PIN PATTER

253 for a bistering set series to top the previous record by 25 pins. Pinky's assault on the maples enabled Karr's to win five points from Gerlinger.
Bob White pounded the pins for a 792 series to no avail as his mates gave him practically no help. As a matter of fact, a couple of them were dragging their feet. The sweep en-abled Karr's to move past team into first place with a two game bulge. With four weeks to go in the first half, there are still four teams within striking distance of the leaders and anything can hap-

WE LEARN ABOUT DUCK PINS

Anyone who can average 150 in that game has our deep respect. Last nite we rolled four games with genial Tom Wood, B & B proprietor, and "shattered" the pins for 85, 123, 127, and then went out of control for a 159 game. Tom says he'd like to meet the man who can hit his big ball average on the smaller pins.

This week we salute the Ray & Wilma's team in This week we salute the Ray & Wilma's team in the University Commercial No. 1 league who fired a 1034 scratch game Thursday night and with their 61 pin handicap wound up with 1095. Bruce "The Dog" Wilberg led off with 178; Orville Mull checked in with 200; Lyle Diercks rolled 194; Butch Ireland smashed out a 256 game and Warren "Rabbit" Miller anchored with 206. A very nice game in any league. In the same league, Phil Yoder, a 141 average bowler had these between the same states of the same states. one of those big thrills as he rolled his highest game ever as he chalked up a 228 effort.

HITTING THE TURKEY BETWEEN THE EYES

One of the oddest tournaments to come to Salem in the land years is the 4-6 Turkey Shoot at the Capitol. many years is the 4-6 Turkey Shoot at the Capitol.

Nothing to it (ha-ha). All you have to do is roll your ball between the 4 and the 6 pins 10 consecutive times and the house will give you a 12 pound turkey. Costs a dollar to enter and so far seven men and two women have been given the bird by the house.

Winners are Brownie Valdez, Bob Ryan, Larry Oslund "Big Bender" Logan, Chet Boyce, Ray Gunn, and Larry Stapley. Female winners after poppa had tried and given to Laurel Doerfler and Dot Olney. Any comments, Jack

Big vuk in the tournament came last night and Ro-Robinson was the victim. Roy tried three times, threw three balls and hit a pin the first ball every time. After the third try he grabbed his ball and went home. Better luck next

HEFTY SERIES BY ACE-OF- THE-WEEK

Public nusiance number one this week, at least to the Gerlinger Carrier Co. crew in the Capitol Major league is Pinky Hartweil, the "old Pro" anchor man of the Karr's The Vikings took their third 5 old Misers entry who set a new league high series Wednesday night. Pinky put together games of 209, 222, 245, and 233 for a blistering 909 series to top the previous record by 25 pins. Pinky's assault on the maples enabled Karr's to win

Bob Wulf, 6-4 junior center, led the Salem attack as he poured in 20 points to lead both teams in scoring. Wulf looked good on the backboards to stop the tall Millers. Jim Knapp, senior guard, hit 16 points for the night.

The Millers broke into an early lead but after several minutes Salem, coached by Harold Hauk, went ahead for good. Wulf's five points led Salem in the initial period as they took a 15.12 first curstant. they took a 15-12 first quarter lead.

33-28 at Halftime
Salem upped their lead slightly in the second quarter with Larry Springer leading the attack with seven points, mostly in the final minutes of the helf Les Pakulak keer the the half. Les Pakulak kept the Millers within striking distance with seven markers and the Vikings held a 33-28 halftime the third quarter.

The 22-point spree included nine field goals and four free throws. Meanwhile the Millers coached by former University of Oregon great, Roger Wiley, sank 15 points.

Gap Closed at Finish

Springfield closed the mar-gin in the final quarter with Danny Sperry leading the Mil-lers back in the ball game. Sperry hit for four straight field goals in the last few minutes, while Tom Burgeois had five free throws to give them 13 for the quarter.

Meanwhile the Vikings, with second-stringers playing most of the time, were falling down to eight points, four by start-ers and four by reserves. Phil Burkland and Herb Triplett Sperry led the Springfield team in scoring with 18, followed by Bourgeois with 12 and Pakulak with eleven. Gordy Domogalla, who played an all round fine game along with Tom Pickens, had eleven for Salem.

The Cougars were behind 31-18 at halftime after Wy-east had ued 18-4 at the end of the initial period. Fred Warren had 15 points for the winners while Neil Kinion had 14 for In the junior varsity clash, Lee Gustafson's Vikings won with 16 and 49-25.

High scorers for Redmond were the Zitek brothers, Doug led the bullseye parade with 175 per cent accuracy in scorning 14 points. His teammate, George Smith, no relative, led in the game.
