

In The Valley

Edited by Mike Forbes, Phone 22441 Ext. 82

Hopewell

HOPEWELL—Sunday evening the Hopewell E.U.B. church joined with the Unionvale E.U.B. church for the showing of the film, "Mr. Texas."

Monday evening the quarterly conference of the Hopewell E.U.B. church was held at the church, with Rev. Lloyd Uecker of the Englewood E. U. B. church of Salem presiding.

Several carloads of members of the Hopewell E.U.B. church went in to Salem to the Englewood E.U.B. church on Tuesday evening to see the pictures of Nigeria and Sierra Leone, West Africa, shown by Bishop Ira E. Warner, who visited those mission fields last year.

The Hopewell Home Extension meeting was held Tuesday, Jan. 5, at the Hopewell E.U.B. church, with Mrs. John Fuqua, chairman, in charge of the business meeting. Miss Betty Wieman, Yamhill county agent, gave the lesson on making lamp shades.

Thursday evening, Jan. 7, the January meeting of the Hopewell Community club will be held at the school, with a white elephant sale as the main feature.

Mrs. Frank Hersha is improving in the Salem General hospital, where she was taken New Year's Eve suffering bruises and other complications, due to a fall. Her mother, Mrs. Lane Davidson, returned Sunday from Raymond, Wash., where she had been visiting her family over the Christmas holidays, to care for the Hersha children.

Mrs. F. L. Witchee, Jr., is now at home after a week in the Salem General hospital because of a severe cold. Mrs. F. L. Witchee has been caring for the Witchee children.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Baker moved to the Unionvale district during Christmas vacation, and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Stacey and family are occupying the house they have vacated.

Mrs. S. C. Waller was ill with flu this past week.

Rev. and Mrs. Carl Pershall and family returned to their home in Hamer, Idaho, on Friday after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lafferty and other relatives. Mr. Lafferty has been ill with a severe cold.

Robert Pearce visited his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Meyer of Brownsboro, Ore., near Medford, for several days this past week, going by bus. Dean Brown assisted with the chores in his absence.

Miss Aileen Allison returned to El Centro, Calif., this week, after three weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Allison. Miss Elva Allison spent Christmas with relatives here also, and returned to her work in El Centro on Sunday following Christmas.

Mrs. Nellie Willis spent 10 days with her sisters, Mrs. Charles Stephens and Mrs. Bert Stephens, during the Christmas holidays, returning to her home in Newberg after New Year's.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stephens and Lester were New Year's Day guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stephens.

Mrs. N. O. Pearce was a New Year's Day guest of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce, in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Coberly and family also were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Reed visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Evey of Manning, Ore., last week and found her brother-in-law, Lowell Ingles, in the hospital with a severe heart attack. At last reports he is still in the hospital but improving.

Wayne Hickerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hickerson, returned to Corvallis for the opening of the winter term, Jan. 4. Robert Janzen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Janzen has enrolled for the winter term also.

The watch night social at the Hopewell E.U.B. church was attended by about 50 members and friends. Colored slides were shown by Howard Stephens, of South Dakota trips taken by Mrs. Clarence Legg, of southern states by Mrs. R. T. Kidd, and of Red Lodge, Mont., and Yellowstone Park by Rev. Glen Harris. Other motion pictures also were shown. Musical numbers were furnished by Lawrence Thornton, director of music of the Englewood E.U.B. church, on the cello and vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. Glen Harris. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wright are the parents of a daughter, Gayle, born Dec. 29 at the Salem General hospital. They have two sons. Mrs. Wright and daughter are now at home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Terrill enjoyed a visit from her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hagood and daughters, and Charles Hagood, Sr., of Grants Pass, over the week end. While here, the Hagoods visited relatives in Oregon City, and

Buena Vista

BUENA VISTA—Mrs. J. E. Funk and Mrs. David Hamer of Salem. Mrs. H. E. Myers of Tulle Lake spent Wednesday with Mrs. Perry Wells. They were former residents of Buena Vista.

The 4-H Livestock club met with the leader, Jack Wells, at the Perry Wells home, Wednesday evening. County Agent John Grimes was a guest. Plans were made for early reports of each member project.

