

Thornton Sees Tax Loopholes

Portland (AP) — The state treasury could get another five million dollars a year if some tax loopholes could be plugged, Atty. Gen. Robert Y. Thornton said here Wednesday night.

Thornton also told the Oregon Society of Certified Public Accountants that timberland was not paying its fair share of property taxes.

He said the average county assessment on timberland was $15.68 an acre.

"One good timber tree alone is worth several times that amount. This means that the remainder of the taxable property in the county is carrying an unfair share of the property tax burden," Thornton said.

He also said there were loopholes in taxes on corporations, corporate excise taxes, exemptions enjoyed by insurance companies, and loopholes in inheritance taxes.

Mt. Angel Sodality Elects New Officers

Mt. Angel — The annual election of officers of the Young People's Sodality of St. Mary's parish took place during the meeting Monday evening in St. Mary's school. Elected to serve during the coming year are James Fessler, chief ranger; Laura Schmitz, vice prefect; Marlene Diehl, treasurer; Raymond Schmitz, secretary, and Norbert Schmitz, sergeant-at-arms. Installation of officers will take place in January.

Named as counselors are Lenora Platz, Joyce Susee, Anita Wilde, Mary Lou Faulhaber, Thomas Traeger, Ernest Kimlinger and William Schmidt. Marshals are Rita Hauth and Jim Hauth, and Arnold Otter will be banner carrier.

The Sodality will have its annual Christmas prom on Wednesday evening, Dec. 30, in the auditorium of St. Mary's school.

Guest speaker at the meeting was the Rev. Clement Frank, O.S.B., Sodality moderator.

Juvenile Foresters Install New Officers

Mt. Angel — Installation of officers of the juvenile court, Catholic order of Foresters, took place during their meeting in the St. Mary's school meeting room. Installed were LeRoy Fessler, chief ranger; Donald Wavra, vice chief ranger; and Geraldine Gooding, recording secretary. Other officers will be installed at the next meeting.

Special guests were Ted Minden, state chief ranger, and Ernest Riester, both of Sublimity, and spiritual director Rev. Cyril Lebold, OSB, who addressed the group. Highlighting the meeting was the presentation of awards to eligible members by Joseph Wavra, juvenile director.

Following the business meeting, members were given their annual Christmas party, and the party for the young members of the order will be scheduled at a later date.

Cutsforth to Head Albany Exchanges

Albany — Dave Cutsforth was elected president of the Exchange club Tuesday at the group's meeting at the Albany hotel. Cutsforth will take office January 1.

Mel Fleener was named vice president; Bob Shine, treasurer, and Bob Peterson was re-elected to serve as secretary. New members of the board of directors, all of whom will serve for a year, are Lee Cardon, Zed Merrill, Jr., and Albert Fortier, Jr.

Retiring president is George Chambers.
