

SANTA and the FLYING PUP

By LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

"Let us look up this great big word in the dictionary."

Synopsis: Mr. Not Much and Mrs. Very Little ran to Santa as soon as they saw that Willie was being swept away in the middle of a snow cloud. Santa quickly went to the Cloud Keeper who turned the cloud to rain, and Willie was washed out over Santa Land. Santa promised to tell Willie the secret of how he could really fly.

CHAPTER II
AN UNSELFISH DEED
"This is the way the story goes," said Santa to Willie the pup. "A long time ago my reindeer were like all other reindeer. They lived with a great herd of their brothers and sisters and not one of them ever dreamed of flying."

"Then there came a time when eight of those deer did a truly unselfish deed. No one except the one who did it knew what it was. And that is how it happens that my deer are the only ones in the world that can fly."

Willie waited for Santa to go on. But Santa was silent. So Willie said, "But go on! What is this truly unselfish thing they did?"

Santa shook his head. "I do not know," he smiled. "For you see that is often the way with a truly unselfish deed. No one except the person who does it knows what it is."

"I don't understand at all," said Willie. "I do not even know what unselfish means."

"It is hard to explain such things," said Santa. "It is something each person must discover for himself."

"Then Santa and his helpers went back to their work. Willie and the Dreamlines went into Santa's house and sat down to think. "Let's look up this great big word in the dictionary," said Mr. Not Much after a great deal of thought. "Then we'll know how to proceed."

"Why that isn't difficult at all," said Willie happily. "I think I shall just go down and talk to the reindeer for soon I shall be flying with them."

Wagging his rear end confidently Willie took off for the stables. But he never got there for on the way he passed around Santa's back porch. There, sitting by the rear door, was Santa's big garbage can.

"My goodness," thought Willie. "That can is simply bulging over. Perhaps I should empty some of it so that it will be easier for Santa to put in more."

He placed his front paws against the can and pushed and pushed until the contents all over the ground.

What a feast there was for Willie! For a moment he could only stand and stare at the delicacies that lay before him.

"Where but in Santa Land could a dog eat so well?" he thought gratefully. "Surely I am the luckiest puppy alive and even when I learn to fly I will never leave this land."

As soon as he thought of flying he remembered the unselfish deed he must do and immediately he had a grand idea.

"Instead of keeping all this for myself," he said, "I shall give some of it away. In fact I shall give it all away. Not only that but I shall give it to someone I do not like very much. Surely nothing could be more unselfish than that!"

Enormously pleased with himself Willie immediately fished out of the garbage an old beat up ham bone and trotted away with it to a little cottage nearby. On the front of the cottage was a sign saying, "Home of Patrick Tweedle-knees. Keep Out."

Willie deposited the bone at the door and trotted back for another load. He worked without a pause and before long there was an immense "gift" at Patrick Tweedle-

Big Strawberry Potherder. Biggest strawberry you ever saw! A veritable "giant" of a crocheted red strawberry seeded with green and sprouting nice big green leaves. A green "stem" is used to hang this 8-inch, well-padded strawberry on a hook. The little white strawberry blossoms are also crocheted in two pieces and put together this potherder makes one of the gayest, brightest gifts you've ever crocheted. Large size details of berry, leaves and flowers makes crocheting easy.

ROSEBUD WILL NEVER HAVE TO HOOF FOR HER SUPPER, CUPCAKE! HER DAD IS LOADED WITH LOOT!

WELL, MISS LOACH BOONISH, when you decide to escort your son to the big dance, you could knock the oven with a feather.

AW!

you're cute!

See how the thumb's in cube.

SO MUCH MONEY—IF ANYONE GUESSED WE HAVE IT—

WE COULD PUT IT IN THE BANK—

BUT SO MANY QUESTIONS—

YEP—JUST PRETEND WE DON'T HAVE IT AND WHO'LL KNOW?

BUT WHAT CAN WE DO WITH IT?

BIG BOY SAID TO SPEND IT ON THE DIET—HANGS NIGHT CLUB—HE GUARANTEES FREE PROTECTION—

HELL MAFIA TAKE THAT HAT OFF YOU!!

TAKE YOUR HAT OFF YOKUM!!

IT'S AN INSULT TO ME!!

TAKE IT OFF!!

AN HONOR LIFT A FINGER TO HELP HIM—HE DRANK IT ON HISSELF—OH WHY WON'T HE TAKE HIS HAT OFF!!

ARE YOU THERE, YOU KNOW WHEM, SENOR?

NO, BUT I AM TO MAKE HIS ACQUAINTANCE.

THANKS FOR GIVING ME YOUR SEAT, SIR!

OH, THAT'S O.K., LADY!

A GENTLEMAN SHOULD GET UP TO GIVE A LADY HIS SEAT!

SOME GUYS ONLY OFFER THEIR SEATS TO YOUNG AND PRETTY GIRLS—

BUT TO ME IT DON'T MAKE NO DIFFERENCE HOW UGLY YOU LOOK!

DO YOU FEEL BETTER NOW, MY DEAR?

YES, CONRAD! THE DIZZINESS HAS LEFT ME!

YOU SAID SOMETHING ABOUT THE ROOM SPINNING! MRS. BLOODINGTON! HAS THAT HAPPENED BEFORE?

I'M AFRAID THIS WHOLE SITUATION HAS BEEN SOMEWHAT OF AN ORDEAL FOR YOUR WIFE, MR. BLOODINGTON. SHE NEEDS TO REST!

YOU'RE RIGHT, LANDROUS! WE'LL LET HER REST!

IF YOU DON'T MIND, MR. BLOODINGTON, I'D LIKE TO DO A NEUROLOGICAL EXAMINATION NOW!
