Bearcats Minus Lewis, Bedridden With Flu

Willamette Bearcats may have to play without the watchful eye of Head Coach John Lewis tonight against Central Washington, for the basketball boss was in bed today with a fever and what appeared to be the flu.

Lewis assigned his junior varsity coach, Jerry Frei, to handle yesterday's practice session and Frei will take the reins tonight if Lewis doesn't choose to take up his bed and walk.

Central Washington comes for a two-night series with a 2-4 record, but the four losses include games against Gonzaga, which defeated Willamette, and strong Whitworth and Whitman clubs.

The visitors defeated College of Puget Sound, 61-53,

a quintet which split a series with the Bearcats.

They have six lettermen, including a 6-3 center, 6-4 forward and 6-2 forward.

It will be Family Night for both games, the gatekeeper requiring $1.50 for the bunch.

The preliminary tonight will match Silverton and Stayton at 6:10, but there will be no prelim Saturday night. The varsity contests are to start at 8 o'clock.

Gray-Y teams from four Salem grade schools will present the half-time entertainment for Friday and Saturday night's games.

West Salem and Garfield schools will meet in the Friday night mix and Englewood and McKinley will battle it out Saturday night.

WVL to Open Slate Tuesday; No Favorites

Sandy (Special) — A full slate of four games marks the opening of 1934 Willamette Valley league basketball action Tuesday night. No favorites have emerged from early season games and a wide open battle appears in prospect for the league crown.

Coach George Potter's Sandy Pioneers host the Molalla Indians. The Pioneers are led by high scoring forward Don Meyers while forward Jim Alexander and guard Stan Childers are the leading point makers for Al Grove's Indians.

A hot first-round tussle looms at Silverton where Gordon Kunkle's defending champion Dall- Dragons take on the power 1 Silverton Foxes coached by Milt Baum.

Escadada Rangers entertain the Canby Cougars. Truman Osburn's hustling Rangers are mainly the same crew that took Escadada to the state A-2 football finals. Coach Charles Driggers is in his first year at Canby. He previously coached at John Day.

Mush Barbour's Woodburn Bulldogs travel to Mt. Angel to tangle with the Preps, who are coached this year by Ray Utz.

Junior varsity games, starting at 6:45, will precede all varsity contests. J. V. teams compete for a trophy. They are composed of freshmen and sophomores and no member of a J. V. squad is allowed to participate in a varsity contest that night.

Five Prineville High Players Banned for Illegal Absences

Prineville (AP) — Coach Merritt Kelsay said today that five Prineville high school basketball squad members had been suspended for unexcused absences before the Christmas vacation.

The suspension order, based on school eligibility rules, hit four members of the A-2 championship team and forced Kelsay to revamp his lineup for games with Washington high of Portland and with Eagle Point.

Team members suspended were Jim Barney, Mel Hudson, Mel Gillett, Richard Cain and Arlan Gumpert. All but Gumpert are members of the varsity squad.

Kelsay said the five skipped school to attend the basketball doubleheader at Corvallis between Oregon and Nebraska and Oregon State and Indiana.

Maryland, Oklahoma Watched

By BOB HOOBING
New York (AP)—Victory through air power was the keynote for several bowl entries today with particular attention centered on Miami, where Oklahoma challenged Maryland's national champions.

The fourth-rated Sooners, one touchdown underdogs, were expected to mix in plenty of passing against the nation's leading rushing defense club.

In other major bowl games Michigan State, No. 3, met UCLA, No. 5, at Pasadena; Georgia Tech, No. 8, faced 10th place West Virginia in the Sugar Bowl; and Rice, No. 6, hosted Alabama in the Cotton Bowl 'X' and 'Y' Units.

At Jacksonville, Fla., Auburn pitted its "X" and "Y" units and the passing combination of Bobby Freeman to Jimmy Pyburn against free-scoring Texas Tech, led by second team All-America halfback Bobby Cavazos in the Gator Bowl.

The burning questions of quarterback Bernie Faloney's condition and Maryland's right to the national title went on the line before an estimated 69,839 fans in a televised and broadcast game.

Faloney, the split-T magician whose knee was injured in Maryland's last regular-season game with Alabama and which gave away several days ago in practice, will see some action, according to the team trainer. But his substitute, Charlie Boxold, was to start for Jim Tatum's powerful Terps and how much service Faloney would see was unknown at kickoff time.

