Boots and Spurs
By SUSAN YOUNGQUIST

As the holiday season descends upon us, all the club members are busily buying gifts, wrapping those already purchased, and running around with an air of happy expectancy. Holiday parties are being given, and most of the people take part in those.

The barn is being prettied up, too. Friday, December 18, is the date of the annual Christmas party for members, their families, and the interested public. There will be a Christmas tree, balloons galore for the kids, and games you've never played before. A good time can always be expected, and it is an event that is looked forward to all year long. George L. Arbuckle is general chairman, and has been for several years. He has always done a paramount job of seeing that people enjoy themselves, and this year should be no different.

Gifts will be exchanged, each person to bring one gift not to exceed one dollar. The ladies label their gifts "ladies" and the fellows, "men." That's Friday night, December 18, 8 p.m. in the Arena.

Last Friday night's fun night was put on by Stenders and the Wards. There was a huge crowd out, and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

Marge Woods has sold her sorrel to Bill Stampely over in Woodburn. She reports that Bill plans to make a jumper out of that horse. Bet you miss your "old pal" don't you, Marge?

Tuesday night's calf roping brought out about 20 enthusiasts. Bus Youngquist was out, for the first time, and, believe it or not, he caught a calf. "Beginner's luck," Bus stated modestly. Course he didn't say how many times he tried, but maybe that doesn't count.
