Miss Fitch Wed Here Dec. 27

Woodburn—The First Congregational church in Salem was the scene of the wedding of Miss Sharon Phyllis Fitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fitch of Woodburn, and Second Lieutenant James H. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Smith of Norma, North Dakota, December 26, at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Dr. Julian J. Keiser officiated at the impressive candle-light service. Christmas decorations were used in the church with holly and Christmas flowers decorating the altar.

The candles were lighted by Misses Joyce Stiles of Salem and DeMaris Smith of Norma, N. D. sister of the bridegroom. They were dressed in white formal, carrying candles with red carnations and green streamers. Soloist was Miss Marilyn Smith of Badger, North Dakota, who sang accompanied by Jean Hobson Rich.

Mr. Fitch gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white nylon net over taffeta dress, fashioned with a lace bodice, long sleeves pointed at the wrist, and tiny buttons down the back. The veil, fingertip length, was held in place with a lace cap with sequin trim. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses.

Miss Sheila Fitch was honor attendant for her sister. She wore white net over taffeta with red velvet top, and carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations with red satin streamers. Bridesmaids were Misses Shirley and Cleo Fitch, also sisters of the bride, who wore green net over taffeta with dark green velvet tops and carried cascade bouquets of white carnations with green satin streamers. Each of the attendants wore holly in her hair.

Terry Fitch, brother of the bride, served as best man, and ushers were Carris Young of Bremerton, Wash., and Floyd Smith of Silverton.

Mrs. Fitch wore a dress of plum colored wool for her daughter's wedding with black accessories and corsage of purple orchids. Mrs. Smith, mother of the bridegroom, wore gold colored crepe with corsage of purple orchids.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony. Mrs. Allen Fitch of Silverton, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake; Mrs. Raymond Smith, of Silverton poured the coffee and Mrs. Don Eldred, also of Silverton, cousins of the bride, served the punch. At the gift table were Miss Kay Smith of Bremerton and Mrs. Andrew Rice of Woodburn. Miss Marilyn Smith passed the guest book.

Lt. and Mrs. Smith will be at home after Jan. 4 at the Bryan Air Force base in Texas where he is a jet instructor. For traveling Mrs. Smith wore a blue knit suit with red accessories with white top coat and corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Smith graduated from Woodburn high school in 1951 and in 1953 from the North Dakota school of forestry where she specialized in secretarial science at Bottineau, N. D. She is affiliated with Delta Phi Omega sorority. Lt. Smith graduated in 1946 from the Warner, N. D. high school, from the North Dakota school of forestry in 1948 and the U. S. Naval Academy in 1952.

A GROUP of friends will gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Allen for a no-host supper and New Year's Eve party on Thursday, 14 to be in the group.

Wedding at Mt. Angel On Monday

Mt. Angel — St. Mary's Catholic church was the scene for a Christmas week-end wedding, Monday morning, December 28, when Mrs. Dorothy Dieker Sprauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dieker, was married to CS1 Alfred J. Huber of Tongue Point, Oregon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Huber of Mount Angel.

The Rev. Cyril Lebold, O.S.B. officiated at the 9:30 o'clock morning double ring ceremony, and the Rev. Morton Park, Portland, friend of the bridegroom, was celebrant at the nuptial high mass. Serving as altar boys were Edward and Bernard Huber, brothers of the bridegroom.

White chrysanthemums and snapdragons, with red poinsettias, Christmas greens and tall lighted tapers, decorated the altars and sanctuary for the service. Miss Helen Keber was organist, and the St. Mary's church choir sang. Miss Patricia Anderson and Miss Ruth Schermer, Gervais, sang before the ceremony, at the offertory and preceding the recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blue taffeta afternoon dress, designed with elbow length sleeves, Peter Pan collar and a full flared skirt; the fitted bodice accented with rhinestone buttons. Her winter white hat was fashioned with white velvet flowers. She carried a pearl rosary and a missal topped with a white orchid.