Merle Tucker and son, Tommy, of Seattle, spent the weekend with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wells here. Tommy did his first duck hunting and bagged a few.

The Farmers Union New Year's Eve party was well attended with 35 seated for the no-host supper at 7:30 p.m., after which Canasta was played until midnight. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Conger, Mr. and Mrs. Grant McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wells and Jack; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wells and David, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Prather and Bill; Ed Lietcy, Elzan Long, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Busby, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bride and Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Withrow, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Detering, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Gib Loy, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hultman. The next meeting of the local will be Jan. 5, an evening meeting. Jack Wells has charge of the program. The Polk county meeting will be Jan. 13, an all-day meeting, in the community hall in Buena Vista with a pot-luck dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hultman were dinner guests in Salem Saturday evening (this) at the A. J. Harrison home on Cottage St.

Carpenters are beginning work on the Harold Withrow home to repair damages caused from the fire last week. They found more damage between walls, than at first reported, estimated at $5000.

Falls City

FALLS CITY—Mr. and Mrs. Leston Dickey took T. A. Glover and Mrs. Josie Knapp to Eugene Thursday, Dec. 31, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Knapp's brother, Junius Ward.

Mr. Ward was a native of Oregon having been born in Marion County Jan. 1, 1871.

He is survived by his widow Lillie Dennis Ward, one daughter, Hazel Ward, Eugene; three sons, Arthur, Independence; Elbert of Tillamook, and Fulton of California.

Interment was in West Lawn Memorial cemetery.

George Reed was brought home from the Bartell hospital Thursday afternoon and is up and around the house.

Mr. Reed was the unhappy possessor of two appendices and feels much better since they were removed.

Mildred Wray spent from Monday through Thursday with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Archie Montgomery of Ocean Lake.

Mrs. Loren Cooper is a patient at the Bartell hospital following surgery Dec. 27.

The children are taking turns in taking care of Mr. Cooper during his wife's illness.

A New Year's Eve party was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lefever of Rt. 2, Dallas, by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ames, Mrs. Charlie (Lennie) Ames of Brookings, Mr. and Mrs. Woody Robinson and daughter Corrine, Norman Davis, Mildred Wray and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. LeFever.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Baker and two children accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Teal and son, drove down from Auburn, Wash., spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Teal and brother Eugene and sister, Mrs. Clifford Reeves and family.

Otto Teal drove to Laurelwood Sunday taking their son, Eugene, and Miss Helen Newland back to their classes at the S. D. A. Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Guthrie drove to Heceta Head Light station near Florence for the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. John Boyer and family.

The Guthrie's grandson, Orval Stepper, his wife and baby, spent several days with the Boyers, who brought them back to Falls City Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Shutt, Sandra and Kaye were New Year's guests of the Archie Palmer family.

Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Shutt are sisters.

Mrs. E. LaDuke has been quite ill again and it was necessary to call a doctor from Dallas.

She is somewhat better at this time.

Mrs. Maurice Bakke was brought home from the Bartell Hospital Saturday and is recuperating satisfactorily following major surgery.

The reporter enjoyed sitting while their parents attended a New Year's party. Games were played and stories were told until a late hour.

A son weighing 9 lbs. 4 oz. was born to Mr. and Mrs. Grant Frink of Falls City, Dec. 28.

Grandparents are Faye Frink of Monmouth and Mr. and Mrs. William Hancock of Rt. 2, Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kellogg of Valsetz were both admitted to the Dallas hospital for medical care and observation last week.

Gordon Weins had his tonsils and adenoids removed at the Bartell hospital recently.

Mrs. Belle Brill, now of Dallas, received word recently of the sudden death of her oldest son, George Brill, at the Sandhills General Hospital in Valentine,

North Marion High Activities

HUBBARD—The North Marion band chorus club has cancelled its Jan. 7 meeting. It is sponsoring a concert by the University of Oregon band, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. in the North Marion union-high school. Proceeds of concert will go to the North Marion band and chorus. Admission will be charged.

Thursday afternoon, Jan. 7, the high school classes will hold their monthly meeting at 3:15 p.m.

The North Marion union high school board of education will meet at the school Monday evening, Jan. 11, at 8 o'clock.

