On Campus
Varied

Oregon State college, Corvallis (Special) — After restful vacation the students returned to the campus in the best of spirits. While we are on the subject of spirit, we must tell you about the basketball games played here this week-end in Gill Coliseum. The very highly rated OSC team took on the University of Hawaii quintet. Of special interest to you Salem folk was the chance to see ex-Salem high basketball player, Larry Paulus, perform on the court with the OSC team.

Also on the week's agenda was the second college play entitled, "Elizabeth the Queen." The production included many scenes from ancient castles and the costumes were of the Elizabethan age.

Students were very shocked to hear of the death of our dean of women, Miss Mary I. Bash. Many philanthropic donations are being given in her name. The OSC Panhellenic is giving money to the Corvallis Good Samaritan hospital in her memory.

The final matinee dance of the term was in the memorial Union hall room last week. Jody Ricketts of Salem is the M.U. dance chairman who arranges these affairs. Five OSC women acted as hostesses for this dance, two of whom are from Salem, Jan Folger and Nan Steele. Music was provided by Jim Todd's dance band. Members in the band from Salem include: Todd, the leader, Jerry Gillespie and Max Morris.

Sunday marked the official opening of the Christmas season here on the campus. The traditional M.U. Christmas party was Sunday afternoon for faculty members and their children, students and friends. Helping on the committee to decorate the main lounge were Joanne Fabry of Salem. Other Salemites helping on the party included: Mary Feike, Pat Morton, Barbara Wagness, Alice Lehman and Carolyn Parker who sang in the Gamma Phi Beta Chorus.

Recently initiated into the Arnold Air society, honorary for men in Air Force R.O.T.C., was Allan Olson of Salem.

A bit from the eod column in the daily Barometer reads, "Despite the preachings of the housemother. The distressing condition still survives. A eod will happily date a Cad — Especially if that's what he drives."

Mr., Mrs. White Anniversary Feted
Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. White of Selah, Wash., for many years residents of Salem, observed their golden wedding anniversary on November 29. A reception was given in their honor at the Woman's Century club house in Yakima.

The couple were married in Boone, Iowa, December 1, 1903. They came to Salem in 1904, then moved to Portland in 1929 and to Yakima in 1933. They have lived on a ranch near Selah since 1946.

All six of the couple's children were present for the anniversary event, including Mrs. Audrey Whitney of Sacramento, Calif., Maxwell H. White, Mrs. D. W. Vance, both of Portland, Mrs. W. G. Maulsby, Mrs. R. F. Maulsby and Mrs. Richard Lucas, all of Selah.

The reception also marked the 32nd and 24th wedding anniversaries for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sundquist and Mr. and Mrs. Galen Siddall of Salem, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. White, the anniversaries being December 1. A dedication service was conducted by the Rev. Kenneth Bomberg to honor the couples. Also attending the reception were Mr. White's two brothers-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. White and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson of Salem. Mrs. White and Mrs. Johnson poured at the reception and Mrs. Siddall of Salem cut the cake.

Mr. White was with a large paint company as northwest territory manager for many years, retiring in 1949, and for 49 years has been an orchardist.

Both Mr. and Mrs. White have been active in church work. They were active in the First Baptist church while here. Mrs. White is now president of the United Church Women and Mr. White is president of the United Church Men at Selah. Mr. White also is an elder in the First Presbyterian church at Yakima. He is vice president of the Washington State Apple commission. Mrs. White is a past president of the Presbyterian church women's organization in her home town and vice president of the Woman's club of Selah valley.
