Hubbard Congregation Holds Annual Meeting

HUBBARD—The annual meeting of the Hubbard Community church (Congregational) was presided over by Rev. Virgil Wolfenberge, new minister of the greater Hubbard parish. Name for the parish house, selected by vote, will be Fellowship House. The name was submitted by a committee composed of Mrs. A. Foltz, Mrs. Wayne Bridge and Mrs. George Waddington. The parish house was the result of the large cost involved in building onto the church to obtain needed space as investigated by a building committee last spring with the parsonage being turned into a parish house for additional Sunday school classrooms and other needs.

Elected at the annual meeting were Mrs. Bridge, clerk; Mrs. J. C. Morrison, treasurer; Mrs. Mrs. George Leffler, financial secretary; Eivan Pitney, Sunday School superintendent; Glen Purdom and Pitney, deacons; Walter Shrook is an honorary lifetime deacon; Mrs. Harold Colgan and Mrs. Hannah Hunt, deaconesses; Mrs. Junia Dimick is an honorary lifetime deaconess; Harold Colgan and Russell Rolofson, trustees; Mrs. Foltz, pianist; Miss Lorene Scholl, assistant pianist; Mrs. Walter Shrook, Mrs. Waddington, Mrs. Colgan and Mrs. James Lamb, religious education committee; Levi Miller, auditor; Glen Purdom, every member canvass chairman; Miller, Mrs. Morrison and Purdom, parish committee with Pitney as an alternate.

Tin Magnate Yields to Love

EDINBURGH, Scotland—A millionaire tin magnate Antenor Patino yielded Thursday to love's young dream and gave up his legal attempt to block the marriage of his beautiful 18-year-old daughter Maria Isabela to a handsome young Englishman. The way was clear for Maria Isabela and Jimmy Goldsmith, 20-year-old son of an English hotel man, the runaway lovers whose plight had attracted worldwide attention, to get married at any one of 200 or more registry offices in Scotland. They already have a license. There were reports papa had met the young couple in secret Wednesday night and given them his blessing. Patino dashed here last week from Paris when he learned that his dark-eyed daughter with the hour glass figure and the debonaire, Eton-educated Englishman had eloped. He sought to bar the marriage, saying his daughter was too young for matrimony.

8 Killed in Navy Plane Crash

PANAMA, Panama—Six men were killed and eight injured in the flaming crash of a U.S. Navy photographic plane in a jungle area near the Trans-Isthmian Highway last night. The four-engine plane was bringing a photo reconnaissance platoon to the Canal Zone area from Miramar, Calif.

Capt. William A. Thorn, commanding officer at the Coco Solo Naval Base, announced the casualties. Thorn said it appeared the plane had undershot by 2 1/2 miles its destination—France Air Force Base near Colon, on the Caribbean side of the Isthmus. He said Levi Anderson and James Hyatt, two farmers living near the crash area, did "heroic service" in dragging several of the injured men to safety from the flaming wreckage. The survivors were taken to Coco Solo Naval Hospital with severe burns. Names of the casualties were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

TRAFFIC EXPERT

James P. Economos, director of traffic court committee for American Bar Association, will head roster of experts directing Oregon's third regional traffic court conference, January 25, 26 and 27 at University School of Law in Eugene. Co-sponsor of the conference is Oregon State System of Higher Education, General Extension Division. Oregon's annual traffic conference this year is expected to attract municipal, county and state officials from Washington, Idaho, Montana, Colorado, Oregon and Northern California.

City Elects Two Mayors

HAMILTON, Ohio—The Hamilton City Council, deadlocked over the election of a mayor, worked its way out of the dilemma yesterday by electing two mayors. Arthur Wilson of the People's party will serve during 1954 and Arthur Fiehrer of the Forward Hamilton will serve during 1955. The deadlock arose as a result of a situation in which the People's party had three council members, the Forward Hamilton party three members and then there was Herbert Mich, elected as an Independent. Votes taken Monday were 3-3-1 with Mich voting for himself. Yesterday, however, the Forward Hamilton members broke party lines and voted for Fiehrer to serve during 1955. Mich refused to vote, declared he was a candidate himself. E. H. Perrson, director of law, expressed belief the dual election was legal even though unusual.

