U.S. Seizes Lead in Davis Cup, Needs One More Win

Trabert and Seixas Win In Doubles

By Will GRIMSLEY

Melbourne, (P)-Tony Tra-bert and Vic Scixas, America's seige guns, crushed Lewis Hoad and Rex Hartwig 6-2, 6-4, 6-4 today to skyrocket the United States into a 2-1 lead over Australia in the Davis Cup Challenge Round.

This doubles event was of paramount importance to both countries, and strangely, the Americans had all but conceded it to the Aussies. Now the United States has a decided advantage in that it must win only one of the two remaining singles scheduled for tomorrow. They will pit Trabert against Hoad and Seixas against Ken Rosewall. Aussie Gamble Loses

Captain Harry Hopman and the Australian selection committee gambled and lost by sending Hartwig into the fray instead of Rosewall, the young-ster who dropped the second singles match to Trabert yes-
