Battered Alabam Arrives in Texas For Bowl Drills

Dallas, Tex. (4) - One of the worst bunged up bowl teams ever to come here—Alabama's Crimson Tide—started its workouts on Texas soil Monday, while Rice, its foe in the Cotton Bowl, was changing locations.

Rice had no injuries but rains in Houston and over South Texas caused Coach Jess Neely to decide to take his squad to Abilene, in dry West Texas, for workouts. Coach Harold (Red) Drew and 38 players flew into Dallas Sunday to find themselves underdogs by a touchdown-with which Drew agreed.

With 10 injured players on the squad, Drew could be par-doned by his dour outlook. At least two of those won't play at all and another—Albert Elmore, the No. 2 quarterback-is doubtful.