Miss Frances Dieker was her sister's only attendant. She was attired in a silver blue faille afternoon dress, styled with a fitted bodice, roll V-collar and full unpressed pleats. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls, and she wore a red velvet hat. She carried a blue crystal rosary and a missal topped with red roses.

Elmer Huber was best man for his brother, and ushering the guests were Charles Schaefer and Kenneth Vachter, St. Paul, nephews of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dieker wore a navy blue silk dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose pink flowered silk dress with gray accessories. Both mothers added corsages of baby orchids.

Among the guests at the church service were Sister M. Alberta, O.S.B., sister of the bride, and Sister M. Ida, O.S.B., of Convent Queen of Angels, Mt. Angel; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Neissen, grandparents of the bridegroom, and Paul Dieker, of Fort Ord, California, brother of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dieker, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, were hosts at a wedding breakfast at their home immediately following the church service. An arrangement of Christmas flowers flanked by tall lighted tapers centered the table where covers were placed for the wedding party, the officiating priests, and parents of the couple. Miss Ruth Ann Dieker assisted Mrs. Dieker in serving.

The afternoon reception was in the Legion Memorial hall where holiday decorations were used about the room. White chrysanthemums formed the floral appointments on the bride's table, which was centered with a three-tiered decorated wedding cake, surrounded by a circle of holly, and flanked by candles in two shades of blue in crystal candleholders.

Mrs. Mark Schaefer of Oswego and Mrs. Robert Cook of Eugene, sisters of the couple, presided at the coffee urn.

Some Notations..

By M. L. F.

Today's Holiday Punch, or echoes of the season: A little first grader and one of his classmates were playing with their toys and Christmas gifts when the little visitor informed his host: "I'm thirsty, I want a drink." Quick as a flash, the young host asked: "What'll you have, Bourbon or Scotch?" ... Whereupon the members of the family happening to hear the two six-year-olds nearly fell flat on their faces, their shock being somewhat relieved when the little host replied, upon questioning, that he was just remembering something he had heard, and when the little visitor looked blank and patiently repeated: "I want a drink of water." ...

At the bus corner late Saturday a lady was waiting, holding 14 packages we could count—others may have been in the sacks. An acquaintance asked her if she were downtown for the after-holiday bargains, but the lady responded: "Oh, no, I've spent the day exchanging gifts!" ...

Among the cheery sights while riding about the city—the old-fashioned home of Mrs. Reuben P. Boise on North Summer, candles burning in every window from top to bottom of the house... And the beautiful lighting effects at the Elmer Worth home on Glen Creek road, the outdoor fountain being a part of the setting ...

An enjoyable holiday open house was the one for which Justice and Mrs. Walter L. Tooze were hosts at their Fairmount Hill home Monday afternoon. The affair especially honoring a group of their Portland friends... Greeting guests at the door was the hosts' son, Jim Tooze, and in charge of the guest book was Miss Barbara Franzwa... Portland friends invited included Judge and Mrs. Martin Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grayson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Winter, Mr. and Mrs. John Latourette, Sr. ...

In our "after office hours" call late in the afternoon among Salem friends at the affair were Judge and Mrs. Joseph B. Felton, Judge and Mrs. Rex Kimmell, Mrs. Paul L. Patterson, Mrs. Vern W. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Lampert, Mrs. Chester and Mrs. Al Bentz was in charge of the refreshments. Circulating the guest book were Miss Ruth Ann Dieker and Miss Dolores Schaefer of Oswego, sister and niece of the bride, and in charge of the gifts was Miss Aileen Anderson. Assisting in serving were the following girls of Junior Catholic Daughters of Troop Star of the Sea, of which the bride is counselor, the Misses Marlene Prosser, Sandra Prosser, Jo Ann Stupfel, Katherine Ilg, Dolores Schultz and Marlene Diehl.

The couple went to Mount Hood and Seattle on their wedding trip. They will make their home here while the bridegroom is stationed at Tongue Point.
