Roberts

ROBERTS—There were 30 members and two guests, Mrs. O. L. Donaldson and Mrs. Robert Hoysler, present at the Roberts G. T. club meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Painter, 4900 State St. in Salem. Mrs. Hoysler accepted the invitation to become a member.

Cast away garments were drawn to wear during the refreshment hour or pay a fine. Mrs. Jack Eyerly received the prize for the most ludicrous apparel.

There was an election of officers for the year, during the business session which resulted as follows: president, Mrs. A. D. Cater; vice president, Mrs. D. Carl Heyden, and secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Keith Austin. Flower committee members appointed were Mrs. L. F. Zielke and Mrs. Louis D. Johnston.

Mrs. E. L. Gray received the prize for the contest given.

The February meeting will be at the home of Mrs. A. D. Cater with Mrs. L. F. Zielke, Mrs. Keith Austin and Mrs. W. Haney assisting hostesses.

CAROL CURTIS

Nice, neat and pretty are these modern-day, knitted knee-warmers which you slip on before you put on stockings. Snugly fitted, they stay in place wonderfully; the wristlets can be slipped on under your coat sleeves, taken off when you arrive at office or school. Older women will love you for sending them such a thoughtful winter gift, too!
