

Detroit Lions Edge Browns 17-16 for 2nd Pro Title in Row

Doran Nails 1st TD Pass; Caps Rally

By JOE FALLS
 Detroit, End Jim Doran of the Detroit Lions waited until the precise moment to catch his first touchdown pass of the season—and it was worth $33,912.45.
 That's how much extra the Lions earned Sunday by clipping 17-16 for their second straight National Football League championship.
Supposed to Play Defense
 The game was a real thriller, matched by only a few pro play-offs, and the ironic part about it was that Doran was supposed to play defense, and not offense. He was forced into offensive duties when Leon Hart, Detroit's towering end, suffered a wrenching knee early in the game.
 With only 2:08 to play Doran sped behind Ken Konz, Cleveland defender, and gathered in Bobby Layne's winning touchdown pass. Doran cradled the ball in his arms as he sped across the final money stripe.
 It was a crushing jolt for the Browns, who led 16-10 with less than five minutes to go, thanks to three field goals by Lou (The Toe) Groza and a nine yard TD run by fullback Chick Jagade.
 But the Lions, who cut them close during the season, proved their clutch ability was no fluke by marching 80 yards in eight pulsating plays. Layne and Doran were the key players in the drive. They combined on three pass plays good for 68 yards.
Graham Bottled Up
 Boiled down, the game was decided in the Lion's favor because they had a patting attack and Cleveland didn't. Otto Graham had one of his worst games in his eight year pro career, completing only two passes in 15 tries for a mere 20 yards.
 With a crowd of 55,577 and millions of television viewers looking in, Detroit took a 10-3 lead at halftime. Doak Walker drove across from the one early in the first period and he kicked a 23-yard field goal in the second period.
 Cleveland, impotent in the first half, was red-hot after intermission and tied the score 10-10 when Jagade capped a 51-yard drive by bulging through right guard to score. Then Groza sent Cleveland ahead in the fourth quarter with two field goals—15 yards and 43 yards. But it wasn't enough.
 Each winning share for the Lions was $2,424.10 while 654.10.

Evenden Takes Duck Pin Prize In Dec. Singles

Harold Evenden won the singles final playoff for the month in duck pins at the B&B Bowl Sunday night, winning $10.56 with his score of 492-99-591.
 Second was Chuck Neinst with 461-126-587, pocketing $5.28.
 In doubles, Evenden teamed with Eddie Lepper to take the $16.17 prize, Evenden rolling 460-99-559 and Lepper 510-45-555, for a total of 1114.
 Second were Eddie Lepper, 503-45-548, and Chuck Neinst, 345-126-471, for a total of 1019.
 The doubles tournament was continued Sunday until Saturday, January 30, with the playoff Sunday, January 31, at 8 p.m.
 A headpin tourney will replace January singles play. In this, a red pin is placed on the headpin spot and in each game the player plays 5 cents each time he misses the headpin. Every day the high score in tourney plays gets one-half the day's pot receipts and each daily winner qualifies for the playoff at the end of the month.
 In case a daily winner has won before, the runnerup will qualify. Handicap in all tourney competition is 70 per cent of the difference between the player's league average and 160.
 A newcomer to Florida's racing was this season will be the C. V. Reynolds' trained Dorchester Farm Stable. They will be quartered at Gulfstream Park.

OSC vs. Duke Tonight As Dixie Classic Opens

Raleigh, N.C. (AP)—Defending champion North Carolina State College faced the finest field in history as the fifth annual Dixie Classic got under way at Reynolds Coliseum Monday.
 Two of the eight participating basketball teams are undefeated.
 Although the Wolfpack has won every Dixie Classic tournament and is undefeated this year on its home Coliseum floor, the team at best ranks as co-favorite with Oregon State.

OSC Beats Ohio State

The tall Beavers, topped by 7-3 center Wade Halbrook, lost a 76-72 overtime game to the nation's No. 1 team, Indiana, last Monday. But the following night, on a neutral floor, the Beavers whipped the Hoosiers, 87-51. Last Saturday they blasted Ohio State at Columbus, 62-60. Oregon State last week was rated 12th in the nation.
 N.C. State, which warmed up for the tournament with a 71-60 conquest of Pennsylvania Saturday, has one loss in nine starts. The Wolfpack is ninth ranked nationally.
 The field includes Wake Forest, last year's Southern Conference winner and the only conqueror of N.C. State this season; undefeated North Carolina and Navy; Seton

16 Prep Tilts Set for Week Around Area

Sixteen high school basketball games are scheduled in this area this week despite being vacation time, but none is a league contest and no Salem prep teams are involved.

Coach John Lewis has scheduled practices for his Willamette university basketball team for Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday and Thursday mornings to prepare for Central Washington this week-end.
 Central Washington College of Education has been knocking heads with some strong quintets, as has Willamette, and been breaking even. The series will be Friday and Saturday nights in the W.U. gymnasium.
 Family Night has been instituted for both nights, giving the bargain for the whole family for the lump sum of $1.50. The bigger the family, the bigger the bargain, Lewis pointed out.
 The series will be the last for the Bearcats before opening the Northwest conference also with Whitman in Salem, June 8-9.

 Lewis said that the preliminary Friday will match Silverton and Stayton high schools, but there will be no prelim Saturday.
 The Bearcats are to stress the view of fundamentals, particularly working against a pressing defense, Lewis added.
 Tony Leswick of the Detroit Red Wings is the shortest player in the National Hockey league. He is 5 feet 6 inches.

Wrestling

Seattle (AP)—The Tri-City Braves of the Western International League have signed southpaw Earl Lemieux as a free agent. The portside pitcher was released last season by Wausau of the Wisconsin State league after compiling a 4-3 record. His acquisition by Tri-City was announced here Saturday by manager Eddie Taylor.

S.O.C.E. AT L.&C. TONIGHT

Portland (AP)—Southern Oregon College of Education and Lewis & Clark college clash here tonight in a non-conference basketball game.
 The SOCE Raiders hold a 73-61 victory over the Pioneers in an earlier contest this season.

2 Referees to Handle Six-Man Tag Match

There are enough hard feelings built up to provide two wrestling matches among the six entries for the six-man tag team scrap Tuesday night at the Salem Armory.
 That's why matchmaker Elton Owen has booked two referees to try to prevent a recurrence of a near-riot which flared the last time there was a double tag team match in Salem. Helping Tony Ross will be a yet-to-be-named official.
 And what is more, it will be Ladies Free night. The woman fans can sit anywhere but in the reserved seat section. Owen pointed out.
 The lineup for the trio of ruffians is Kurt von Poppenheim, Red Vagnone and Toi "The Great" Yamato. One at a time they are to take on one of the opposition—Luther Lindsey, David Jons and Carl Engstrom.
 The trouble in past tag matches has been that often it isn't "one at a time," for the temperamental grapplers sometimes leap the ropes illegally to stir up a ringful of action. Hence, two referees for this one.

Braves Give 6 To Get O'Connell

Milwaukee, (AP)—Both the Pittsburgh Pirates and Milwaukee Braves believe they have gained from the weekend trade which sent infielder Danny O'Connell to Milwaukee for six Braves players and cash.
 O'Connell went for Sid Gordon, veteran left fielder; Max Surkont, pitcher; Sam Jethroe, outfielder; and three farm pitchers, Larry Lassale, Curton Raydon and Fred Waters.
SEATTLE WINS NO. 8
 Seattle (AP)—Seattle University clicked off its eighth straight win of the basketball season Saturday night against Creighton University, 87-78.
