

Legion Auxiliary Planning Events

Silverton — Plans were completed at the Monday evening meeting of the Delbert Reeves unit No. 7, American Legion auxiliary, for the Friday, December 18, annual children's tree and program at Legion hall.

Mrs. Ernest L. Starr is to plan the treats and free decorating, selecting her own helpers, and Mrs. Robert Allen will be responsible for the informal program.

Among features decided at the meeting of the executive committee with the post group, it was reported that the managers of the square dance parties would have their regular meetings elsewhere than in the Legion hall.

The president, Mrs. L. P. Oehler, named the personnel of the centennial standing committee for the representative-centennial meeting of the past week, and stated that the American Legion and auxiliary would supervise the food for guests during the 1954, August 4-8, local program week.

Donations for the Christmas basket are to be brought to the hall, Friday evening of this week, when Mrs. William Bloch, child welfare chairman, will deliver the basket to a needy family.

The Thursday, January 7, sewing club meeting will be at the South Water street Schultz home.

Christmas veteran facility gift shop donations were valued at $54.15, Mrs. Ralph Francis and Mrs. Dewey Allen, making the delivery to the Portland hospital.

Mrs. Victor Howard told of the Silverton recreation plans for winter basketball games.

During the six weeks' absence of Mrs. Ralph Francis, arrangements for renting the Legion and auxiliary rooms can be made by contacting Mrs. Ernest L. Starr, unit secretary of the auxiliary.

Word was received from the president of district No. 2, Mrs. Clarence B. Grund of Momouth, that the district conference will be at Silverton, Sunday afternoon and evening, February 7, beginning at 2:30 o'clock with an afternoon social hour and evening dinner program.

Mrs. T. P. Heidenstrom was chairman of the refreshment social hour following Monday evening's meeting when the members of the post were guests.

Rebekahs Elect
Silverton—Mrs. John Beal was elected noble grand of Tryphena Rebekah lodge at the week's meeting.

Officers to assist Mrs. Beal include Mrs. Bert Peron, vice grand; Mrs. W. J. King, secretary; Mrs. Ida Makinster, treasurer; and Mrs. Ernest Southmayde, financial secretary.

Mrs. Bert Peron will be in charge of the Christmas party given by the Rebekahs and members of the Odd Fellows lodge, Friday evening at the hall, December 18.

The December 24 regular meeting is to be postponed until January 14, when new officers are to be installed.

At Greens Show — Here is a scene at the Salem Garden club's green show, showing beautiful arrangements, trees and decorations featuring the event. The show is on at the Izak Walton league club houses and will be open until 9 p.m., Wednesday.

Mrs. Thompson To Head Star
