

Miss Smart Is Bride

Albany—One of the Christmas season's weddings was that of Miss Shirley Ann Smart, Albany, daughter of Kendall W. Smart of North Albany, and Mrs. R. W. Glover, South Burnaby, B.C., and Donald R. Quinn, Jr., Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Quinn, Oakridge. The single ring ceremony was read on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church by the Rev. Morton L. Booth.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attired in a dress of chiffon velvet made with sweetheart neckline, tucked Mandarin collar, a Chantilly lace yoke and long lace sleeves. Large white pearl buttons embellished the back of the yoke. The skirt terminated in a medium-length train. The veil was of white chiffon velvet fastened to a half-bonnet trimmed with seed pearls. The veil was piped with white velvet across the hemline.

The bride carried a white Rainbow Bible centered with a white orchid. Miss Elaine Wallis, the maid of honor, wore a Pacific blue taffeta frock with stole of frosted crinkle nylon and a cap of nylon. She carried a cascade bouquet of frosted holly, juniper berries and pale blue chrysanthemums.

The bridesmaids were all dressed identically to Miss Wallace and wore dresses, stoles and caps of blue. They were Miss Dawn Moore, Miss Betty McKenzie and Miss Alice Welk.

Victor Johanson was best man and serving as ushers were Frank Quinn, John Quinn, brothers of the bridegroom, and Richard Smart, brother of the bride. Lighting candles before the ceremony were Richard Smith and Frank Quinn.

Preceding the ceremony James W. Jenks sang. Mrs. William Kurtz was the organist. A navy blue dress with white accessories was chosen by the bride's mother for the ceremony and, completing her costume, was a corsage of chartreuse shaded orchids. The bridegroom's mother was also attired in navy blue with pink accents and a corsage of chartreuse orchids.

Large baskets of frosted greenery and holly intermingled with white chrysanthemums decorated the front of the church and the ends of the pews were marked with lighted candles with clusters of frosted greens tied to the pews with white satin bows.

Immediately following the ceremony the reception was in the church parlors. The bride's table was centered with the wedding cake made in the form of a cross and trimmed in silver and blue, encircled with frosted holly and juniper berries, also pale blue candles in silver candleholders.

Bouquets of frosted holly and chrysanthemums and pale blue candles in holders forming the mantel decoration. Other arrangements of Christmas greenery were used about the rooms.

The serving table was centered with a crystal punch bowl surrounded by frosted holly. The circular table was covered with a floor length cloth of Pacific blue taffeta draped with frosted ribbon bows.

Pouring were Mrs. Wren Small, Mrs. Ann Bahr, and Mrs. S. O. Griffith of Albany and Mrs. Harry Nebergall, Eugene. Cutting and serving the bride's cake were Mrs. Frank Quinn and Mrs. John Quinn, sisters-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Wesley Muller and Mrs. Russell Parker. Mrs. Harold Agnew was in charge of the reception. Music was furnished during the reception by Mrs. William Kurtz at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Quinn left on a wedding trip following the reception. They will be at home at 3350 S.W. Veterans' Hospital road, Portland after December 20. For going away the bride wore a plum-shaded tweed suit with fitted jacket, small white pixie hat, white gloves and navy blue shoes and handbag. Pinned to her shoulder was a white orchid from her wedding bouquet. Completing her costume was a silver bracelet, a gift from the bridegroom.

Holiday Coffee
Lebanon — Six Lebanon members of Kappa chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, teachers honorary, were hostesses Saturday afternoon, December 5, at a Christmas tea in Corvallis.

They were Mrs. Olive Doak, Mrs. Viola Falier, Mrs. Sara Morris, Mrs. Louise Taylor, Miss Mell Carter, Miss Lovedy Burchholder and Mrs. Cecilia Galey, the latter of Sweet Home. The tea was at the International house of the Oregon State college campus for for-

Is Bride-elect—Announced recently was the engagement of Miss Gwen Phillips, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Phillips, to Robert D. Harrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Harrington (Kennell-Ellis studio picture).

Miss Hatton Is Bride at Lebanon

Lebanon — The Assembly of God church was decorated with white chrysanthemums and red tapers for the wedding of Miss Shirley Hatton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hatton, and Ted Vanden Bos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas V. Bos. The Rev. Harold Robson read the double ring nuptials at 7:30 p.m. December 5.