Jan. 12 the high school student council will meet at 3:15 p.m.

Scio

SCIO—Bruce Ward has been ill with pneumonia, but is much better now and hopes to be back in school soon.

On the evening of Jan. 11, slides and a message will be presented at the Oakview Church of God, showing Japan and the work which is being done by Rev. and Mrs. Victor Wine there.

Mrs. Wine was the former Betty Myers and is a sister of Mrs. Ronald Sommers.

Mrs. Howard Shelton was re-elected president of the Mary Martha Missionary Circle at the Baptist church. Mrs. Morris Irwin was elected vice president, and Mrs. Leonard Arnold was re-elected to serve as secretary and treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Niemi are the parents of a new son, Marley Howard, born Sunday, Dec. 27, at the Lebanon Community hospital. This is their third son.

Mr. and Mrs. Deb Long of Salem visited relatives here Thursday.

Earlwood Ross, depot agent here, is leaving for San Francisco Tuesday to have a tonsillectomy at the S. P. hospital.

The watch night party, on New Year's Eve at the Baptist church was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thurston of Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sullivan and children of West Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stoller of Albany were New Year's guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Thurston. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Luddy Elliott and children, Mr. and Mrs. N. Le Bard and baby and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thurston and family.

Janet Ross is ill at her home with pneumonia.

Mrs. Earl Hoover has returned to her home after spending more than a week in the Lebanon Community hospital, following surgery.

Mill City

MILL CITY—Richard Verbeck was host New Year's Eve to a group of young people. Party games were played and refreshments served at the New Year was awaited. Guests included Dorothy Steinfeld, Jim Cuthbert, Robert Keyes, Frances Johnson, Richard Anderson, Donna Bengston, Jim Carey, George Rambo, Rose Fleming, Elton Gregory and Everett Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen and children, Sherry and Terry, spent the holiday with their parents at Longview, Washington.

New Year's Eve dinner guests at the Curtis Cline home were Mr. and Mrs. William Shey.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly took their daughter, Lela Mel, back to Oregon State Sunday after spending the holiday vacation with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Whitsett returned Wednesday from North Bonneville, Wash., where they visited friends and relatives. Their son, Gary, is confined to his home with chicken pox.

A New Year's Eve gathering at the Cecil Lake home included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stone, Francis Cane and Mel Robinson. The same group had dinner New Year's Day at the Stone home. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mason.

Mrs. Laura Joaquin of Gates is working at the Lester Hathaway home while Mrs. Hathaway is recuperating from a recent injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bruder Neb.

She left at once for that city, by car, accompanied by her sons, Elwood Brill and Cecil Brill and family; daughters, Mrs. Clarence Cranford and Jimmy, Mrs. Max Fairchild and Mrs. Don Greene, her husband and son.

Also going with the group was another son, Albert Brill, of St. Francis, S. D., and his wife, who had just arrived to spend the holidays with the Oregon families.

George had spent the last two summers in this area visiting with relatives.

Roberts

ROBERTS—Mrs. Warren Wallace returned from Washington Thursday, where she went to attend the golden wedding anniversary of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Kinnerman, at Elmo, Wash. While there she went to Brookline, Wash., to visit her mother, Mrs. Myrtle Burke. Don Eyerly and family of Toledo and Edgar Eyerly and family of Tillamook were recent guests at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Eyerly.

The G. T. club will meet at the home of Mrs. John Painter at 4900 State St., Salem, with Mrs. Karl Heyden, Mrs. A. F. Thompson and Mrs. Leonard H. Ziekle assisting hostesses.

The Farmer's Union will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams Wednesday evening, Jan. 6. They live on Homestead Road, Rt. 3, Box 947.

Clear Lake

CLEAR LAKE—The regular meeting of the Community Club will be held Friday at 8 p.m. Mrs. Arthur Sorenson and Mrs. Arnold Fast are preparing the evening's program. Mrs. Dave Schlag, Mrs. Emil Belser and Mrs. Orel Garner will serve on the refreshment committee, and have asked that each family bring sandwiches or cookies.

The Missionary Society of the E.U.B. Church will meet Jan. 12 at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Arthur Sorenson. Mrs. L. J. Chapin will be study leader. Plans will be made for the bazaar and cooked food sale to be held Feb. 13.

