

SANTA and the FLYING PUP

By LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

Willie could see a humped over figure stalking through the night.

Synopsis: Willie the pup decides to go along with Mr. Not Much and Mr. Very Little, who say they are Dreamlins—little creatures who take care of children. They are going to see Santa Claus to ask his help in rescuing their queen who has been captured by Gremlins.

CHAPTER 6
WILLIE PROTECTS SANTA

Willie and the Dreamlins peered through the snow and darkness. Far away they saw lights. "That must be Santa's house!" cried Mr. Very Little.

The three of them hurried forward but in a moment there was a call for help. Both the Dreamlins were stuck. They were so tiny they disappeared in the snow with every step they tried to take. "I am large and you are small," said Willie. "I will carry you."

The Dreamlins thought this a good idea. Gladly they climbed on Willie's back. Willie gambled through the snow. Soon they were at Santa's house.

Suddenly Mr. Not Much clutched at the fur on Willie's neck. "Look!" he whispered.

Willie looked and he could see a humped over, dreadful, black figure stalking through the night straight for Santa's house.

"Santa must be in terrible danger," shivered Mr. Very Little. "Whatever will we do?"

Willie thought the best thing to do would be to go back home. But it was too late now. He growled fiercely to hide his terror and threw himself forward. Surprised, the Dreamlins lost their hold on Willie's back and went flying head first into a snow bank.

Willie fastened his teeth around the man's ankle. He roared, Willie growled, the Dreamlins, digging themselves out of the snow bank screamed.

The door of the house opened and Santa Claus himself rushed onto the scene.

"What in the world is happening here?" he cried.

"Help!" roared the man. "It's a wolf!"

Willie believed that Santa could now take care of himself so he released his grip. Then, to encourage Santa, he began to run madly around in circlesarking furiously all the time.

"Stop!! Stop!!" shouted Santa. To Willie's amazement, Santa went over and put his arm around the man. "Are you hurt?" he asked kindly.

"Hurt?" spluttered the man. "I've been eaten alive! For 500 years I have worked for you faithfully and I can't think why you would have a wolf around to attack me."

"It's not a wolf," said Santa. "It is only a puppy. Come in the house now and we'll see what this is all about."

As soon as they were in the house Willie saw that what he thought was a big, wicked man was really a very small, very old, hunched-over dwarf.

"This is Patrick Tweedleknée," said Santa severely to Willie. "He is the oldest worker in Santa Land. Now perhaps you will tell me who you are and why you have attacked this friend of mine."

"Don't let him speak!" cried Patrick Tweedleknée. "Throw him out. I hate dogs!"

"Truth to tell, Willie didn't think he could speak, anyway, how could he tell Santa that he merely had been trying to save his life? He stared up at Santa and his eyes filled with shame and sadness and love.

Santa leaned down and touched Willie's head. "Instantly," he murmured. "Instantly," he labored. He was sure Willie was a true friend.

The Little Meanies

Vellejo, Calif. (AP) — Billie Ray, a 19-year-old flightless sifter, is sure some people have no appreciation of his art.

Ray said four boys wielding an axe cut about one-third of the way through the bottom of his 50-foot perch yesterday before giving up.
