl Sunday may be more like a laundry tub, to the advantage of once-beaten Sam Houston State of Texas over undefeated College of Idaho.

A forecast of rain, with temperatures in the 50s, was bad news for the Coyotes from Idaho, who have one of the nation's top football passers in quarterback Boyd Crawford of Torrance, Calif.

The Coyotes won't be entirely helpless if their passing game is drowned out. Halfback Ted Martin, a hard running 175-pounder from Fruitland, Idaho, has made 1,206 yards by rushing this season and scored 14 touchdowns.

Sam Houston, stopped only by unbeaten East Texas, has averaged over 300 yards a game on the ground, and also has gained well in the air with quarterback Stan Keathley of Corsicana, Tex., mixing plays masterfully.

Both teams have beefy lines, averaging about 210 pounds, but the Sam Houston Bearcats have a huskier backfield. Keathley outweighs Crawford, 175 pounds to 165. The Bearcats have a cluster of halfbacks ranging from 175 to 200, while the Coyotes' right halfback, Ed Bonaminio of Chicago, weighs only 157 and right halfback Ted Martin of Fruitland, 175.

Marion County B League Jamboree Set Here Tonite

The annual Marion County B League Jamboree will be staged at Willamette University tonight with the first contest at seven.

All ten teams in the league will participate with St. Paul, Gervais, Chemawa, Scio, and Oregon Deaf School playing for the "North" while Jefferson, Gates, Mill City, Detroit, and Sublimity will play for the "South."

The first game matches St. Paul with Mill City, the second is Scio vs. Sublimity, the third is Gervais vs. Jefferson, the fourth is Chemawa vs. Detroit, and the final game puts Oregon School for the Deaf against Gates.

Each game will be ten minutes and the score will go to the total for either the "North" or the "South" team. School cheering sections will be judged on cheering ability and sportsmanship with trophies going to the winners.

The line-ups for each school are:

Chemawa—(Coach Ed Bartlett) Farrell Gallineau, Jim Switzer, Pat Morin, George Umlich and Art Lane.

Detroit—(Coach Francis Kettleson) Bob Lady, Les Hanson, Russell Rice, Gerald Vickers, and Lloyd Ketchum.

Oregon School for the Deaf—(Coach Allen Hayek) Ray McCann, Dave Maynard, Carl Lewin, Teaman Heath, and Larry Applebee.

Gates—(Coach Dale Reynolds) Herb Roney, Gordon Devine, Don Evans, Jerry Larson, and Al Vail.

Gervais—(Coach Orville Hoyer) Norm Keppinger, Don Reiling, Gib Thompson, Ben Keppinger, and Clarence Schlechter.

Jefferson—(Coach Ted Johnson) George Marlatt, John Wright, Claude Meyers, Larry Wells, and Dave Henlon.

St. Paul—(Coach Buck Weatherill) John Kirsch, Sam Smith, Charles Van Damme, Ted Frith, George Smith, and Charles Merten.

Scio—(Coach Stan Whipple) Glen Bryan, Gordon O'Reilly, Don Gibson, Duane Jacobsen, and Ed Novack.

District 8 West Tops East Teams In Cage Jamboree

Sweet Home—The "West" made up of Albany and Corvallis, defeated the "East" Lebanon and Sweet Home, 106-70 in the annual District 8 basketball jamboree here Friday night.

Competition was divided into four halves, each team playing one quarter against each of the two opposing teams, and points were totaled. The gymnasium was packed.

Results by halves:

Albany 28, Lebanon 25.

Corvallis 19, Sweet Home 11.

Albany 34, Sweet Home 22.

Corvallis 26, Lebanon 11.

Dave Gambee, 6-foot-6 Corvallis center, led all scorers by totaling 22 points in the two halves. Dave Shelby, 6-foot-8 Albany center, was good for 15 points. Malcolm McBride, 6-2 Lebanon forward, made 13, and Fred Chambers, 5-10 Sweet Home forward, scored eight.

Cascade Edges Silverton 52-50 In 2nd Overtime

Silverton—Bill Brown hit a jump shot from the key with a minute and a half remaining in the second overtime to give Cascade a thrilling 52-50 victory here Friday night over Silverton high school.

In the junior varsity preliminary, too, Silverton lost in an overtime, 40-39.

The regular varsity time ended in a 46-46 deadlock and in the first overtime of three minutes, Silverton scored two free throws, then Cascade tied it up with a field goal at 48-48. Silverton went ahead on a field goal before Don Wipper dropped in two charities for another tie, 50-50.

The "sudden death" second overtime found Brown dumping the deciding shot.

The results were a complete reversal of Tuesday night's 71-49 rout of Cascade by Silverton.

In the jayvee game, it was 37-37 at the end of the regulation contest. Gene Speer led Cascade with 22, while Jack Weeks had 11 for Silverton Jayvees.

Lebanon Bowmen To Get Plaques

Lebanon—Four members of the Wapiti Bowmen will receive plaques at next Monday's meeting of the club in the armory. Buck heads go to Mel Schmidt, Clayton Carpenter and Rollie Smith, and a doe head to H. M. Swartz.

The plaques are awarded to members who successfully bagged deer during the past season with bow and arrow.

Target shooting will conclude the evening meeting.

Hawaii Defeats Lewis and Clark 34-12 in Football

Honolulu (AP)—Led by quarterback Joe Matsukawa and the running of Joe Balangitao and Ed Kowawaki, the University of Hawaii defeated Lewis and Clark College 34-12 in a football game before 6,500 here Friday night.

Matsukawa threw two touchdown passes and engineered a smooth ground attack that outclassed the Pioneers from Portland, Ore.

The visitors struck for their first touchdown early in the third quarter on a beautiful lateral play from Caley Cook to Earl Engrebretson to Jim Smith, covering 57 yards.

Lewis and Clark scored again midway in the fourth period when Jene Flippin bucked over from the one to climax a 47-yard drive.
