Some Notations

By M. L. F.

It was "engagement day" at the Pi Beta Phi sorority at Willamette university, four girls announcing their betrothals last evening. Miss Lollie Coffey told of her engagement to George Evans, Miss Cathy Kennedy announced her betrothal to Jerry Lausmann, and Miss Marylou Johnson told of her engagement to Joe Harvey.

Among engagement announcements revealed at the sorority on Monday evening was that of Miss Marjorie Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Little, to David Weeks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Weeks. During the holidays, Miss Little had announced the engagement at a family party. The Monday announcement was for her sorority sisters. A Happy New Year's poster was on the door all day, concealed in it a heart and ring with the names of the couple to be revealed at dinner time. Individual cakes were sent by Mrs. Little to serve at dessert at the sorority with the names of the couple on the cake. Also during the day, Monday, was a poster on the door at Sigma Chi, Mr. Weeks' fraternity. No date is set for the wedding. Both young people are sophomores at Willamette university.

Leaving Wednesday on an interesting trip are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stacey. They will take the Northern Pacific and will stop first at Milwaukee to take in the International Mink show. From there they will go to New York City and check their mink as they go through auction sales. They also plan to take in some special attractions in New York, including the Metropolitan Opera. They will be at the Governor Clinton hotel while there. From New York, they will go to Washington, D. C., where they will buy a car and drive to Laredo, Texas, going through Kentucky and Tennessee. They then plan to drive to Monterey, Mexico, on the Pan American highway and cross over to Durango on the Central highway, and drive south and over to the Pacific highway by way of Guadalajara. They will come home by way of Arizona and will be here the first week in March.

MR. AND MRS. Ralph Wilcox and children, Judy and Lee are at home after spending the holidays in Portland with an uncle and aunt of Mrs. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. George McBride. Other relatives at the McBride home included Mrs. Dalphe Schink and children of Corvallis and Mrs. Lew Brotherton, Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wyman of Sandy.

MRS. ETHEL PRATT, Eugene, has returned home after spending the holidays at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Jacobsen. Also visiting the Jacobsens were a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Max Fowler and Judy of Corvallis.