Mrs. Louis Adams underwent surgery last week, and her condition is reported satisfactory. She is expected to remain at the Woodburn Hospital for another week.

Woodburn

WOODBURN—"Simple Home Repairs" will be the topic for discussion at the January meeting of the Woodburn Home Extension unit Thursday, Jan. 7, at the Woodburn library. Project leaders will be Mrs. Frank Chappelle and Mrs. V. L. Reinecke. The hostesses, Mrs. E. C. Peyton, Mrs. Frank Wright and Mrs. Alfred Moon, will serve coffee and dessert following the sack lunch at noon. The meeting begins at 2 p.m.

Mrs. D. E. Green and son were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McCarthy.

Holiday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Dentel were Mr. and Mrs. Emery Dentel and two children of Willamina, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Buller of Aurora, Mrs. E. R. Miller and two children of Vancouver and Wayne Dentel of Canby.

Guests during the holidays at

Buena Vista

BUENA VISTA—Mrs. J. E. Funk and Mrs. David Hamer of Salem. Mrs. H. E. Myers of Tulle Lake spent Wednesday with Mrs. Perry Wells. They were former residents of Buena Vista.

The 4-H Livestock club met with the leader, Jack Wells, at the Perry Wells home, Wednesday evening. County Agent John Grimes was a guest. Plans were made for early reports of each member project.

Merle Tucker and son, Tommy, of Seattle, spent the weekend with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wells here. Tommy did his first duck hunting and bagged a few.

The Farmers Union New Year's Eve party was well attended with 35 seated for the no-host supper at 7:30 p.m., after which Canasta was played until midnight. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Conger, Mr. and Mrs. Grant McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wells and Jack; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wells and David, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Prather and Bill; Ed Lietcy, Elzan Long, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Busby, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bride and Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Withrow, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Detering, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Gib Loy, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hultman. The next meeting of the local will be Jan. 5, an evening meeting. Jack Wells has charge of the program. The Polk county meeting will be Jan. 13, an all-day meeting, in the community hall in Buena Vista with a pot-luck dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hultman were dinner guests in Salem Saturday evening (this) at the A. J. Harrison home on Cottage St.

Carpenters are beginning work on the Harold Withrow home to repair damages caused from the fire last week. They found more damage between walls, than at first reported, estimated at $5000.

Mill City

MILL CITY—Richard Verbeck was host New Year's Eve to a group of young people. Party games were played and refreshments served at the New Year was awaited. Guests included Dorothy Steinfeld, Jim Cuthbert, Robert Keyes, Frances Johnson, Richard Anderson, Donna Bengston, Jim Carey, George Rambo, Rose Fleming, Elton Gregory and Everett Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen and children, Sherry and Terry, spent the holiday with their parents at Longview, Washington.

New Year's Eve dinner guests at the Curtis Cline home were Mr. and Mrs. William Shey.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly took their daughter, Lela Mel, back to Oregon State Sunday after spending the holiday vacation with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Whitsett returned Wednesday from North Bonneville, Wash., where they visited friends and relatives. Their son, Gary, is confined to his home with chicken pox.

A New Year's Eve gathering at the Cecil Lake home included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stone, Francis Cane and Mel Robinson. The same group had dinner New Year's Day at the Stone home. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mason.

Mrs. Laura Joaquin of Gates is working at the Lester Hathaway home while Mrs. Hathaway is recuperating from a recent injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bruder Neb.

She left at once for that city, by car, accompanied by her sons, Elwood Brill and Cecil Brill and family; daughters, Mrs. Clarence Cranford and Jimmy, Mrs. Max Fairchild and Mrs. Don Greene, her husband and son.

Also going with the group was another son, Albert Brill, of St. Francis, S. D., and his wife, who had just arrived to spend the holidays with the Oregon families.

George had spent the last two summers in this area visiting with relatives.

Clear Lake

CLEAR LAKE—The regular meeting of the Community Club will be held Friday at 8 p.m. Mrs. Arthur Sorenson and Mrs. Arnold Fast are preparing the evening's program. Mrs. Dave Schlag, Mrs. Emil Belser and Mrs. Orel Garner will serve on the refreshment committee, and have asked that each family bring sandwiches or cookies.

