KIDS LOVE THE OUTDOORS

Recently a group of us were discussing kids, and the great thrill they get from fishing and hunting. We agreed that no other pleasure is as satisfying to a youngster as that derived from a healthy contact with the out-of-doors. We went on further to agree that a child whose energies were expended in healthful pursuit of fish and game was not likely to wind up in the delinquent list.

No, we didn't infer that hunting and fishing was a cure-all for the ills of youth, but we did feel strongly that an intimate contact with the open spaces would go far to make good citizens and good sportsmen. Our discussion then switched to the problem of the many kids who were either fatherless, or whose dad didn't have an interest in hunting or fishing. We all wished that youngsters in this category could be given the opportunity to participate in outdoor activity.

HOW ABOUT 'ADOPTING' ONE AWHILE?

One of our group, Jack Walton, spoke up to ask, "I wonder how many men there are in Salem who do not have boys—men who would enjoy taking a kid along fishing or hunting now and then?"

We told Jack that the best way to find out was to ask—thus the purpose of today's column. How about YOU? Would you, in the coming year, like to share your pleasure with some boy, who might for some reason have no other chance to enjoy the sports that mean so much to you? Sure, it might slow you down a bit, teaching a boy the proper way to cast a line and fish the water, and you might catch less fish than you would otherwise. But on the other hand, you might reap a reward much richer than trout. You might be the starting point to a happier, fuller life for some boy.

So, if you would be willing to share a few days during the year with a boy, just drop a line with your name, address, and the kind of sport you participate in to this column. We'll find the boys!

LET THE GAME COMMISSION PLAN 'EM

A recent article in the Portland Journal by Tom McCallister mentions the catching of a pike in the Cowlitz river. Nothing could be more surprising. An explanation is that somehow somebody brought this fish cross-country and dumped it in the Cowlitz. This is hard to believe, but there is only one other answer, even harder to credit—and that is that a bird carried fertilized pike eggs, finally to drop them in the Cowlitz.

Of the two explanations, we pick the man as the one to blame for introducing this predatory fish in local waters. And it's a shame that folks will do such things. It's happened before—persons without benefit of technical knowledge surreptitiously planting a type of fish that was a favorite of theirs, "back where they came from."

Last night we had a talk with Adolph Hrab of Dayton. Adolph is organizing a retriever field trial to be held at Camp Adair the 17th of this month.

We asked Adolph how the hunting season had been this year down at Alderman Farms, in comparison with last year. Surprisingly enough, Adolph said it was a better duck season that last year... Glad to hear somebody had it good...

Akeo Enlists In Marines

Lester Akeo, Willamette university football center and baseball player, told Coach Ted Ogden yesterday that he has signed up to enter the Marine Corps.

Ogden said today that his freshman halfback, Eldredge "Windy" Sequira, also from Hawaii, has changed his mind and decided to remain in college after preliminary processing.

Akeo, a starting center for the Bearcats as a freshman and a catcher on the baseball team, is to take his physical examination soon and leave for San Diego Jan. 21 as a member of the Second Oregon Beaver platoon and the 4th Salem Cavalry.

Akeo did not play football the past season as a sophomore because of an injury received to his shoulder as a freshman.

Baseball's Draft System on Review By 9-Man Group

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball's draft system, which has been a pain in the necks of independent minor league owners, was scheduled to be reviewed again Friday by the nine-man committee appointed by Commissioner Ford Frick.

Exploratory talks were held Thursday and although no official word is expected until after several more meetings, minor league Commissioner George Trautman, attending as an observer, said the get-together was harmonious and that much was accomplished.

It is Frick's hope that from these discussions will evolve new rules which will "permit the reasonable advancement of players as their abilities justify."

The majors have been accused of making a farce of the draft by putting their best farm talent on one club so that only one man might be lost.

Also high on the committee's agenda is legislation to discourage the high payments to untried youngsters.

Trabert, Hoad Gain Net Finals Of Aussie Meet

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—Australians were looking forward Friday to a replay of the brilliant Davis Cup match when America's Tony Trabert meets Lewis Hoad in the final of the South Australian Tennis Championships Saturday.

