

Miss Stalp Bride on Saturday

Mount Angel — Bride at a Christmas wedding Saturday morning, December 26, was Miss Marie Agnes Stalp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stalp of Canby, her marriage to Darrel Alfred Rehm being solemnized at 10 o'clock in St. Mary's Catholic church, Mt. Angel. The Rev. Cyril Lebold, OSB, officiated at the double ring ceremony and nuptial high mass in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rehm of Mount Angel.

Christmas greens, red poinsettias, white chrysanthemums and tall lighted candles in candelabras, decorated the altars and sanctuary of the church. Serving as altar boys were John Stalp and Clifford Schmidt, brother and cousin of the bridegroom. Miss Helen Keber was organist and the St. Mary's church choir sang. Miss Eustelle Bauman sang before the ceremony and again preceding the recessional while the couple knelt at the Blessed Virgin altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding dress of imported Chantilly lace over white slipper satin, designed with a fitted lace bodice. Applied satin flowers centered with sequins and seed pearls outlined the illusion yoke. A wide panel of Chantilly lace, edged with applied satin flowers extended down the front of the gathered satin skirt which terminated in a long court train. The bride's only jewelry was a strand of pearls, and her fingertip veil of illusion was caught by a Juliet cap of satin and net edged with satin flowers. She carried a pearl rosary, the bridegroom's wedding gift, and her flowers were a cascade bouquet of white roses and white satin streamers, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Clara Stalp was the honor attendant for her sister. She wore a turquoise blue satin dress with a matching Juliet cap and a rhinestone necklace. The rosary she carried was a gift from the bride, and her flowers were a cascade bouquet of talisman roses and carnations.

Bridesmaids were the bridegroom's two sisters, Mrs. Robert Farnsworth and Miss Anita Rehm. They were attired in amethyst colored satin frocks, styled identically to that of the honor attendant's, and their Juliet caps of satin matched their dresses. The rosaries they carried were also gifts from the bride, and their flowers were cascade bouquets of yellow roses and carnations.

Flower girl was little Jerilyn Farnsworth, niece of the bridegroom. Her floor length dress of turquoise blue satin was a miniature model of the other attendants' dresses. Her headpiece matched her dress, and she carried a small basket of mixed flowers.

Best man was Robert Stalp, brother of the bride, and groomsmen were Robert Farnsworth, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and David Ebner. Ushering the guests were Bernard Stalp and Ronald Schmidt, brother and cousin of the couple.

Mrs. Stalp attended her daughter's nuptials in a two-piece navy blue dress, complemented with maroon accessories.

ries and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Rehm was attired in a navy blue dress with matching jacket, accented with winter pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink elf roses. Attending the nuptials was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Agnes Stalp.

Christmas greens, poinsettias and white chrysanthemums were used in the decorations in the dining room of St. Mary's school which was the setting for the wedding dinner served at noon. Covers placed for more than one hundred were for the bride and groom, the Rev. Cyril Lebold, OSB, and the near relatives. Aunts of the bridegroom, were in charge of the affair. Mrs. Andy Schmidt, was dining room hostess, and Mrs. Elmer Schulte served the punch. Serving were cousins of the bridegroom, Miss Arlene Duda, Miss Lorraine Duda and Miss Donna Zielinski of Canby, and the bride's cousin, Miss Kathy Koelker of Kelso.

The afternoon reception was arranged at the same place. During the festivities the newlyweds cut a four-tiered wedding cake, placed in a ring of white chrysanthemums and greenery. The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth, and arrangements of heather and white chrysanthemums and lighted candles were placed at either end.

Mrs. Leo Stalp of Harrisburg, aunt of the bride, cut the cake, and at the gift table were Mrs. Herman Rehm and Mrs. Lyle Landsem, aunt and cousin of the bridegroom. Miss Mary Lou Faulhaber circulated the guest book, and assisting in serving were Mrs. Don Bowers of Canby, and Mrs. William Stalp of Scotts Mills and Mrs. Albert Uhing, both aunts of the bride, Miss Darlene Pelland and Miss Rosella Pelland, both of St. Paul; Miss Margaret Stalp of Scotts Mills and Miss Marilyn Rehm of Salem, both cousins of the bride couple.

For her going-away ensemble, the bride donned an aqua knit suit with navy blue accessories. To her shoulder she pinned the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet.

After a short wedding trip, they will return here before leaving on January 1 for Denver, Colorado, where the bridegroom is currently stationed at Lowry Air Force Base.
