

Pagenstecher Names Executive Group

First session for the newly named executive committee for Marion county chapter, Oregon Republican clubs, was Friday noon at the Senator hotel.

Gerhard Pagenstecher, new president, announced names of the executive group and committees for the new year.

The group voted to stage a general meeting for all club members and interested Republicans the night of Tuesday, January 12, at the Senator hotel at which time there will be a program and preliminary plans will be made for the annual Lincoln day observance of Marion county Republicans.

It also was voted to have the executive board of the club meet the first Tuesday of each month.

The executive board is named as follows: Mrs. Paul Ficke, Mrs. Denver Young, Mrs. Ervin W. Potter, Mrs. Robert M. Needham, Marion Lowry Fischer, Mrs. B. W. Stacey, Mrs. Leon Perry; advisory board members, Claude A. Miller, Dear Seward P. Reese, Everett de Weese, Kenneth Potts, Harry Humphreys of Stayton, Harry Carson, Sr., of Silverton, Leonard Fisher of Mt. Angel, Winton Hunt of Woodburn, James Hatfield from the Young Republican federation, George Jones of the YR group. In addition, the officers of the club head the executive group, Pagenstecher, Leonard Rowan, Edwin H. Armstrong, Mrs. Robert B. Ebersole, Mrs. Joseph B. Felton, Richard Denton, W. W. Chadwick.

Committee heads named include: Revision of constitution and by-laws, Edward O. Stadter, Jr.; audit, Stuart Compton; resolutions, George Haley; program, Ted Tibbitt, chairman; Miss Hattie Bratzel, co-chairman; interclub liaison, Leonard Rowan; membership, Ned Clark, chairman, Mrs. Walter Socolofsky, co-chairman.

Resolution Honors Late Blaine McCord

An order directing entry in the journal of the Marion county circuit court of a resolution memorializing the late Blaine McCord, Woodburn attorney, was signed Friday by Judge George R. Duncan.

Copies of the resolution which was prepared and adopted by the Marion County Bar association, together with Judge Duncan's order will be sent to the widow, Mrs. Edith M. McCord.

The resolution sets forth that "in the passing of Blaine McCord, the Marion County Bar association has lost an able, honest, hardworking member and friend; that the legislature of the state of Oregon has lost a faithful, industrious and capable chief clerk, and that Marion county has lost a patriotic, upright and honorable citizen."

Robert DeArmond, president of the bar association, presented the resolution to Judge Duncan.

McCord died several months ago from a heart attack in a Salem hotel room.

Hoover School Party Scene

Employees of the administrative department of the Salem school district, their families and a few invited guests will take in a Christmas party at 6:30 p.m. Thursday at the Hoover grade school building. A no host dinner will be served.

This activity is one of a series of pre-Christmas events scheduled for next week, according to a release from the administration office.

Sacred Heart Academy will have its Christmas program in the Parrish junior high school auditorium the night of Dec. 17. That same evening the Middle Grove school will stage its Christmas program.

West Salem junior high plans its yuletide program for 7:30 Tuesday night, Dec. 15, while Richmond and Pringle will present theirs at 7:30 and 8 p.m., respectively, Friday, Dec. 18.

Mothers and Dads clubs of Baker and Garfield plan to meet at their respective schools Tuesday night. The Mothers club of Washington will assemble at 1:15 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 17.

Salem senior high's Civics club carnival is scheduled for 8 p.m., December 16, and Grant school will stage an open house from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., December 17.

Call Sent Out for Machine Operators

Oregon State college at Corvallis is in need of tabulating machine operators.

Recent installation of business machine equipment has created a need of additional personnel. In addition to maintaining the fiscal records for the state system of higher education, Assistant Business Manager Ralph Stovall said Oregon State college will soon accept its student registration to a punch card operation.

Starting pay for the jobs will depend upon an applicant's experience and training. Some accounting experience is desirable but not absolutely necessary.

The state civil service commission is now accepting applications for examinations in the informational series. Editorial assistant I and II, informational writer, and informational representative I and II are the classifications which are to be examined. Starting salaries range from $229 to $379 a month. The last filing date for applications is December 28.

LEBANON MASONS

Lebanon — The Masonic order elected new officers Tuesday night and Albert Carlson was named worshipful master. Also selected were Everett Smith, senior warden; A. F. Finell, junior warden; J. W. Pierce, secretary; Earl Michelson, treasurer. Serving a three-year term on the building committee are J. H. Irvine and A. J. Wilson. Installation will take place on Jan. 12.

Judges to Study Press Relations

Portland, Ore. (AP)—The Circuit Judges Assn. of Oregon have approved a proposal for a study, with newspaper publishers, of the possibility of drafting rules to cover the taking of photographs in court and press comment on trials in progress.

Both now are sharply limited. Most judges do not permit courtroom photographs and a trial comment subjects newspapers to possible contempt action.