Hoad edged Trabert in a three-hour five set battle in the recent Davis Cup series but the Cincinnati star has looked sharper in this tournament than he did a week ago.

Thursday he toyed with Ken Rosewall, Hoad's brilliant doubles partner, and won 6-3, 6-3, 6-2.

Hoad ran into unexpected trouble in the other semifinal and had to go five sets to out Rex Hartwig. The scores were 4-6, 4-6, 7-5, 6-1, 6-2.

Hoad and Rosewall lost their South Australian doubles title in the all-Australian final Friday. They were beaten by Melvyn Rose and Hartwig 6-2, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4.

Top Pros Aim at L. A. Open Money

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The 28th annual Los Angeles open, initial tournament in the 1954 golfing campaign, got underway Friday with most of the nation's leading professionals aiming at a share of the $20,000 prize money.

Heading the talent ready to tee off in the first round were the 1953 winner, flashy Lloyd Mangrum, a three-time victor in the event Doug Ford, Jack Burke Jr., Jimmy Demaret, Tommy Bolt, Cary Middlecoff, Lew Worsham, Dutch Harrison, Julius Boros and many other familiar players, along with Australia's newest star, 24-year-old Peter Thomson from Melbourne.

Conference Opens With Full Slate

It will be an experienced Whitman team of 10 lettermen who take the floor tonight at Willamette, their goal to start the Northwest conference season with a victory over the taller Bearcats.

It is part of the conference pattern which also finds College of Idaho at Linfield and Pacific at Lewis and Clark. All will conclude two-game series.

Owens, C.I., Seizes Early Lead in Scoring

R. C. Owens, College of Idaho's Negro center, holds the unofficial early season lead in scoring among Northwest conference players. Not all games have been reported to date and all are non-conference.

The top 10:

Name	Points
R. C. Owens, C. of I.	41
Don Sanford, Linfield	39
Pete Reed, Willamette	38
Tom Gooding, Willamette	35
Carl Oshie, Linfield	34
Don Hay, Willamette	33
Norm Hubert, Pacific	30
Ray Olson, Linfield	29
Ken Serran, Lewis-Clark	28
Clint Aaga, Pacific	27
Duane Brady, Lewis-Clark	26
Dick Fain, Whitman	25
Hal Adkins, Lewis-Clark	24
Dick Cartow, C. of I.	23
Don Robinson, Whitman	22
George Makin, C. of I.	21

Saturday night on the same grounds, except that Lewis and Clark will move over to Pacific the second night.

Gwinn, Robinson Threats

With Whitman's captain and forward, Dick Fain, out of the lineup with an ankle injury it will be up to Rex Gwinn, 6-4 center and last year's leading scorer, to help take up the slack. Don Robinson, this year just behind Fain in scoring, is a forward threat.

Coach John Lewis has been honing his Bearcats on better than average competition and isn't quite sure yet how they will react to conference ball. His starting combination is likely to be Dick Hoy and Pete Reed at forwards, Tom Gooding at center and Jerry McCallister and Duane Shield at guard.

Pioneers Ruled Favorites

As far as Lewis is concerned, all NW conference entries are darkhorses, but Lewis and Clark, the defending champion with four starters returning, gets the No. 1 nod. Pacific has shown power in its early outings and College of Idaho has the incomparable rebounder and shooter, R. C. Owens.

Owens will get an introduction to Salem fans Monday night when the Coyotes play Willamette in a one-night stand. Whitman will move over to Linfield.

The preliminary tonight will be Coach Jerry Frei's Bearcats against a quint from Tongue Point Naval base at 8:10.

NCAA Tells of 35 Probes of Athletic Violation Charges

CINCINNATI (AP)—The membership committee, enforcement agency of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn., said Friday it had investigated 35 charges of athletic violations by colleges in the last 18 months.

The committee's report, submitted to the closing session of the 48th annual convention, did not name any college or define any of the alleged violations.

