

Keizer

Keizer—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller of 515 Chemawa Rd. left Dec. 12 for Oklahoma City and Paul's Valley, Okla., to visit relatives through the Christmas holidays. They plan to be gone a month.

Bob's Shoe Repair shop, 960 Chemawa Rd., suffered a $1500 loss when an acetone tank exploded, setting fire to the establishment Saturday evening. The shop is owned by Robert Barrett. The fire destroyed his repair equipment. The Assembly of God church, which is next door, was slightly damaged.

The Keizer fire department was host to the Marion County Firemen's association.

Guests for the evening were E. E. Morrison, chief engineer from the Oregon Insurance Rating Bureau, Portland; Howard Gill, retired battalion chief and drillmaster of the Portland fire department; Chuck Taylor of the fire marshal's office, Salem; W. E. Jones of the Industrial Accident commission, Salem; Bill Hughes of the Forestry department, Salem; Doug Roney of Roney Supply and Equipment, Portland, and Tommy Thompson, salesman for Howard Cooper Corp, Portland.

A chicken and noodle dinner was served by the fire department's chief cook, Harold Burright, and his assistants.

Keizer Scouts of Eagle patrol of troop 41 camped overnight in the Silverton Hills at Mickey Hickman's in one of the worst storms so far this season. The boys were: Gene Gilbertson, patrol leader; John Rohrer, Rolf Gilbertson, and Steve Billings, assistant patrol leader. Gene's dad was the leader. Due to good Scout training, the group was able to make itself completely comfortable.

The Keizer Builder's Supply is putting up another building just east of its office on Chemawa road. This building will be a business rental and will house a woodworking shop.

The Carhaven Garden club met Dec. 3 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Krefl, 4627 Thorman. Mr. Harms from a Salem floral shop gave a talk about making Christmas corsages and decorations.

Harold Meyer, 6-year-old son of Ray Meyer, Rt. 2, Box 345K, suffered a broken collar bone in an auto accident near Hayesville school. He was taken to the Salem Memorial hospital.

A new grocery, meat market and fountain is now open for business at 3125 N. River Rd. A name for the establishment will be chosen by a contest. Owners are Hank Stevenson and Benny Higashi.

The Boy Scouts of Keizer are again selling Christmas trees. They are located at Orcutt's market and on the Keizer corner. Both Orcutt's and the Keizer Super Market are donating space for the boys to use.

Tom Pomeroy and son won the top honors at the state fairgrounds in the Cherry City Racing Pigeon club contest, with a young hen named Best of Class, best of Salem birds, then grand champion of the show.

Brownie troop 21 met and finished the scrapbook they are preparing for Fairview Home. The nine girls have sold 80 calendars.

Keizer Community church members met and elected officers. They are: Lauren Stettler, elder; Paul Geil, superintendent; Hugh Adams, assistant superintendent; Virginia Hurter, secretary; Glendon Geil, head usher; Charles Ross, assistant usher; Bob Goertz, director of music; Terry Goertz, secretary of Sunday school; Carol Stettler, pianist; Marvin Black, assistant pianist. Yearly reports were given by Chris Lamparter, Charles Ronk, Edgar Sawyer and Charles Ross. Marvin Black is to start landscaping the church grounds this week.

The Boy Scout troop of Keizer joined with the Explorer post to hold a joint court of honor at the Keizer school auditorium. Bill McCormack and John Rohrer received second class awards. First class awards went to Stephen Billings, Robert Hawley and Rich were awarded various merit badges: Roy Ellis, firemanship; William Ebert, firemanship and home repairs; Jerry Hawley, personal health; Robert Hawley, personal health; Clifford Harris, firemanship; David Rehfus, personal health. Steve Billings earned five merit badges for cooking, safety, personal health, public health and scholarship. The court was conducted by Mr. Gilbertson, acting as clerk.

Clear Lake

Clear Lake—The Missionary Society will hold its annual Christmas party Dec. 18 at the church. Members of the Christian Service Guild and other Clear Lake ladies, who wish to attend also are invited. Luncheon will be served at 12:30.

Those attending are to bring a dish for luncheon and a 25 cent gift for the exchange. The church program is scheduled for Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Naomi Massee and Miss Margot Purdum are arranging the program.

Hugh Adams, committeeman, and Vern Billings and Marvin Black, assistant Scoutmasters, assisted in the presentation of the awards. Refreshments were served by the Scout Mothers' club.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Snook, 1230 Claggett, have entertained Mrs. Snook's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Rettig of Aberdeen, Wash. Mrs. Snook's cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cagler of Kearney, Neb., also have been guests.

The Keizer Ladies' Sewing club will meet Dec. 17 at the home of Mrs. H. M. Broadbent, 873 Sunset Ave.

The choir was invited to sing at the party held by the Tarmony Rebekah and Gervais Odd Fellows at Quinaby Hall Monday evening.

The Clear Lake teachers, Miss Grace Klampe, Mrs. Inez Cannon, and Mrs. Ruth Hancock, have planned the school program for Dec. 22, 8 p.m. Music will be furnished by the Clear Lake-Buena Crest band and a student chorus, with Miss Marilyn Meyers as guest soloist.

All rooms will have Christmas parties Dec. 24, with vacation extending from then until Jan. 4.
