

Calaba Choice For President

Rudy Calaba has been placed in nomination for the presidency of the Salem Board of Realtors.

Since he has no opposition, the nomination is tantamount to election, although members will be given the privilege of naming other candidates from the floor at the Dec. 18 luncheon meeting.

Others nominated include: Al Isaak, vice president; John Black, secretary; Chet Nelson, treasurer; Leo Reimann, director for one year; Ed Lukinbeal and Virgil Hume, directors for three-year term; Claude Kilgore, member of the appraisal board, four-year term.

The nominating committee consisted of Ed Potter, Joe W. Hutchison, Stanley Brown and Jon Black.

This week's scheduled meeting has been called off out of consideration for the city-wide luncheon to be held at the armory in honor of Salem high's football team.

Haste Asked for Gift Parcels

All gift packages for distant states should be in the mail in the immediate future and those for nearby points shortly thereafter, warns Postmaster Albert C. Gragg as he foresees a rush of Christmas mail near at hand.

Christmas cards require less time to cover the same distance, but they should be posted by Dec. 15 for out-of-town delivery, and at least a week before Christmas for local addresses.

Gragg points out that unless these mailing dates are observed, there's a danger of incoming mail slowing up the outgoing operation. Commercial shipments are another hazard that may prevent delivery before Dec. 25.

There is necessity for wrapping packages as securely as if they were going overseas and that operation should be taken care of immediately.

Gragg asks that persons who are able to should visit the post office before 10 a.m. or between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. to avoid the big lunch hour rush.

3 Salem Students For Alpha Phi Omega

University of Oregon, Eugene (Special)—Three University of Oregon students from Salem were recently pledged to membership in the Oregon chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, national men's service fraternity.

They are: Stanly Dvorak, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dvorak, Sr., 3147 Teas avenue, and William French, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. French, 1340 Nebraska avenue. Dvorak, a freshman in architecture, is a graduate of Sacred Heart high school in Salem, and French, a freshman in business administration, graduated from Salem high school. Howard J. Messmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Messmer, 2930 North Front street, was also pledged. Messmer, a freshman in liberal arts, is a recent graduate of Olympia high school in Olympia, Wash.

Modernistic Piece Offered as Memorial

Mayor Al Loucks says a new committee may be appointed shortly after the first of the year to attempt a selection of some suitable memorial to pioneers from the Carroll Moore's fund bequeathed to the city for that purpose.

The mayor said a work of sculpture from the modernistic school had been offered by the Kharouba Gallery of Portland, whose director is Mrs. Louis Bunce. The work, by Manuel Izquierdo of Portland, a native of Spain, is said to represent a mother and child and may be interpreted as expressing courage, hope and belief.

The selection of the Venus Victorieuse statue by Renoir, selected by a former committee, ran afoul of public sentiment and the order was canceled.

The Moore's fund is held by the Pioneer Trust Company.