Many people felt that Notre Dame, not Maryland, should have been named the No. 1 team in the country. The Irish, who defeated Oklahoma 28-21, voted the Sooners the toughest opponent they met. So today the Orange Bowl turf was to be Maryland's proving grounds.

TV viewers looked forward to a terrific line battle sparked on the Terp side by All-American Stan Jones and tackle Blumber Morgan and on the Souther side by Lineman of the Year J. D. Roberts and tackle Rog Nelson.

Spartans Favored
Michigan State's Spartans ruled a touchdown favorite over UCLA in the latest edition of the Big Ten-Pacific Coast Conference battle, which the Midwesterners have won six out of seven times.

UCLA, owner of one of the best defensive records in the country, faced a Pasadena jinx that has found it on the losing end of two previous appearances, 9-0 to Georgia, 1943, and 45-14 to Illinois, 1947.

The Bruins have classy All-America single wing tailback Paul Cameron and Michigan State has All-America end Don Dohoney but the pre-game word was that MSC's quarterback Tom Yewick and hard-running halfback Leroy Bolden were the men to watch. The Spartans may take a page from the University of Michigan book to spring screen passes which were dynamite for the Wolverines in 1948.

49-0 over USC and 1951 14-6 over California. State used the same weapon to turn defeat into victory against Texas as Christian early this season. Lost Only to Stanford.

Certainly aerial defense proved the Bruins' biggest weakness this year, with Stanford, paced by passing ace Bobby Garrett, handing them their only defeat.

Passing appeared to be vital for favored Georgia Tech and underdog Alabama too.

The formation Engineers going against the heavier, split-T powered West Virginians, were expected to try to run to the outside or go overhead to avoid the heavy Mountaineer middle.

Injury-riddled "Bama, a bowl veteran, counted heavily on the passing of quarterback Bart Starr to try to handle Rier's ground forces, paced by All-America fullback Kossie Johnson and speedster Dickey Moegele operating behind a powerful line.

In other games Mississippi Southern met Texas Western in the Sun Bowl, La Crosse, Wis., State met Missouri Valley in the Clear Bowl, Arkansas State met East Texas State in the

Angling Is Only Fair

Portland (AP)—Steelhead fishing should be best this week-end in Lincoln county streams, according to the Oregon State Game Commission. Elsewhere angling is expected to be only fair, although fishing has been picking up in central and northeastern Oregon.

The commission report:

Northwest: The north coast streams are in fair condition but few steelhead are being taken. Steelhead angling has been poor the last few days. Water is low and clear, should be fair for drifting. Small bait or lure should be used. Fishing is fair to excellent in all streams in Lincoln county.

Southwest: In Tenille lakes outlet, some steelhead catches have been reported. Steelhead angling in the lower Umpqua river has been only fair. In the upper Umpqua area, steelhead angling has been fair and with clearing weather, the prospects for this week-end are good. Week-end angling should be fairly successful in southern coastal streams.

Central: Hood river is low and clear. Steelhead fishing is good in lower part of the river. The Deschutes is fair to poor. Cello falls should be good for steelhead over the week-end if the water clears. Sturgeon fishing is poor.

Northeast: Steelhead angling on the John Day river has picked up. Anglers are having good luck on eggs. Water conditions are excellent. Very few steelhead are being taken from the lower Grand Ronde and Imnaha rivers. Columbia river has been muddy below McNary. A few steelhead have been taken on the lower Umatilla river with bait.

East-West Ends 10 Days Practice

San Francisco (AP) — Their 10 days' practice finished, four dozen of America's top college football stars await the kickoff Saturday's 29th annual Shrine East-West game.

The all-star teams spent New Year's Day in their camps at Santa Clara and Stanford, relaxing, listening to chalk talks and watching bowl games on television.

TO COACH CALGARY

Stockton, Calif. (AP) — Larry Siemerling, former head coach at College of Pacific and member of the Washington Redskins staff, says he will "take over" as head coach of the Calgary Stampeders in the Canadian League this year.

East Lansing, Mich.—Michigan State's freshman basketball coach, John Benington, was captain and a forward on the 1948-49 University of San Francisco team coached by Pete Newell, present Spartan coach that won the National Invitational basketball tourney in New York City.

