Four Women High Scorers

With 27 teams competing. Mrs. F. C. Lutz and Mrs. George Rein scored high north-south, and Mrs. Robert McKesson and Mrs. Arthur Binger had the top count east-west at the weekly tournament at the Salem Elks Duplicate Bridge club.

Others awarded points included Lin Miles and Don Huff, Mrs. Paul F. Burris and L. W. Frasier, W. F. Leary and Mrs. Edward E. Roth, Mrs. Leona Taylor and Ellis H. Jones, Walter M. Cline and Howard Pickett, Mrs. Leonard Asemacher and Sam Ramp.

In master point competition over the past month, seven winning combinations were Salem players, while one, Mrs. Marlin Thompson and Mrs. Percy Miner, are from Corvallis. Local teams at the top were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kimsey, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ramp, Mrs. W. M. Cline, Mrs. E. E. Boring, Charles Tambling, Mrs. C. C. Gabriel, Mrs. R. F. Baxter, Mrs. Ward Graham and E. H. Jones.

Recent junior winners were Mrs. Wally Wilson and Mrs. William Albright, Mr. and Mrs. C. Charholm, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Smith.

Next main duplicate events include the December master point at the Elks club Sunday afternoon, Dec. 20, and the annual Christmas party at the Marion hotel Monday evening, Dec. 21.

Linn Co. Livestock Meeting in January

Lebanon — The Linn county livestock association will hold its annual meeting in the Lebanon city hall Jan. 19, announced O. E. Mikesell, secretary of the association.

The program will include details of Oregon's brand law, open and closed range, feeding making silage, outlook for the livestock producer, and the state's responsibility in protecting livestock against diseases. There will be reports on 4-H livestock projects, the predatory animal control program, and activities of the Oregon Livestock association.

The Lebanon Chamber of Commerce is cooperating by arranging a no-host luncheon at which time the winner of the association's livestockman of the year will be announced.
