

TEST CASE

Honor Roll at St. Paul High

St. Paul — Charles Merten, junior, and Janet Fenton, senior students of the St. Paul Union High School led the 2nd six weeks honor roll with grade point averages of 1.2. Other students on the Honor Roll included George Smith, junior; Carol Ernst, sophomore; Vernita Kimmel, senior; Jean McCarthy, freshman; Rossella Pelland, freshman and Phillip Wolf, junior.

The student council of the high school met during the past week and made plans for the Annual Christmas party which will be held on Thursday, Dec. 24. A large Christmas tree was secured over the past week and will be set up and decorated in the main hall with the student council members decorating it.

Gifts will be exchanged at the party and refreshments will be served as well as a program of movies for the student body.

Vacation will start for the students following the party on Thursday, Dec. 24 and school will begin again on Monday, Jan. 4.

H. W. Bowers, principal of the high school, attended the regional meeting of the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools at Seattle during the first three days of the past week.

St. Paul Union High School was accepted as a member of this accrediting association last year and again this year. Membership in this association is given only to high schools and colleges that meet all the requirements and standards as set up by the commission and schools that belong to it fulfill all these obligations.

Funds Arrive for Linn County Polio

Albany — Arrival of a $1000 check here will enable the Linn county chapter of the National Polio Foundation to pay many but not all of its outstanding bills.

The check was received by Jess W. Savage, chapter chairman, from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis as a contribution toward wiping out the Linn county chapter's huge deficit incurred by treatment of four new cases and two carry-over cases of infantile paralysis, according to Savage, who turned the check over to Mrs. Vivienne Abraham of Shedd, chapter treasurer.

Mrs. Abraham noted that since Jan. 1, the Linn county chapter has spent all of this year's polio receipts totaling $8700, plus an additional $6675 thus far received from the na-

FHA Chapter at St. Paul High

St. Paul — This year marks the first year that the St. Paul Union high school home economics department has affiliated with the State Vocational Homemaking Department and one of the first events was the forming of a Future Homemakers of America club.

As part of the Annual Mothers Tea held Thursday, the Perrydale Chapter of the FHA came to St. Paul and under the leadership of State President Sharon Rosenbalm of Perrydale, the St. Paul chapter was installed in a candlelight ceremony in the city hall.

In attendance were the mothers of St. Paul students as well as a delegation from Perrydale. Claudia Ernst was installed as the new president. Following the installation, the St. Paul chapter of FHA selected their first Chapter Mother and this honor went to Mrs. Lester Kirk.

Tea and coffee were served and a style show followed, all under the direction of home economics instructor Mrs. J. J. Magnuson.

Additional foundation, but is still in need of about $1600 more to cover the chapter's total obligations of more than $16,000.
