SHORT STORY
 Bring the kids to the Marion Hotel for dinner!
 I know, I know. Most places don't like your little darlings. But remember—I've got four of my own at home.
 It's NICE to get out once in a while... and so you have to take them with you. Well... bring 'em!

Believe me... you have my complete sympathy and you'll have OUR complete cooperation! The little brats are more than welcome!

We've got kid's portions... kid's portions! We've got a special dinner for $1.25 and a special Family Dinner, too!

Aw—come on in and see! I'm tired of talking.

Dallas

Dallas — The largest crowd of the year attended the turkey dinner sponsored by the Carl B. Fenton American Legion post and auxiliary last week. The post furnished the turkeys and the members of the auxiliary the side dishes. Following the dinner, separate meetings were held by the post and unit.

Mrs. Ray Kliever presided at the business meeting for the auxiliary.

Mrs. Frances Grund of Monmouth, president of District 2, was a guest. After a brief talk she presented a check to the unit for meeting their quota in the membership drive. Mrs. Kliever announced that a group would go to Portland Dec. 15 to wrap Christmas packages for the veterans in the hospital to send to their families.

Mrs. Kliever also announced the Christmas dance, an annual affair, to be held Dec. 12, and the annual Christmas party for children to be given Dec. 17.

During the business session, Elmer Massiker displayed and described the pneopore recently purchased by the auxiliary. He said that all of the hospital beds were in use at this time.

At the close of the meeting, the unit joined the post for games of bingo.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Guedon hosted the newcomers club Saturday night.

The guests were bidden to wear casuals and bring a box lunch, also another couple. Games were played during the evening.

Attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Sutter, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Cloeman, Richard Moffitt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Garcia, Mr. and Mrs. Lesiak and Mr. and Mrs. Gueden.

Mrs. Beulah Evans sustained minor injuries Saturday while shopping in Salem when the driver of a car struck her and knocked her down. The car failed to stop, the license was not obtained.

Mrs. Evans said the car was green, driven by a blonde woman.

Dallas—Two Dallas business firms are holding grand opening events this week. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the Haas Drug store under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Abie Haas is holding its grand opening though the store has been operating in its new location, former site of Finseth's department store, for some weeks.

About $600 in major prizes will be given to customers and visitors.
