

Some Notations . . .

By M. L. F.

The holiday week is a gay one in Salem, several open house affairs marking the week between Christmas and New Year's . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Owan are to entertain on Tuesday evening at an open house affair, the party to be in the Camellia room at the Senator hotel, guests being invited to call at 8 o'clock.

One of the most charming parties of the season was the other-daughter tea for which Mrs. Herman Jochimsen and her three attractive daughters—teen-agers Sondra and Suzanne, and young sister, Sally—were hostesses on Saturday afternoon at their South High street home . . . It was quite a festive affair with the girls, from grade school age on up to college, calling with their mothers for tea between 3 and 4 o'clock—and how grown up some have become in just a year's time! The girls gathered in the den for their chatting, their punch table in colorful Christmas theme being set up in the breakfast room adjoining, while mothers stayed to sit in the living room and about the tea table . . . The Christmas home is beautifully decorated for the Yuletide . . . Unusual is the madonna arrangement in front of a large old framed mirror, the illuminated madonna set in angel air at the base of the mirror . . . Looped across the top of the round mirror are strands of gold beads with a big red bow at the top . . . The table featured the pink theme, set with a pink satin cloth, the centerpiece of pink roses with a few white narcissuses for accent, pink candles at either side . . .

Among those greeted during our call, Mrs. Willard Thompson and daughter, Karen; Mrs. Arthur A. Atherton and daughter, Nancy; Mrs. Vernon Gilmore and daughter, Patricia; Mrs. Ward R. Davis and daughter, Linda, and niece, Valdene Shepherd of Vancouver; Mrs. Robert J. Herall and daughter, Linn; Mrs. Chandler Brown and daughter, Plum; Mrs. Charles H. Heltzel and daughter, Kathy; Mrs. T. Harold Tomlinson and daughter, Kaye; Mrs. Edwin Keech and daughter, Susan; Mrs. Theron Hoover and daughter, Anne; Mrs. Francis Smith and daughter, Betty Lou; Mrs. Harold M. Olinger and daughter, Susan; Mrs. Dean Brooks and daughter, Denise; Mrs. James Walton and daughter, Elizabeth; Mrs. William H. Hammond and daughter, Connie; Mrs. G. E. McCormick and daughter, Glenda; Mrs. William F. Braun and daughter, Phoebe Lou; and among other friends, Mrs. Harry S. Dorman, Mrs. Urlin S. Page, Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mrs. Arthur Erickson, Mrs. George H. Swift . . .

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lohead, Pali Drive, were hosts Saturday evening at their annual Christmas time open house, a hospitable affair anticipated each year by their friends . . . From the front steps and doorway with their cheery setting of greens, candles and greeting card to every room in the house, the Lohead home is artistically decorated for the holidays . . . With the kitchen these days such an attractive part of the home, it is a joy to see the kitchen all a part of the setting for a party . . . At the Lohead open house the generous buffet was set up in the kitchen, the home being so arranged guests could circulate throughout the house with ease.

Extending greetings of the season during our call were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Post, Dr. and Mrs. Tom H. Dunham, Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shafer, Dr. and Mrs. John M. Ramage, Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Hill and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Hodgson of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Coburn Grabenhorst, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grabenhorst, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. James White, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Nicholson, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Devers, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Darley, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Cox, all of Stayton; Mr. and Mrs. William J. Braun; Mr. and Mrs. John Kitzmiller, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gerlinger, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Williams all of Dallas; Dr. and Mrs. Morris Crothers, Mrs. Othel Lee and daughter, Miss Othelene Lee and the latter's fiancé, William Colvard; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sears, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Walling, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Carlton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeArmond and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. DeArmond of Bend . . . Assisting the hosts were their sons-in-law and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert L. Williamson and Mr. and Mrs. James Kribs, and their daughter, Miss Gail Lohead . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hoy were hosts for one of the Sunday open houses, inviting a group of friends to call between 4 and 6 o'clock at their Douglas avenue home . . . The Hoyes have one of the most striking Christmas trees we've seen, a silvered one with only green decorations . . . Over each green ornament is a matching green bow . . . The supper table was set with a bright Christmas green satin cloth, the centerpiece silvered greens with white candles . . . Here we chatted with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Todd and son, Jim; Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Green, Mr. and Mrs. Lisle Dempewolf, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Post, Mr. and Mrs. Denver Young, Judge and Mrs. Joseph B. Felton . . . The hosts' daughter, Miss Sally Hoy, assisted in greeting and serving the guests . . .

"HOW TO BE LOVED"

"When the Journal editor asked me to write an article, I was astonished and honored. I had never written anything, or even authorized a by-line, but the subject intrigued me. I wrote it to remind you of your own feelings when you started to love—your own richness of heart . . . which you still have, but may have neglected in this hectic, rushing life of ours. You will read my sincere beliefs on love and how to be loved in the Ladies' Home Journal."
