The story of the little boy who took the doll from the crib being erected in a San Francisco church on Christmas eve because he did not want it to be cold will be the feature on Dragnet this week. The story has been told many times at Christmas time and this year it has been made the Dragnet Christmas program for both TV. KPTV on Thursday at 9 pm., and radio, KGW Tuesday at 9 pm. The story was filmed for TV in the Old Mission church on the plaza in Los Angeles Mexican quarter. The TV program has been announced as the first color film which will be broadcast. The story is also available by RCA Victor recording.

Vice President Nixon will be on radio and TV Wednesday at 7:30 and 8 p.m. with a report on his world tour.
