

Lions Santa for Indian Youths

The annual Christmas party sponsored by the Salem downtown Lions Club for the benefit of Chemawa Indian school pupils will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Dec. 21. It is estimated that 600 teenagers will be remembered by the Lions during the program which will be held in the Indian school auditorium.

Masters of ceremonies for the event will be Leo Reimann and Santa Claus will be impersonated by District Court Judge Val Sloper. Rev. George L. Holmquist, pastor of Faith Lutheran church will direct the singing and the pantomime team of Payne and Springer will present their act.

Other features of the program will include an accordion solo by Susanne Anglin; songs by the Leslie junior high triple trio; a five minute juggling act and music by a saxophone quartet.

James Allenby holds the role of general chairman for the party.

FOUR SEAMEN RESCUED
Pusan, Korea (AP)—The U. S. destroyer Stribling Wednesday rescued four South Korean seamen who had drifted in their capsized boat and lived on apples for six days. The rescue was 70 miles off the coast in the Sea of Japan.

Hayesville

Hayesville—Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Andresen and Virgil Perrine have left for Red Bluff, Calif., where Mrs. V. Perrine is caring for a new granddaughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson recently. The Andresens will go on to Vallejo, Calif., to visit with her sister, Mrs. Ethel Willendrup, before returning home.

Word has been received of the birth of a daughter, Cheryl Lynn, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson of Red Bluff, Calif. Mr. Jackson is manager of the Montgomery Ward store in the California city, having been transferred from here a year ago. Cheryl has a sister, Veneta Helen.

Salem Team Wins In Rifle Match

Results received on this week's rifle match between the Salem organized Marine Corps unit's rifle team and that of the 85th special infantry company of Shelby, Mont., show the Salem team to be the winner.

Salem's Third 155 mm gun battalion's team had a score of 1556, while the Shelby team's score was 1410.

Top scoring man for the Salem unit was Tech. Sgt. Ted R. White, who fired 340. Other members of the team were Second Lt. William T. Baldwin, Capt. Hubert J. Faltyn, Sgt. Delbert J. Ditter and Pfc. Robert A. Giddens.

The Peabody Museum at Yale university maintains a museum in a small sandstone quarry at Middlefield, Conn., where dinosaur tracks show in the stone.

Sgt. Butler Joins Staff

Master Sgt. Maxwell Butler, veteran of both World War II and the Korean conflict, this week joined the inspector-instructor staff for the Marine reserves here.

Butler came to the Salem assignment on termination of his leave which followed duty in Korea with H battery, Third battalion, 11th Marines, First Marine Division of the Fleet Marine Force. He will be the artillery chief on the I and I staff here.

The sergeant joined the Marine Corps November 8, 1939, and during World War II saw service in the Pacific. He was in Korea from October 22, 1952 until November 22, 1953. Butler has five battle stars on his Asiatic-Pacific ribbon from World War II and three battle stars on his Korean service ribbon.

Coming to Salem with the sergeant was his wife, who has been residing at Beaufort, South Carolina, while he was overseas.
