Some Notations . . .

By M. L. F.

A traditional event in St. Paul's Episcopal church parish, the annual Epiphany party was a gala event Sunday evening following the annual parish meeting . . . The party was in the parish hall in the basement of the new edifice with Mrs. James Walton, chairman; Mrs. Howard Bomer, Susan Armstrong and Mrs. Gerhard Pagenstecher the committee this year . . . Mrs. George H. Swift was at the coffee urn, Mrs. Glenn S. Paxson at the tea urn and Mrs. Paul A. Fitzmaurice the big white Epiphany cake . . . Winning the articles in this year's cake were Dr. Ralph E. Furvine, the dime; Billy Furvine, the ring; Harry R. Walters, the trinket; and Sally Merrill, the thimble . . . As "reward" for finding these trinkets in their cake, the four will serve as the committee in charge for the 1955 Epiphany party . . . The table was all in white and green, covered with a floor length white cloth . . . The centerpiece was an arrangement of white stock and carnations in a silver bowl, white candles at either side . . . Smilax was arranged around the cake and candles and festooned the cloth at the side . . . More than 300 were served . . .

A nice wind-up for holiday and New Year's entertaining was the open house for which Mrs. B. O. Schucking and her son and daughter, Bob and Mrs. Helene Schucking, entertained New Year's day, guests being invited to call between 3 and 7 o'clock . . . So refreshing to see the real flower decorations come forth after all the Yuletide features, much as the latter are anticipated and appreciated during the season, but the flowers that come forth at New Year's time give hint that spring is not too far away . . . Especially attractive at the Schucking party the huge arrangement of big white mums with greens on a marble table in front of a large old mirror . . . Violets were on the mantel . . . The supper table was all in pink and white, a fringed pale pink and white cloth, pink and white carnations with silver leaves for the centerpiece, white candles in silver holders at either side . . .