Of the 35 cases, the report said, six had been processed and acted upon by the governing council; 20 are being processed at present; six were dismissed because of lack of evidence; two were dismissed because the incidents did not violate NCAA legislation, and one case was dismissed because the accused institution withdrew from the association.

STANFORD INFELDER SIGNS

STANFORD, Calif. (UP)—Stanford University officials said today Ray Swarts, the school's top third baseman, has signed a $4000 bonus contract with the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League.

'Lethal Weapons' Dr. Samuel S. Swetnick (center) of the New York State boxing commission, examines the fists of Joey Klein (left) of New York and Al Andrews of Saginaw, Mich., during their pre-fight physical examination. The two middleweights will meet in a 10-rounder at Eastern Parkway Arena in New York Jan. 11.

2 Prep Leagues Slate Full Night of Games

Stayton will open its defence of the Capital league championship tonight by hosting Salem Academy, while four other high school basketball circuits in the valley resume competition.

Other Capital league contests will put Sacred Heart at Central, and Philomath at Cascade, which tied for second last year with Sacred Heart.

The Willamette Valley league will go into second round tonight with defending champion Dallas at Sandy in another game moved because the Dallas gym is not ready for a crowd. Estacada will be at home to Molalla and Woodburn will entertain Silverton.

Dallas, Mt. Angel, Sandy and Estacada were winners Tuesday night.

In the Marion County B league, undefeated Mill City will take on the Deaf School in what appears to be a clinch. Remaining contests will have Gervais at Gates, Chemawa at Detroit, Jefferson at St. Paul and Scio at Sublimity, Yavama in 2nd Round.

The Yavama league will be in its second round with Dayton at Sandy, Willamette at Yamhill, North Marion at Sherwood and Sheridan at Banks. Winning their first games were Yamhill, Amity, North Marion and Banks.

The Big Six finds Eugene at Corvallis after last night's surprise 69-51 Corvallis victory over last year's state runner-up Axmen, and Albany will play at Springfield.

SUFFERS FIRST LOSS
PORTLAND (AP)—Philo handed Jewish Community Center its first Portland Basketball Association defeat last night in a 94-73 triumph as Will Urban, ex-Oregon star, scored 29 points and Lloyd Bergman, former Portland U. ace, hit 26 for the winners.

EAST LANSING, Mich.—Al Ferrari and Rickey Ayala, Michigan State varsity basketball players, were high school teammates at Boys Tech, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Giardello, Panter in TV Bout

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Joey Giardello, the only fighter with a Supreme Court decision over Bob Christenberry, risks his No. 3 ranking in the middleweight class tonight against bullish Garth Panter of Salt Lake City.

The 10-round, scheduled for 10 p.m. (EST) will be held at Madison Square Garden with network radio (ABC) and television (NBC) coverage.

Ever since the court "reversed the reversal" by the chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission to give Giardello a disputed decision over Billy Graham, the Philadelphia has been a more determined boxer. His 1953 record, not including the court ruling, was 6-2 for eight bouts. He lost only to Graham in a 12-round rematch and to Johnny Saxton at 155 pounds.

Giardello is a 2½ to 1 favorite over the strong-jawed Panter. Joey's career record for 61 bouts is 46-10-5.

Panter also has gained confidence since he cracked the TV circuit. His most important '53 victories were scored over Pierre Langlois and Walter Cartier although he lost to Cartier in a return go. In his last outing, Panter whipped a ring rusty Norman Hayes at Detroit, Dec. 2. His record is 32-12-2.

Rainless Day Predicted for Senior Bowl

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—The weather and the experts are favoring the South in Saturday's Senior Bowl football game, but weight and victories by Coach Paul Brown in the last two contests are on the North's side.

The weatherman has promised a rainless day with the temperature near 70 for this fifth annual contest in which college seniors make their professional debuts.

And South Coach Steve Owen is expected to match the warm weather with the sizzling right arm of Georgia's Zeke Bratkowski, who led the Southeastern Conference this past season by completing 113 of 242 tosses for 1,461 yards.

The Brat, with two rangy ends as targets, is one of the main reasons the South has been established as favorite by at least one touchdown.