Mr. Hatton gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white satin dress formally styled and carried an arm bouquet of roses. Her only attendant was Mrs. James Vanden Bos, who wore a chartreuse frock and carried contrasting carnations.

Best man was James Vanden Bos. Ushers were Ed Billy and Dean Blatchley.

The reception was in the church recreation room. Red roses, silver holly and red candles were used for decorations. Assisting with the reception were Miss Hazel Swickert who poured, while Mrs. Kenneth Blatchley cut the cake and Mrs. Eldon Ray and Mrs. Lawrence Peltz served.

For her wedding trip to the coast, Mrs. Bos wore a navy suit with red and white accessories and a red rose corsage. The bride graduated from Lebanon union high school with the June class of 1953. Her husband attended school in Montana.

The couple plan to live on route 2.

Miss Schenk Wed At Barlow Church

Aurora — Miss Hazel Schenk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Schenk of Canby, was wed to John C. Burley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Burley of the Eby district, near Macksburg, at a double-ring ceremony read by the Rev. Paul N. Roth, December 4, in Calvary Mennonite church at Barlow.

The bride wore a dress of white slipper satin with full train, the yoke and peplum of Chantilly lace. The fingertip length veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls. The bride carried an all-white cascade arrangement of rosebuds and spider chrysanthemums. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Wilbur Schenk of Salem was matron of honor; bridesmaids were Miss Winona Roth, Miss Beverly Yoder and Mrs. Marlin Burley and the flower girl was Susan Unrau.

Marlin Burley was best man for his brother. Other attendants for the bridegroom were Wilbur Schenk, brother of the bride, John Morris and elgin students. Approximately 40 students attended. They represented 12 nations of Asia, Europe and Africa.

Four Children Perish in Fire

Pittsburgh (AP)—Four small children perished last night in a fire which gutted the family's quarters in a three-story apartment house in suburban Rankin.

They were Barbara Jean Allen, 6; her sister Carol Anne, 4, and her brothers Dennis, 3, and Raymond, 17 months.

The mother, Mrs. Pauline Allen, tripped and fell down the stairs while trying to carry the baby to safety. Dazed and badly bruised, she groped her way to the door and called for help.

"There was smoke all around," she said. "I couldn't see the children."

Several other families in the building escaped unhurt. Firemen said an overheated stove may have caused the fire.

Draftees Go On January 7

Marion county's next group of draftees will leave here January 7 for Portland for induction into the Armed Forces the following day.

The call for draftees on this date is for 15 men. Prior to their departure from Salem the young men are to be honored at a reception at the YMCA, where they also report for transporting to Portland.

To date the Marion county selective service office has received no call for physical examinations of young men of draft age in January.

The Marion county selective service office, located in the Salem armory, will be closed December 24, the day before Christmas, and will remain closed until Monday, December 28. The office is normally closed on Saturdays.

Rhode Island is 48 miles long and 37 miles wide.

Court Order Needed To Destroy Devices

Slot machines which can be used for amusement, as well as for gambling, can be destroyed only upon a court order, Atty. Gen. Robert Y. Thornton ruled Wednesday for Dist. Atty. Max L. McMillin of Josephine County.

The opinion applies to those machines which can be set so they can be used for amusement only.

Thornton suggested that in a proceeding to destroy such a machine, it would be advisable to have a jury trial.

Concrete Pipe Co. Faces Another Suit

Albany—Suit has been filed in circuit court here by the Corvallis Sand & Gravel Co., with the City of Albany related, asking a judgment of $844.75 against the Valley Concrete Pipe Co., claiming that amount due for material sold the defendant for use in fulfilling a contract to supply pipe to the city of Albany, dated August 14, 1952.

The same defendant is being sued also by the State Industrial Accident Commission for $318.89 allegedly due in contributions from Valley Concrete Pipe Co., to the state industrial accident fund.

Five Young Men Recruited by Navy

Five young men signed for duty by the local Navy recruiting office were enlisted in that branch of the Armed Forces in Portland Tuesday and left Tuesday evening for San Diego to take their training.

In the group were Orville Rupp, Wiseman, Jr., Albany; Darwin Elwood Richards, Woodburn; Stanley C. Plummer, Jr., formerly of Salem and now of Prineville; Darel Wayne Anderson, Sheridan; and James Dale Nydigger, Toledo.
