

Some Notations . . .

By M. L. F.

It is with pride, and justly so, members of the committee issuing the "Y's Cookin'" cookbook for the Salem YWCA report nearly two-thirds of the printing already sold—1200 out of 2000 copies, to be exact, all since the first of the month . . . The attractive book has been bought by many as Christmas gifts, and a treasure it is for gifts, too . . . All proceeds go to help furnish the kitchen for the new YWCA plant to open around the first of February . . .

The cookbook will be on sale at Miller's through Saturday of this week, and continues on sale at three book stores, Cooke's, Needhams and Commercial, also at Stevens and Sons, at Better Bedding and at the Gift Box . . . The recipes are all hand lettered and photographed by the authors, and illustrating the book is a series of pen and ink sketches of Salem's historic and interesting buildings, done by Mrs. Morris Crothers . . .

If demand is great enough at the close of the holiday period, it is planned to issue a new edition next year . . .

A charmingly arranged Christmas time tea was the hospitable affair for which Mrs. Arnold Krueger was hostess Monday afternoon at her attractive apartment in the Lee . . . Friends were invited to call between 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock . . . It was one of those "it is so much fun to visit" occasions, the beautiful Christmas decorations giving impetus to interesting chatter about the holidays . . . The tea table was set with a white cloth, the centerpiece at back and a striking arrangement of pine boughs sprinkled with silver, in front of them white carnations also sprinkled with silver . . . Cause for much comment is the large silver Christmas doll in the corner window at the apartment, the doll made especially for Mrs. Krueger, the dress bedecked with costume jewelry. In front of a large mirror is a beautiful arrangement of gilded leaves, boughs and grapes encircling an ivory satin ring that is also entwined with gold beads . . . "Just the right" number called at the different periods

West Salem Lions Auxiliary Meets

The West Salem Lions club auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Carlson, Monday evening, for the December party.

A donation was voted to be given to the Boy Scouts who are handling the distribution of Christmas baskets to needy families.

An invitation was accepted from the West Salem Lions to attend the ladies night banquet, December 23.

A substantial profit was reported from the Christmas card sales. At the social hour, the group exchanged gifts and Mrs. C. A. Rust read a group of Christmas poems. The hostess served Swedish pastries at the coffee hour, assisted by Mrs. Clyde Everett and Mrs. Richard Smith. The January meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ray Osborn.

KINGWOOD auxiliary, American Legion, plans its Christmas party for Thursday evening at the Legion hall. There will be a no-host supper at 6:30 o'clock, followed by entertainment, a visit from Santa Claus and treats for the children.

and the hall echoed with cheery greetings as the guests arrived and departed . . . Among those greeted during our call, Mrs. Walter L. Tooze, Mrs. Charles D. Wood, Mrs. A. W. Loucks, Mrs. Conrad Paulson, Mrs. James L. Payne, Mrs. Arthur Erickson, Mrs. Coburn Grabenhorst, Mrs. Henry A. Simmons, Mrs. Bradley Burkland, Mrs. William Schlitt, Mrs. Howard Elsmann, Mrs. Russel E. Pratt, Mrs. Elmer O. Berg, Mrs. Ronald E. Jones, Mrs. Harold M. Olinger, Mrs. A. D. Woodmansee, Mrs. Elton Thompson, Mrs. Chester Lee, Mrs. William J. Braun, Mrs. Glenn Stevens . . .

A colorful display of holiday lighting at night on Fairmount Hill is at the A. C. Gerlinger home, Washington and Fairmount . . . For several years the home has been beautifully lighted for the holiday period, but the effect is a bit different this year . . . The attractive white house and a tree on either side are all outlined in blue lights for a picture setting . . .

A mother-daughter tea is on the holiday week calendar for Saturday, December 26, Mrs. Herman Jochimsen and daughters, Sondra, Suzanne and Sally, to entertain at their South High street home . . . Invitations were received Monday to the affair, guests being invited to call between 3 and 6 o'clock . . .

Chairman for the hostess group at the usual Wednesday afternoon opening at Salem Art museum, the Bush House, will be Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr. . . . Hours are between 2 and 4:30 o'clock . . . The house is beautifully decorated for the holiday season, especially attractive the beautiful mantel arrangements in the many fireplaces featuring the house . . .

Wednesday evening, between 5 and 7 o'clock, the Salem Art association board of trustees and officers are entertaining for the city officials and their wives at the museum . . . Coffee will be served, Miss Elizabeth Lord pouring . . .

ARRIVING home the latter part of the week from school for the Christmas holidays will be Elliott Backstrand, junior at University of California, and Jay Backstrand, sophomore at Oregon State college. They are sons of Dr. and Mrs. Jerald S. Backstrand.