The Missionary Society of the E.U.B. Church will meet Jan. 12 at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Arthur Sorenson. Mrs. L. J. Chapin will be study leader. Plans will be made for the bazaar and cooked food sale to be held Feb. 13.

Mrs. Louis Adams underwent surgery last week, and her condition is reported satisfactory. She is expected to remain at the Woodburn Hospital for another week.

Woodburn

WOODBURN—"Simple Home Repairs" will be the topic for discussion at the January meeting of the Woodburn Home Extension unit Thursday, Jan. 7, at the Woodburn library. Project leaders will be Mrs. Frank Chappelle and Mrs. V. L. Reinecke. The hostesses, Mrs. E. C. Peyton, Mrs. Frank Wright and Mrs. Alfred Moon, will serve coffee and dessert following the sack lunch at noon. The meeting begins at 2 p.m.

Mrs. D. E. Green and son were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McCarthy.

Holiday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Dentel were Mr. and Mrs. Emery Dentel and two children of Willamina, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Buller of Aurora, Mrs. E. R. Miller and two children of Vancouver and Wayne Dentel of Canby.

Guests during the holidays at

North Marion High Activities

HUBBARD—The North Marion band chorus club has cancelled its Jan. 7 meeting. It is sponsoring a concert by the University of Oregon band, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. in the North Marion union-high school. Proceeds of concert will go to the North Marion band and chorus. Admission will be charged.

Thursday afternoon, Jan. 7, the high school classes will hold their monthly meeting at 3:15 p.m.

The North Marion union high school board of education will meet at the school Monday evening, Jan. 11, at 8 o'clock.

Jan. 12 the high school student council will meet at 3:15 p.m.

Scio

SCIO—Bruce Ward has been ill with pneumonia, but is much better now and hopes to be back in school soon.

On the evening of Jan. 11, slides and a message will be presented at the Oakview Church of God, showing Japan and the work which is being done by Rev. and Mrs. Victor Wine there.

Mrs. Wine was the former Betty Myers and is a sister of Mrs. Ronald Sommers.

Mrs. Howard Shelton was re-elected president of the Mary Martha Missionary Circle at the Baptist church. Mrs. Morris Irwin was elected vice president, and Mrs. Leonard Arnold was re-elected to serve as secretary and treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Niemi are the parents of a new son, Marley Howard, born Sunday, Dec. 27, at the Lebanon Community hospital. This is their third son.

Mr. and Mrs. Deb Long of Salem visited relatives here Thursday.

Earlwood Ross, depot agent here, is leaving for San Francisco Tuesday to have a tonsillectomy at the S. P. hospital.

The watch night party, on New Year's Eve at the Baptist church was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thurston of Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sullivan and children of West Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stoller of Albany were New Year's guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Thurston. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Luddy Elliott and children, Mr. and Mrs. N. Le Bard and baby and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thurston and family.

Janet Ross is ill at her home with pneumonia.

Mrs. Earl Hoover has returned to her home after spending more than a week in the Lebanon Community hospital, following surgery.

Mill City

MILL CITY—Richard Verbeck was host New Year's Eve to a group of young people. Party games were played and refreshments served at the New Year was awaited. Guests included Dorothy Steinfeld, Jim Cuthbert, Robert Keyes, Frances Johnson, Richard Anderson, Donna Bengston, Jim Carey, George Rambo, Rose Fleming, Elton Gregory and Everett Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen and children, Sherry and Terry, spent the holiday with their parents at Longview, Washington.

New Year's Eve dinner guests at the Curtis Cline home were Mr. and Mrs. William Shey.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly took their daughter, Lela Mel, back to Oregon State Sunday after spending the holiday vacation with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Whitsett returned Wednesday from North Bonneville, Wash., where they visited friends and relatives. Their son, Gary, is confined to his home with chicken pox.

A New Year's Eve gathering at the Cecil Lake home included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stone, Francis Cane and Mel Robinson. The same group had dinner New Year's Day at the Stone home. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mason.

