

Liberty Groups Meeting

South Salem — Social activities are getting off to a good start in the Liberty and Salem Heights area.

The South Hills Garden club will meet on Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. C. A. Lindsay at 2713 Hulsey avenue. Mrs. Max Clark will be the assisting hostess. One of the program, Eunice Brandt will discuss landscape designing.

Mrs. Wilbert Kurth will be hostess to the Liberty Woman's club on Thursday, January 7, at 1 o'clock at a dessert at her home at 4125 Kurth street. Mrs. Louis Kurth will be the assisting hostess. Mrs. Nina Browning is the program chairman.

Mrs. Clarence Blundell will entertain the Friendly Neighbors Garden club on Thursday, January 7, at 8 u.m. at her home at 2955 Sunnyview avenue. Mrs. William Thomas is the program chairman.

The Salem Heights Woman's club will meet on Friday, January 8, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Gardner on Fairview avenue. The afternoon will be spent socially and in sewing.

Mr., Mrs. Hettley Anniversary Feted

Webfoot — Honoring Mr. and Mrs. John Hettley of the Webfoot district on their Silver Wedding anniversary, a reception was given from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at the home of a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Girod at their Tigard home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hettley were married December 30, 1928, at The Dalles. They have one son, John, Jr., a student at Oregon State College.

Mrs. Andrew Ward, a sister of Mrs. Hettley, served the wedding cake, another sister, Mrs. Wilbur Mallory, Yamhill, poured. The table at the reception was decorated with silver sprayed evergreens and the mantle was decorated with a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums and carnations and tall white candles.

A nephew, Andrew Ward, had charge of the guest book.

There were 75 relatives and friends present from Dufur, Salem, Independence, St. Helens, Monmouth and Dayton.

Mr. Brown to Be Speaker for Club

Woodburn — Irving Brown, Woodburn attorney, will be the guest speaker at the January meeting of the Woodburn Woman's club, Wednesday afternoon, January 6, at the Woodburn library. Mr. Brown will talk on "Wills, Estates and Investments," and questions from the floor will be permitted.

The meeting will begin at 1 p.m. with a no-host luncheon. Mrs. Harris Nelson is program chairman and other members of the committee include Mrs. Russell Hurlbert, Mrs. E. J. Allen, Mrs. Alvah Cowan, Mrs. Edgar Crosby and Mrs. Ray Tyson.

Visitors Leave

Mount Angel — Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hoffman (Mary Jeanne Faulhaber) and their four small daughters returned to their home in Connell, Wash., Monday after spending several weeks at the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Faulhaber and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hoffman.

Holiday Guests

Silverton — Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Bye and Stewart and Dianne and Mrs. Bye's mother, Mrs. I. L. Stewart, entertained as holiday guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlson (Frances Stewart) of Ione.

Mrs. Carlson is remembered by Salem and Silverton folk as a graduate student of Willamette university and her educational work locally and in eastern Oregon.

On Christmas day the group drove to Beaverton to be with relatives, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wood and Joan and Richard. Additional guests were from Portland were Mrs. Eva Oilphant, and from Silverton, Mrs. Daisy Wood.

SILVERTON — Entertained at an evening dinner and social hour at the Salem home of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Haugen, were members of the family of Mrs. Haugen's sister, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Tofte of Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mann (Eva Tofte) and Sandra, Glenda and Carroll, all of Astoria, who were holiday visitors at the Silverton Tofte home.

CDA Speaker

Mount Angel — Guest speaker at the next scheduled meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America, Monday evening, January 11, will be the Rt. Rev. Damian Jentges, OSB, abbot of Mount Angel abbey. Abbot Damian served as chaplain for the CD of A when he was pastor of St. Mary's parish. Abbot Damian will talk on his trip to Rome and other interesting places he visited during his recent trip to Europe.

The meeting, beginning at 8 p.m., will be in the meeting room of St. Mary's school. A social hour will follow. Mrs. E. G. Unger and Mrs. Francis C. Schmidt will be refreshment hostesses.