Salem Students on Honor Roll at U of O

The University of Oregon's honor roll for fall term lists 170 students, all making grade point averages of 3.50 or higher on not less than 12 term hours. The GPA is figured on a scale with A equalling 4.00, B as 3.00, and C as 2.00. Eighteen of the total made straight A grades for 4.00. Listed on the roll from Salem are Sally Jo Greig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Greig of 935 Academy; Urlin Scott Page, son of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Page of 295 W. Lincoln; Eunice Peckenpaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Peckenpaugh of 2299 State; Dorothy Jane Pederson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Pederson of 4853 N. River Road; Susan Perry, daughter of Kenneth C. Perry of 829 N. Summer Street; and B. Jacquelyn Saylor, daughter of Laurence M. Saylor of 2410 Myrtle Avenue.

DIVORCE MODIFIED ALBANY—Judge Victor Olliver, in circuit court, has issued an order modifying the divorce decree, handed down Dec. 15, 1953, in the case of Parley Tewalt vs. Eunice Tewalt, which awarded to the plaintiff custody of their three children. As modified the decree provides that one of the three children be given to custody of the defendant, the plaintiff pay $25 a month toward its support. The court acted in accordance with a stipulation between the litigants.

Presbyterian Harvesters Club

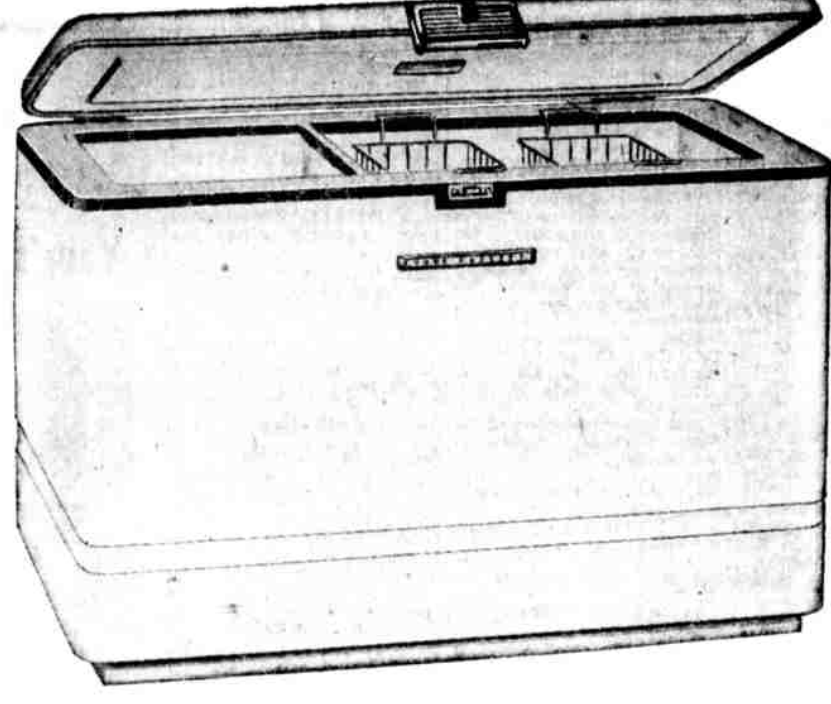

Two important matters will be presented for discussion and consideration during the third meeting of the Harvester's club of the First Presbyterian church from 2 to 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. The group will discuss the type of organization that shall prevail during the first six months of 1954 and determine the preferences of members for personal participation in an arts-crafts program. A second meeting will be held January 22 to consider the group's preferences if this seems desirable. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh will be the co-sponsors for the January 8 meeting. All church eligible members and their community friends are invited. An increase of the present charter membership of 66 to at least 75 is expected. The charter will be closed during the next meeting.

93-Year-Old Had No Use for Electricity

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—A 93-year-old Columbus man who was so suspicious of electricity he used gas to light his small frame house has left an estate of $104,233.10. Joseph Buff, a strong-willed man who condemned automobiles as "new fangled contraptions," was killed by one last Nov. 27. A bicycle rider until he was 90, Buff had refused an offer of an automobile ride home from town the night he was killed. Buff, whose will was probated yesterday, left some of the money to a church and an orphanage, the rest to his nieces.