Mrs. Laura Joaquin of Gates is working at the Lester Hathaway home while Mrs. Hathaway is recuperating from a recent injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bruder Neb.

She left at once for that city, by car, accompanied by her sons, Elwood Brill and Cecil Brill and family; daughters, Mrs. Clarence Cranford and Jimmy, Mrs. Max Fairchild and Mrs. Don Greene, her husband and son.

Also going with the group was another son, Albert Brill, of St. Francis, S. D., and his wife, who had just arrived to spend the holidays with the Oregon families.

George had spent the last two summers in this area visiting with relatives.

Clear Lake

CLEAR LAKE—The regular meeting of the Community Club will be held Friday at 8 p.m. Mrs. Arthur Sorenson and Mrs. Arnold Fast are preparing the evening's program. Mrs. Dave Schlag, Mrs. Emil Belser and Mrs. Orel Garner will serve on the refreshment committee, and have asked that each family bring sandwiches or cookies.

The Missionary Society of the E.U.B. Church will meet Jan. 12 at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Arthur Sorenson. Mrs. L. J. Chapin will be study leader. Plans will be made for the bazaar and cooked food sale to be held Feb. 13.

Mrs. Louis Adams underwent surgery last week, and her condition is reported satisfactory. She is expected to remain at the Woodburn Hospital for another week.

Woodburn

WOODBURN—"Simple Home Repairs" will be the topic for discussion at the January meeting of the Woodburn Home Extension unit Thursday, Jan. 7, at the Woodburn library. Project leaders will be Mrs. Frank Chappelle and Mrs. V. L. Reinecke. The hostesses, Mrs. E. C. Peyton, Mrs. Frank Wright and Mrs. Alfred Moon, will serve coffee and dessert following the sack lunch at noon. The meeting begins at 2 p.m.

Mrs. D. E. Green and son were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McCarthy.

Holiday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Dentel were Mr. and Mrs. Emery Dentel and two children of Willamina, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Buller of Aurora, Mrs. E. R. Miller and two children of Vancouver and Wayne Dentel of Canby.

Guests during the holidays at

North Marion High Activities

HUBBARD—The North Marion band chorus club has cancelled its Jan. 7 meeting. It is sponsoring a concert by the University of Oregon band, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. in the North Marion union-high school. Proceeds of concert will go to the North Marion band and chorus. Admission will be charged.

Thursday afternoon, Jan. 7, the high school classes will hold their monthly meeting at 3:15 p.m.

The North Marion union high school board of education will meet at the school Monday evening, Jan. 11, at 8 o'clock.

Jan. 12 the high school student council will meet at 3:15 p.m.

Scio

SCIO—Bruce Ward has been ill with pneumonia, but is much better now and hopes to be back in school soon.

On the evening of Jan. 11, slides and a message will be presented at the Oakview Church of God, showing Japan and the work which is being done by Rev. and Mrs. Victor Wine there.

Mrs. Wine was the former Betty Myers and is a sister of Mrs. Ronald Sommers.

Mrs. Howard Shelton was re-elected president of the Mary Martha Missionary Circle at the Baptist church. Mrs. Morris Irwin was elected vice president, and Mrs. Leonard Arnold was re-elected to serve as secretary and treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Niemi are the parents of a new son, Marley Howard, born Sunday, Dec. 27, at the Lebanon Community hospital. This is their third son.

Mr. and Mrs. Deb Long of Salem visited relatives here Thursday.

Earlwood Ross, depot agent here, is leaving for San Francisco Tuesday to have a tonsillectomy at the S. P. hospital.

The watch night party, on New Year's Eve at the Baptist church was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thurston of Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sullivan and children of West Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stoller of Albany were New Year's guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Thurston. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Luddy Elliott and children, Mr. and Mrs. N. Le Bard and baby and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thurston and family.

Janet Ross is ill at her home with pneumonia.

Mrs. Earl Hoover has returned to her home after spending more than a week in the Lebanon Community hospital, following surgery.

Mill City

MILL CITY—Richard Verbeck was host New Year's Eve to a group of young people. Party games were played and refreshments served at the New Year was awaited. Guests included Dorothy Steinfeld, Jim Cuthbert, Robert Keyes, Frances Johnson, Richard Anderson, Donna Bengston, Jim Carey, George Rambo, Rose Fleming, Elton Gregory and Everett Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen and children, Sherry and Terry, spent the holiday with their parents at Longview, Washington.

