Trial of Satterlee Continued to Monday

The trial of Raymond Satterlee, 17, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of 4 year old Kenneth Cross last August 4, was continued until next Monday afternoon following Friday's initial session.

Circuit Judge George R. Duncan is presiding and a jury of five men and seven women is hearing the evidence.

Schoolmates of young Satterlee were in the courtroom Friday, some of whom were on the stand in the role of character witnesses.

An autopsy following the death of the Cross boy revealed he had died from bruises about the face and body. Satterlee was indicted by the grand jury August 13 and he was released from custody on $3500 bond, provided by residents of the Pratum district, scene of the tragedy.
