ATOMIC SUB NEARS COMPLETION

Workmen put what the Navy describes as "finishing touches" on the world's first nuclear-powered submarine, the USS Nautilus, at Groton, Conn. The vessel, under construction for more than a year, will be capable of traveling under water for thousands of miles at a speed of more than 20 knots. The vessel will be christened by Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower on January 21, 1954. (AP Wirephoto)

Albany Store Safe Robbed

Albany — An unkempt 14-year-old boy who walked into Lammers Pharmacy in the eastern part of Albany Thursday morning to "get warm," is believed to have taken $127.89 from a safe while proprietor Jack Lammers was in the front part of the store, Chief of Police Ray Maddy revealed.

Lammers told police the boy walked into the store about 11 a.m. Thursday and asked to stand by the heating unit until he got warm. Lammers later asked the boy to leave the store, but said he had little cause to believe the boy had rifled the safe.

Lammers said $90 in currency, $4 in nickels and $33.89 in checks was found missing from the safe.

The boy was described as being about 14 years of age, had light brown hair, and was wearing a soiled blue zipper jacket.

Mt. Angel Plans Xmas Treats

Mt. Angel — The Christmas season will be ushered into Mt. Angel officially Saturday, Dec. 12, when the Mt. Angel Business men's club provides a Christmas program for the people of the community and the surrounding area, with a "Free-eats" day.

Beginning at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Dec. 12, and continuing through the day, free hot cakes, butter and syrup, weiners and buns and coffee, will be served in the Mt. Angel city hall to all who come for it. There will be no obligation to buy anything. The treat is given with the compliments of the Mt. Angel Business Men.

During the afternoon the public is invited to the Mt. Angel theatre at 1, 2, or 3 o'clock to see a motion picture, with compliments of the club.

The whole program is being sponsored by the merchants with the cooperation of some of the wholesale houses.

Joseph M. Wagner is general chairman for the all-day program. He will be assisted by Clem Butsch, Francis Schmidt, J. J. Penner, Carl Mucken and Joseph L. Wachter. The women who will assist in serving are Mrs. Joseph Wagner, Mrs. Francis Schmidt, Mrs. J. J. Penner, Mrs. Carl Mucken, Mrs. Joseph L. Wachter, Mrs. S. C. Schmidt, Mrs. Ira Herriford.

The children's Christmas program is scheduled for the following Saturday, Dec. 19, and will be handled by a committee headed by Val Eberle. The kiddies' program is traditional and one of the main projects sponsored by the Business Men's club.

It always includes a session with Santa Claus for all the children of the community, usually between six and seven hundred, and free show and free treats for all.

Clothes for Korea Sent by Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel — St. Mary's Catholic Parish shipped 87 boxes containing 2600 pounds of used clothing for Korea, the Near East and the Far East, it was announced by the Rev. Cyril Lebold, O.S.B., pastor.

The clothing had been assembled at the St. Mary's school during Thanksgiving week and was packed by members of the parish. The clothing is for distribution on the basis of need and without respect to creed. The local parish co-operated in a nationwide campaign under the auspices of War Relief Service of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

Members of the parish who assisted with the packaging and tying of the boxes were: Mrs. Alois Keber, Mrs. John Diehl, Miss Elizabeth Keber, Mrs. P. J. May, Mrs. Joseph Oberstinner, Mrs. M. A. Wagner, Sr., Mrs. Louis Schindler, Mrs. Rose Fisher, Mrs. F. J. Schwab, Mrs. J. A. Kaiser, Mrs. R. T. Ebner, Miss Elizabeth Beyer, Miss Ella Timon, Arthur McVeigh and William Harrahill. The S. & M. Truck Company furnished the transportation of the boxes to Portland.