New Year's Eve dinner guests at the Curtis Cline home were Mr. and Mrs. William Shey.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly took their daughter, Lela Mel, back to Oregon State Sunday after spending the holiday vacation with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Whitsett returned Wednesday from North Bonneville, Wash., where they visited friends and relatives. Their son, Gary, is confined to his home with chicken pox.

A New Year's Eve gathering at the Cecil Lake home included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stone, Francis Cane and Mel Robinson. The same group had dinner New Year's Day at the Stone home. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mason.

Mrs. Laura Joaquin of Gates is working at the Lester Hathaway home while Mrs. Hathaway is recuperating from a recent injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bruder Neb.

She left at once for that city, by car, accompanied by her sons, Elwood Brill and Cecil Brill and family; daughters, Mrs. Clarence Cranford and Jimmy, Mrs. Max Fairchild and Mrs. Don Greene, her husband and son.

Also going with the group was another son, Albert Brill, of St. Francis, S. D., and his wife, who had just arrived to spend the holidays with the Oregon families.

George had spent the last two summers in this area visiting with relatives.

Clear Lake

CLEAR LAKE—The regular meeting of the Community Club will be held Friday at 8 p.m. Mrs. Arthur Sorenson and Mrs. Arnold Fast are preparing the evening's program. Mrs. Dave Schlag, Mrs. Emil Belser and Mrs. Orel Garner will serve on the refreshment committee, and have asked that each family bring sandwiches or cookies.

The Missionary Society of the E.U.B. Church will meet Jan. 12 at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Arthur Sorenson. Mrs. L. J. Chapin will be study leader. Plans will be made for the bazaar and cooked food sale to be held Feb. 13.

Mrs. Louis Adams underwent surgery last week, and her condition is reported satisfactory. She is expected to remain at the Woodburn Hospital for another week.

Woodburn

WOODBURN—"Simple Home Repairs" will be the topic for discussion at the January meeting of the Woodburn Home Extension unit Thursday, Jan. 7, at the Woodburn library. Project leaders will be Mrs. Frank Chappelle and Mrs. V. L. Reinecke. The hostesses, Mrs. E. C. Peyton, Mrs. Frank Wright and Mrs. Alfred Moon, will serve coffee and dessert following the sack lunch at noon. The meeting begins at 2 p.m.

Mrs. D. E. Green and son were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McCarthy.

Holiday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Dentel were Mr. and Mrs. Emery Dentel and two children of Willamina, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Buller of Aurora, Mrs. E. R. Miller and two children of Vancouver and Wayne Dentel of Canby.

Guests during the holidays at

North Marion High Activities

HUBBARD—The North Marion band chorus club has cancelled its Jan. 7 meeting. It is sponsoring a concert by the University of Oregon band, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. in the North Marion union-high school. Proceeds of concert will go to the North Marion band and chorus. Admission will be charged.

Thursday afternoon, Jan. 7, the high school classes will hold their monthly meeting at 3:15 p.m.

The North Marion union high school board of education will meet at the school Monday evening, Jan. 11, at 8 o'clock.

Jan. 12 the high school student council will meet at 3:15 p.m.

Scio

SCIO—Bruce Ward has been ill with pneumonia, but is much better now and hopes to be back in school soon.

On the evening of Jan. 11, slides and a message will be presented at the Oakview Church of God, showing Japan and the work which is being done by Rev. and Mrs. Victor Wine there.

Mrs. Wine was the former Betty Myers and is a sister of Mrs. Ronald Sommers.

Mrs. Howard Shelton was re-elected president of the Mary Martha Missionary Circle at the Baptist church. Mrs. Morris Irwin was elected vice president, and Mrs. Leonard Arnold was re-elected to serve as secretary and treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Niemi are the parents of a new son, Marley Howard, born Sunday, Dec. 27, at the Lebanon Community hospital. This is their third son.

Mr. and Mrs. Deb Long of Salem visited relatives here Thursday.

