Escaped Con on 'Most Wanted'
Washington (AP)—An escaped gun-chewing convict who knifed his second wife to death in Chicago last March was put on FBI's "10 Most Wanted" list Monday.
He is Peter Edward Kenzik, 46, also known as Peter Edward Miller, who has a criminal record dating back 30 years.
Kenzik went on the "Most Wanted" list as a replacement for Thomas Massingale, Kansas jailbreaker and kidnaper caught at Las Vegas, N. M., on Nov. 26.

All Classes Appear In Challenge Show
All classes will have a part in the five hour-show next Saturday night when Willamette University students will start their campaign in connection with the challenge fund drive.
The students have fixed a goal of $10,000 to be completed by May of next year. The money will be turned over to the committee which is raising a million dollars with which to construct new buildings on the campus.
Saturday night's program will include an exhibition of

War Correspondent Drafted Into Army
Tokyo (AP)—Bernard D. Kaplan, 25, New York City, who covered the Korean War from start to finish as a correspondent, is being drafted into the army.
Kaplan came to the Far East for International News Service, but since 1951 has represented the London Daily Mail and the Canadian Broadcasting System.
His wife, Antonia Schilling, is en route home by ship. Kaplan leaves by plane tomorrow to report for induction in New York City.

Now Many Wear FALSE TEETH With More Comfort
FASTTEETH, a pleasant alkaline (non-acid) powder, binds false teeth more firmly. To eat and talk in more comfort, just sprinkle a little FASTTEETH on your plates. No gummy, sticky, pasty taste or feeling. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTTEETH at any drug counter.
