

Christmas Setting for Wedding

Miss Joanne Elaine Perry, of Portland, was married Saturday evening to Paul Steven Nieswander, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul S. Nieswander of Salem, the ceremony being solemnized in Faith Lutheran church in Portland.

A Christmas setting was arranged for the service, Christmas trees decorated with red balls being at the altar. The Rev. Herbert E. Nottbolm officiated at the 8 o'clock rites. For the music, Gerda Roeder played the organ.

Preceding the service, Mrs. Charles Roland Hornecker and Mrs. Joseph Earls Worth lighted the candles.

The bride wore a beautiful wedding dress of white rose-point lace. It was designed with V neckline and long sleeves, the full skirt with rows of pleated nylon tulle forming a chapel train. With the dress the bride wore an Italian lace veil from Sorrento, bought while on a trip to Europe last summer. For her flowers, the bride carried a cascade of white carnations and bouvardia with a white orchid in the center.

The five attendants were Miss Lorette Faye Perry, the bride's sister, as maid of honor; Mrs. William E. Bissell of Turner, Miss Shirley Nieswander of Salem, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Nancy Ann Pullen of Springfield and Miss Barbara Ruth Fessler of Portland. All wore identically styled floor length dresses of Christmas red nylon tulle with lace insets on the bodices. They all carried cascade bouquets of white chrysanthemums, holly and greens.

Best man was William E. Bissell of Turner. Ushers were Eidon V. Shafer of Salem, Richard D. Weakley, James E. Garrett, Portland, Benjamin W. Salvon of Albany.

The bride's mother wore an air force blue dress of nylon tulle and lace. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue lace dress. Both wore corsages of red carnations.

The reception was in the church parlors. Pouring were Mrs. Howard Nottage of Portland and Miss Patricia Orcutt of Molalla. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Herbert E. Nottbolm of Portland and Miss Mary Louise Loggan of Bend. Assisting were Miss Patricia Thompson, Miss Patricia Fessler and Miss Patricia Fry of Portland.

Co-Rec Party

More than 50 young adults attended the Co-Rec dinner and dance at the YWCA and at the Salem Heights community center Friday night.

Chairman of the evening's entertainment-and dinner was Erwin Lay.

Next meeting of the group will be a Christmas party and dance at the Salem Gun club, Friday, December 18. This will be preceded by dinner at the YW at 6:30 p.m. Miss Florence Goodridge has charge of the arrangements.

The Friday festivities will be the last event to be staged by the group until January 8.

Marriage Told

Dayton—Mrs. Nathan Swan of Dayton announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Lula Belle Young, to Ted R. Marr, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Marr, also of Dayton.

The couple were married in Vancouver, Wash., Friday, December 11. A reception was given for the couple by Mr. Marr's sister, Mrs. William Baker, at her home in Dayton following the Vancouver wedding Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Marr will be at home in Dayton following the wedding trip.

8 et 40 Party

Lebanon—Members of the 8 et 40 entertained husbands at a Christmas party last week in the Legion hall. Evergreens, holly and bells were used as decorations.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Canage of Lebanon and a number from Albany and Sweet Home.

Buffet supper was served. On the committee arranging the party were Mrs. Glenn Huston, Mrs. Roshal Groves, Mrs. Bert Moersch, Mrs. Roy Abraham, Mrs. Clarence Conner and Miss Ardy's Whetstone.

Roland Patton Wed Recently in South

Announcement has come to Salem friends of the marriage of Miss Louise E. Godfrey to Roland G. Patton, son of R. G. Patton of Salem. The couple were married November 22 in St. Paul's Episcopal church at San Diego. The bride is the daughter of Bishop and Mrs. Godfrey, Buffalo, N. Y. The bride will remain with her parents while Mr. Patton is on sea duty in the Far East aboard the U.S.S. Essex. He is a graduate of Salem high school and attended Linfield college before entering the navy.

C. D. A. Troop at Woodburn Meets

Woodburn—Junior troop "Takakwita," Catholic Daughters of America, met last week at the home of Miss Marilyn Gamroth with Miss Sharon Donnelly presiding and all members present. Plans were made to meet Tuesday, December 22, to decorate the gingerbread house to be presented to the children in Providence nursery for Christmas. Each member is to bake two dozen cookies to hang on the Christmas tree for the children of the nursery.

Miss Kathryn Haener invited the group to a Christmas party at her home December 18. The girls made a Christmas wreath and snowflakes and also painted walnuts in gold and silver sprinkled with glitter. The next business meeting of the troop will be January 13.

Miss Hinman Weds

Lebanon—Miss Dorothy Anne Hinman and Donald L. Chamberlain were married on November 28 in St. John's Orthodox Lutheran church, the Rev. M. L. Natterer performing the ceremony before an altar decorated with flowers and lighted tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hinman, and the bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Joe Carr and W. P. Chamberlain.

Miss Hinman, escorted by her father, wore a white brocade taffeta dress and carried a white Bible topped with a corsage.

Miss Joyce Larvik, maid of honor, was clad in blue taffeta over net and wore a pink corsage.

Best man was Richard Chamberlain. The reception was at the home of the bride's parents. Pouring was Miss Joanne Johnson. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Robert Hill, Mrs. R. Andree and Miss Susan Schrader.

Following the wedding trip the couple are at home at 897 Hiatt street.

Honors Bride

Lebanon—Mrs. Louis Schwindt was a recent hostess at her home in the White Oaks addition for her niece, Mrs. Wayne Keene, a bride of October.

Formerly Miss Elaine Jungwirth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jungwirth, Mrs. Keene and her husband now live near Smith River, Calif. They were married in Brookings.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Marsha Weigel, Karen Jungwirth, Mrs. Ed Jungwirth and Mrs. Bill Porter.

Corsages Feature Show—Mrs. Walter E. Martin is shown above with some of the nearly 200 corsages she has made to be displayed at the greens show of Salem Garden club. The show opens Tuesday to continue through Wednesday, the event to be at the Izaak Walton league club house. Hours are between 1 and 9 p.m. each day. In addition to the varied displays of greens, madonna arrangements, etc., there will be varied demonstrations during the two days on corsage making, wrapping, making of swags and wreaths, and other items. Tea is to be served each afternoon and each evening, carrying out the Swedish Lucia's Day celebration.

The corn syrup used in these fruited sponge squares gives them a delightfully chewy texture.

BUFFET SUPPER

Salad Bowl Cloverleaf Rolls Citrus Cup Fruited Sponge Squares Beverage

Fruited Sponge Squares

Ingredients: 1/2 cup sifted flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/2 cup light corn syrup, 1/2 cup finely cut figs, 1/2 cup finely cut candied cherries, 1/2 cup finely chopped filberts, about 1/4 cup walnut quarters.

Method: Sift together flour and salt. Beat eggs and vanilla with rotary beater until they begin to get thick and pale-colored. Gradually beat in sugar, then corn syrup. Mix in figs, cherries, and filberts. Fold in flour. Turn into greased 9-inch square baking pan (about 2 inches deep). Arrange walnut quarters over surface of batter.

Bake in moderate (350°F) oven about 20 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Stand pan on cake rack to cool. While still quite warm, cut into squares.

Note: For best distribution of fruit and filberts, make sure they are very finely cut and chopped.