Earlwood Ross, depot agent here, is leaving for San Francisco Tuesday to have a tonsillectomy at the S. P. hospital.

The watch night party, on New Year's Eve at the Baptist church was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thurston of Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Sullivan and children of West Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stoller of Albany were New Year's guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Thurston. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Luddy Elliott and children, Mr. and Mrs. N. Le Bard and baby and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thurston and family.

Janet Ross is ill at her home with pneumonia.

Mrs. Earl Hoover has returned to her home after spending more than a week in the Lebanon Community hospital, following surgery.

Mill City

MILL CITY—Richard Verbeck was host New Year's Eve to a group of young people. Party games were played and refreshments served at the New Year was awaited. Guests included Dorothy Steinfeld, Jim Cuthbert, Robert Keyes, Frances Johnson, Richard Anderson, Donna Bengston, Jim Carey, George Rambo, Rose Fleming, Elton Gregory and Everett Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen and children, Sherry and Terry, spent the holiday with their parents at Longview, Washington.

New Year's Eve dinner guests at the Curtis Cline home were Mr. and Mrs. William Shey.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly took their daughter, Lela Mel, back to Oregon State Sunday after spending the holiday vacation with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Whitsett returned Wednesday from North Bonneville, Wash., where they visited friends and relatives. Their son, Gary, is confined to his home with chicken pox.

A New Year's Eve gathering at the Cecil Lake home included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stone, Francis Cane and Mel Robinson. The same group had dinner New Year's Day at the Stone home. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mason.

Mrs. Laura Joaquin of Gates is working at the Lester Hathaway home while Mrs. Hathaway is recuperating from a recent injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bruder Neb.

She left at once for that city, by car, accompanied by her sons, Elwood Brill and Cecil Brill and family; daughters, Mrs. Clarence Cranford and Jimmy, Mrs. Max Fairchild and Mrs. Don Greene, her husband and son.

Also going with the group was another son, Albert Brill, of St. Francis, S. D., and his wife, who had just arrived to spend the holidays with the Oregon families.

George had spent the last two summers in this area visiting with relatives.

Clear Lake

CLEAR LAKE—The regular meeting of the Community Club will be held Friday at 8 p.m. Mrs. Arthur Sorenson and Mrs. Arnold Fast are preparing the evening's program. Mrs. Dave Schlag, Mrs. Emil Belser and Mrs. Orel Garner will serve on the refreshment committee, and have asked that each family bring sandwiches or cookies.

The Missionary Society of the E.U.B. Church will meet Jan. 12 at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Arthur Sorenson. Mrs. L. J. Chapin will be study leader. Plans will be made for the bazaar and cooked food sale to be held Feb. 13.

Mrs. Louis Adams underwent surgery last week, and her condition is reported satisfactory. She is expected to remain at the Woodburn Hospital for another week.

Woodburn

WOODBURN—"Simple Home Repairs" will be the topic for discussion at the January meeting of the Woodburn Home Extension unit Thursday, Jan. 7, at the Woodburn library. Project leaders will be Mrs. Frank Chappelle and Mrs. V. L. Reinecke. The hostesses, Mrs. E. C. Peyton, Mrs. Frank Wright and Mrs. Alfred Moon, will serve coffee and dessert following the sack lunch at noon. The meeting begins at 2 p.m.

Mrs. D. E. Green and son were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McCarthy.

Holiday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Dentel were Mr. and Mrs. Emery Dentel and two children of Willamina, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Buller of Aurora, Mrs. E. R. Miller and two children of Vancouver and Wayne Dentel of Canby.

Guests during the holidays at

North Marion High Activities

HUBBARD—The North Marion band chorus club has cancelled its Jan. 7 meeting. It is sponsoring a concert by the University of Oregon band, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. in the North Marion union-high school. Proceeds of concert will go to the North Marion band and chorus. Admission will be charged.

Thursday afternoon, Jan. 7, the high school classes will hold their monthly meeting at 3:15 p.m.

The North Marion union high school board of education will meet at the school Monday evening, Jan. 11, at 8 o'clock.

Jan. 12 the high school student council will meet at 3:15 p.m.

Scio

SCIO—Bruce Ward has been ill with pneumonia, but is much better now and hopes to