Fort Ord Plays Great Lakes for All-Service Title

Phoenix (AP) — Fort Ord, Calif., regarded by many as one of the finest teams in service football history, sought clear title to the all-service football championship today in a Salad Bowl collision with Great Lakes, Ill., Naval Training Center.

Clear, 60-degree weather was forecast for the game, which started at noon PST, all proceeds from the contest go for crippled children activities of the sponsoring Kiwanis clubs of Arizona.

Fort Ord, led by peerless Olie Matson, entered the game a three-touchdown favorite. The Warriors had won 12 games without defeat while Great Lakes has a record of seven wins and two losses.

The presence of Matson, All-America at University of San Francisco and voted the year's standout player in the service ranks, and quarterback Don Hein, former Washington star, is a same backfield started in comparison with such service teams as the Iowa Pre-Flight, Randolph Field, and Great Lakes eleven of World War II.

Hood, Rosewall Won't Turn Pro

Melbourne (AP) — Australia's 19-year-old Davis Cup stars, Lewis Hood and Ken Rosewall, have received feelers from America's Jack Kramer to turn professional but both answered "not yet."

The Melbourne Herald, which employs Australian team Captain Harry Hopman as a writer, reports that Hood insisted he "definitely would stick to amateur tennis for a few years yet."

Rosewall was reported to be of the same mind.

USC Tops Iowa, Bruin Five Wins

Los Angeles (AP)—Southern California beat Iowa last night 70 to 60 in a two-day, four-game series at Pan Pacific Auditorium.

UCLA beat Michigan State earlier 67 to 57 before 5,000 fans.

USC leaped off to a 5-0 advantage early in the first quarter and were never headed. Halftime score was 33 to 24.

St. Martin's to Play Tonight on OCE Floor

Monmouth — St. Martin's college of Olympic, Wash., comes here tonight to play the Oregon College of Education in what should be a close basketball game.

The visitors dropped one to Willamette 71-63 when the Bearcats got a hot rally going and the Bearcats defeated OCE 78-70.

OCE expects to have its main trouble from Jackie Mays, who hit for 20 against Willamette and who had a big night of 48 against Seattle Pacific in that five-overtime scorcher. The Wolves of Coach Bob Livingston have been handicapped in getting rebounds because of lack of height and are out for their second victory in this seventh game.

Livingston indicated he would start Bob Frantz, leading statistics producer Frank Grove, Charley Pink, and McKenzie.

Eric Nesterenko of the Ontario Maple Leafs in the National Hockey League will go to Lebanon for a match at 7 p.m.

Sacramento (AP) — Oregon University's top scorers Ed Halberg and Barney Holland led the Ducks to a nine-point lead in the third quarter then came to victory over the Sacramento State College Hornets last night, 59-53.

The teams traded point-point until midway into the third quarter when Holland and Salberg cut loose. Sacramento Staters Chris Geese and Tom Brian nullified lead with a burst of their own to knot the score at 37-all.

The Ducks' effort at the end of that quarter left Oregon leading 49-40 going into final stanza. They alternated tried to freeze the ball throughout the spunky Hornets and succeeded in holding most of their edge at the final gun. Halberg was high point man with 20 markers for the Ducks followed closely by Holland with 17. ### Santee Flashes To 4:04.2 Mile For Bowl Record

New Orleans, (AP)—Hope for a four-minute mile was brighter today after Wes Santee of Kansas turned in a record 4:04.2 in the Sugar Bowl Track Meet—the third fastest mile ever run by an American.

Santee, holder of the American record of 4:02.4 flashed through a phenomenal 55 seconds final quarter yesterday to break the 15-year-old Sugar Bowl mark of 4:10.2 set by Glenn Cunningham of Kansas in 1926.

The slender Santee, who set the new standard over a damp track, said after the run he wasn't shooting for the four-minute mile, although slip on a wet spot may possibly have cost him two seconds.

"I was just trying to break Cunningham's mark," he said.

Perez Favored Against Gallardo

New York (AP) — Young LuLu Perez of Brooklyn was favored at 8-5 today to dish out an unhappy New Year to featherweight Dave Gallardo of Los Angeles tonight in their TV-radio rubber match at Madison Square Garden.
