

Vikings to Play at Hillsboro Tuesday for 2nd Game

Salem Then to Be Idle Till Big 6 Opens Dec. 18

Salem high goes after its second win of the season Tuesday night when the Viking basketball squad travels to Hillsboro for a nonleague game. The Vikings edged the Roosevelt Teddies Friday night 50-46 to start their season.

Harold Hauk's Vikings have made up their lack of height with speed and fight with guards Jim Knapp and Gordy Domogalla leading the attack. Knapp had 10 points Friday while Domogalla had 12.

Hauk will probably stick with the same starting lineup he used against the Portland team with Knapp and Domogalla at the guards, Wayne Erickson at center, and Larry Springer and Tom Pickens at the forwards. Bob Wulf, 6-4 center, will see plenty of action after the junior helped lead the Vikings Friday to the thrilling win.

Idle Until December 18 Hillsboro has always been a strong team in the TTV league with many state tournament appearances. Both teams have been hurt by loss of experienced height but Salem still has five lettermen at the starting positions.

After Tuesday night's game the Vikings are idle until December 18 when they open their Big Six schedule with a game at Springfield. Then they have a return clash at Salem with Hillsboro December 22 and are again idle, this time until January when they hit the toughest part of the schedule.

Lee Gustafson's Viking junior varsity, which will play the preliminary at Hillsboro, also did well as they steamed over the Roosevelt JV's 59-34. Both teams practice this afternoon and then wait for the games.

Schuster Signed As Rainier Coach

New York (AP) — Buffalo Bill Schuster will ride the range (the Sick Stadium junior grade variety) again in Seattle.

The Seattle Rainiers' two roving talent hunters, general manager Dewey Soriano and playing manager Gerry Friday, announced Saturday the signing of the 37-year-old Schuster as a coach.

Schuster, with a long baseball career behind him, sat this season out at his California home after two years as manager of the Vancouver Caplans of the Western International League.

Sam Houston Whips C of I At Evansville

Evansville, Ind. (AP) — Once beaten Sam Houston State scored a third period safety and held College of Idaho to 21 yards on the ground to win the sixth annual Refrigerator Bowl game yesterday 14-12.

The Texans' victory, viewed by nearly 10,000 fans, snapped a 14-game winning streak for the Pacific Northwest Conference champions.

Idaho scored first, in the second period, when fullback George Pesut bulled over from the one-yard line, fumbled, and teammate Ed Donaminio recovered for the touchdown.

Sam Houston fullback Dick Gaines, voted the game's most valuable player, evened the count on a 10 yard run the next time the Bearcats got possession.

Halfback McNeill Moore put the Texans ahead to stay in the next period with a 34-yard touchdown gallop.

Kenewick Scores Max Whitley caught Idaho's Walt Jukubowski in the end zone near the end of the period to give the underdog Bearcats their margin of victory. Then, with time running out, Idaho quarterback Boyd Crawford threw a 15-yard touchdown pass to Jack Kenewick to complete the day's scoring.

'Swede' Proves Ability to Play Top Competition

Halbrook poured home 29 points Saturday night, more than half his team's total, as the Beavers beat Hawaii for the second straight night, 55-50. Halbrook had scored 20 points Friday night.
