Holiday Setting For Wedding

A beautiful Christmas time setting was arranged for the wedding of Miss Norma Jean Camfield and Darwin J. Kerber Saturday evening when the couple exchanged their vows at a ceremony in the chapel of the First Christian church. The Rev. Donald Payne officiated at the 8 o'clock service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Camfield and Mr. Kerber is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam J. Kerber.

Silver bouquets encircled red poinsettias arranged in baskets, and there was a garland of the greens and poinsettias. Also used in decorating were candelabras with lighted tapers.

For the music, Miss Coralle Doughton sang, Don Smith, cousin of the bride, being the organist.

The bridal dress was made by Mrs. Camfield for her daughter. It was of imported Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The long sleeved bodice was of the lace, the scoop neckline edged in seed pearls, a jeweled pattern of pearls and rhinestones trimming the bodice and sleeves. The bouffant skirt was of tulle with uneven tiers cascading down to the chapel train. A jeweled tiara of lace held in place the fingertip veil. For her flowers the bride carried a round bouquet of shirred loops of white nylon net lace and stephanotis centered with a white orchid and backed with white satin leaves from which cascaded a shower of loops of pearls and narrow white satin ribbon. Mr. Camfield gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Dona Lee Farrington, cousin of the bride, Toledo, was maid of honor. She wore a waltz length frock of red velvet with billowing skirt, the scoop neckline edged with seed pearls. She wore a headpiece matching her dress and her flowers were a nosegay of French white carnations centered with a red poinsettia and backed with angel feathers from which fell streamers of ribbon.

Wade C. Carter was best man. Ushering were Don Empey, cousin of the bridegroom, and Don Jones.

For the wedding, the bride's mother wore a navy blue wool crepe suit with rhinestone clip, pale pink accessories and corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a black suit with satin trim, black and white accessories and corsage of pink roses.

The reception was in the church fireplace room. Mrs. Paul Shafer and Mrs. Charles Wright cut the cake. Pouring were Mrs. Hobart Smith, at the coffee urn, and Mrs. Jack Grenz of Albany at the punch bowl. Assisting were Miss Sharon Shafer, Mrs. William McCormack and Miss Gwen Fry. Christmas decorations also were used in decorating at the reception.

For going away the bride wore a three-piece suit of heather beige with matching hat and brown accessories, and corsage of white orchid.

Following a trip to Reno and Las Vegas, the couple will be at home at 424 South Capitol.

AMONG pre-Christmas open house hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. George M. Schwarz who have invitations out for an open house on Sunday, December 20, at their North Capitol street home, guests being invited to call between 4 and 8 o'clock.

Refreshments were served in the dining room after the meeting.

Participating in the evening entertainment were Mrs. Walter Larson, Roy Pease, Mrs. Fred Shafer, Mrs. Lora Groves, Gus Erickson. Floor work was displayed by the drill team. A gift was presented to Mrs. Clarence Townsend by Miss Wilda Siegmund from the officers and members of the auxiliary.

Refreshments were served in the dining room after the meeting.