TO BROADCAST BOWL
Station KOCO will broadcast the Senior Bowl football game from Mobile, Ala., Saturday at 11:30 a.m., it was announced today. The game matches the nation's leading seniors who have declared intentions of turning professional.

Mo Connolly Is Female Athlete of Year Again

By JOHN CHANDLER

NEW YORK (AP)—For the third straight year, Maureen Connolly—the world's tennis queen—was chosen female athlete of the year for 1953 in the 23rd annual Associated Press year-end poll.

Little Mo, who holds all the world's major tennis titles and leads the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association rankings for the third consecutive year in 1953, ran up a heavy margin in a nationwide poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

The 19-year-old, brown-eyed blonde from San Diego, Calif., received 73 first place votes of the 126 ballots cast, and a total of 281 points on a 3-2-1 basis.

She beat out another famous Third, and the only other woman athlete in the first 10 to receive as many as 100 points, was Babe Didrikson Zaharias. The Babe got 13 firsts, and an even 100 points.

Little Mo began 1953 by winning the Australian National Championship at Melbourne last January. She was upset by Doris Hart in the Italian International Tournament at Rome, but defeated Miss Hart in the French Wimbledon and U. S. Nationals at Forest Hills.

Miss Connolly, in beating Miss Hart at Forest Hills Sept. 7, won her third straight U. S. title. Previously she had led the U. S. Wightman Cup team to an overwhelming victory over Great Britain in the international matches at Rye, N. Y.

Maureen has said she plans one more year of big time tennis.

Florence Chadwick had four major channel conquests in five weeks last fall. She swam from England to France in 14 hours, 43 minutes, record time for the English Channel crossing. Two weeks later she broke all records for swimming the straits of Gibraltar, Europe to Africa. She followed by swimming the tricky Bosporus, Europe to Asia, and back again.

Two days later she swam the Turkish dardanelles both ways between Turkey and Greece. She said that was her swansong as a long distance swimmer and she planned to take up golf. Miss Chadwick was third in the 1952 poll.

Mrs. Zaharias, rated the world's greatest female athlete of the last half century, won two golf tournaments early in 1953, but in April underwent a major operation for cancer. Three months later she was back in tournament golf, but was out of the money in the Tam O'Shanter at Chicago.

The Babe, who has been voted female athlete of the year more than any other woman—five times—said late in December that she never felt better in her life and planned to resume full scale tournament golf this year.

Fourth in the 1953 poll was Tenley Albright, Boston, who at 17 won the world's figure skating championship; fifth, Betsy Rawls, 1953 U. S. Women's Open Golf champion; sixth, Marion Ladewig, champion women's bowler for the fourth straight year; seventh, Pat McCormick, 1953 Olympics diving champion.

The breakfast club interrupted the meeting during the holidays. The public is invited either for the breakfast or the meeting which starts at about 8 o'clock.

HEARING ANGLING RULES
PORTLAND (UP)—The first of two public hearings designed to set 1954 angling regulations in Oregon was scheduled for the State Game Commission office today. Second meeting will be Jan. 23 after which final regulations will be drafted.

champion; eighth, Louise Suggs, who earned a record $19,816 as a professional golfer in 1953; ninth, Mary Lena Paulk, U. S. Amateur Golf champion and tenth, Gail Peters, nation's best all around amateur swimmer.

Breakfast Club To Hear Holly Huntington Mon.

The Salem Breakfast club of Salem sports boosters will resume meetings Monday morning with Hollis Huntington as guest at the Senator hotel at the 7:30 hour.

Huntington, a West Salem resident, is one of three who have played every minute of three Rose Bowl games, his coming with Oregon in 1917, with the Mare Island Marines in 1918 and with Oregon again in 1920. He also holds the Rose Bowl individual record for most yards gained. He was a fullback, chosen outstanding player in the 1918 Bowl contest against Camp Lewis, Wash.

The breakfast club interrupted the meeting during the holidays. The public is invited either for the breakfast or the meeting which starts at about 8 o'clock.
