During the halftime they dis-cuss "what the opposition is doing to us."

On the road, they breakfast at 10 or 10:30 s.m., take a walk and read or talk, have a chalk talk at 3 p.m., eat at 4 p.m. and try to sleep until 6:30.

Harold Hauk, Salem high school basketball coach, said his team "did well for an opening game' and that "both Sa-lem and Roosevelt played like it was the finals at Eugene."

He added that "I hope they continue to try like that." Next week the Vikings will be guests of the Breakfast club.

South' Edges 'North' In Marion B Jamboree

The North, represented by St. Paul, Sublimity, Gervals, Chemawa and the Oregon School for the Deaf, was defeated by the South — Mill City, Scio, Jefferson, Detroit, and Gates, 63-61, at the annual Marion County "B" League Jamboree at Willamette university Saturday night.

The winners were paced by Mill City, who downed St. Paul, 18-7, and who had the highest team score for the evening. The Timberwolver high man was Al Ward, who dropped through six, while Charles Merten led the St. Paul attack with three.
