

Fast Finishing Willamette Rallies to Edge CPS, 67-61

PIN PATER

By BENN VALDEZ

AFTER YOU, MR. GALLAGHER
We doff our moth-eaten topper this week to Len Gallagher of the State Industrial Accident commission team who fired a 648 scratch series Wednesday night in the State House No. 2 league at the U-Bowl. Len put together games of 235, 245 and 188 in running up his total, which happened to be 202 pins over his 152 average.

The 648 is high scratch series for the league and his 24 pins a game handicap also gives him the high handicap series for the league—a 720. Something went wrong in the middle game, however, because his team lost when he shot 245, which is also the new league high, replacing Ratliff's 240. Incidentally, Ratliff checked in with a 605 series which will give a healthy jolt to his 157 average, but was overshadowed by Len's shooting.

200 AVERAGE—THAT'S ROLLING 'EM
A special salute this week to Dick Phipps, co-manager of the Capitol Lanes and Salem's only 200 average bowler at this time and the first since Frank Evans averaged 204 over the season three years ago. Dick has won several titles, among them being the Northwest Singles championship several years ago and the singles championship of the city here three years ago. Dick is throwing the most powerful ball in Salem and has become one of the very best pocket shooters ever to bowl in local circles. Dick is anchoring the Gardner Grocery team in the majors and Wednesday night checked in with 881 for the four games to lead his team in a sweep over the Salem Elks Lodge. Backing him up with a fine 862 effort was Bob "Junior" Ryan and their work resulted in a new team high series for the year in the league as they tallied 4161.

TIME FOR A FAG
The Chesterfield prize for high team series for the week has ended at the U-Bowl and for all that it meant to the rest of the women, the deal was run for the Herrold-Philippi team. They won the cigarettes six times in the eight weeks the award was made and each time they won establishing a new league high series. In other words, every time they stepped on the alleys they were a threat to break the league high series. Members of the team and their averages: Kay Krejci 151, Virginia "Putt-putt" Garbarino 164, Phyllis Curry 153, Shirley Laird 144, and Beryl Muelhaupt 152. Any of you other girls in the league ever run out of smokes just call on one of these girls; they all got closets full at home.

VALLEY HANDICAP UNDER WAY
Getting under way at the Capitol Lanes is the annual Willamette Valley Doubles and Singles Handicap Classic which will be run off today and tomorrow. Started two years ago, it has been developed into quite a nice little tournament by Director Duane Cushman. First squad shoots at 4:00 today and entries will be accepted to fill out squads until that time. Defending champions are George LeTourneau in Singles and Bob Ryan and Keith Hayes in Doubles.

STATE TOURNEY DEADLINE DEC. 15
Don't forget, all bowlers, the entry deadline for the 13th annual Oregon State Tournament is Tuesday, December 15th. Entries must be postmarked on that date or they will not be accepted. The state meet is being held at Albany this year so there should be lots of teams going down from Salem. There are actually too many tournaments for bowlers here in the Northwest but there are three that every team should make it a point to bowl in and those are the City tournament, the State tournament, and the Northwest.

Mixed doubles at the U-Bowl Sunday night will see the participants sharing in a bonus from the house. Bob Haugen will contribute $5.00 from the house for every ten couples who enter, which will swell the prize fund considerably. Handicap 70% of 200 scratch for the men and 70% of 180 for the women. Take the little woman down and bowl and if she beats you then quit like I did, but you'll have fun.

IRONY OF THE WEEK:
The captain of one of the Major League teams has been harping all year on the subject of trying to convince one of his team members he should quit throwing a finger tip and go back to his conventional ball, claiming he could shoot much better. Said member finally took the advice so what was the captain throwing Wednesday night? Yep, that's right, a finger tip and throwing it just as erratically as his protegee. Any comments, Tom?
