

Salem to Challenge Corvallis Power There Tuesday

6-7 Center Leads Foe In Big Six

By PAUL HARVEY, III
Salem travels to Corvallis Tuesday evening for a Big Six battle with the strong Corvallis Spartans, led by 6-7 center Dave Gambee. The Spartans, since they beat heavily-favored Eugene twice last week, now assume the favored role in the league.

Harold Hauk's Vikings, winner of one Big Six game already this year over Springfield, have won the title nine times and finished second three times. Last year the Vikings fell into a five-way tie with Corvallis, Eugene, Albany, and Springfield.

Hit 35 Against Eugene
Gambee, a veteran from last year, tallied 35 points Thursday against Eugene in a 69-51 Corvallis win. Friday night the Vikings fell before a Roosevelt rally to lost 45-42. Earlier in the week Salem had lost to Milwaukie for the first loss of the year.

Salem's wins have been 50-46 to start the season over Roosevelt, 72-63 over Hillsboro, 63-56 over Springfield, and 76-56 over Hillsboro. The Springfield game was the only Big Six contest thus far in the young season.

Hauk probably will stick with his same starting lineup of Tom Picketts and Larry Springer at the forwards, Bob Wulf at center, and Jim Knapp and Gordy Domogalla at the guards. Knapp has taken the lead among Viking scorers at the 5-11 guard has 73 points; next is Wulf with 69.

The Salem squad has hit the hoop with 343 average for field goals and 465 for free throws. Wulf is the leading shot on the team with an even 500 mark, while Gordy Domogalla has hit 85 per cent of his free shots.

Jayvees After No. 7
Salem high school's junior varsity goes after its seventh straight win of the season tomorrow night when it meets the Corvallis JV's. Lee Gustafson's team trounced Roosevelt 71-41 in their last outing.

Leading the junior varsity in scoring is junior forward Don Zeh with 23 field goals and nine free throws for 55 points. Bob Tom, sophomore guard, is next with 40, while Don Figley and Mary Rhine each have 34. Dale Jones has 33. Rhine has been playing varsity for the past several games.

Swede Scrambles It's a long way to the floor for 7-foot-3 Swede Halbrook, but the Oregon State college center goes after the elusive ball in this fourth quarter picture in the Idaho game Saturday night at Corvallis. At left is Harlan Melton, Idaho forward; in back is Reggie Halligan, OSC guard; and struggling with Halbrook is Bobbie Garrison, Idaho guard.

No Clearcut N.D. Leader After Week; OSC Wins

PACIFIC COAST CONFERENCE

Team	W	L	Pct.	PP	PA

Oregon	1	1	.500	134	123
Oregon State	1	1	.500	130	130
Wash. State	1	1	.500	98	100
Washington	1	1	.500	100	98

All the teams broke even in the opening series last week. Idaho ended the week with a 2-2 record after games with Oregon and Oregon State and Washington and Washington State also split a pair.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Northern Division is without a clearcut basketball leader after the first week of conference action but the picture is expected to change this week as Oregon's two teams cross the border into Washington.

All the teams broke even in the opening series last week. Idaho ended the week with a 2-2 record after games with Oregon and Oregon State and Washington and Washington State also split a pair.

This week OSC Coach Slat's Gill and his tall Beavers, No. 10 team on the Associated Press poll, go to Seattle for meetings Friday and Saturday with Washington, while Oregon travels to Pullman for a pair of games with WSC.

Oregon State, beaten 70-65 by Idaho in the conference-opener Friday night, came back Saturday to whip the Vandals 65-60. At the same time, Washington posted its first win of the season, a 54-44 decision over Washington State. The Cougars won the first game Friday, 56-48.

OSC's 7-foot 3-inch center Swede Halbrook netted 60 points in the two games with Idaho, boosting his season shooting average from 23.7 to 24.23 points per game.

Halbrook scored 28 points Saturday night, 20 of them in the first half. Idaho center Dwight Morrison, who scored 22 points Friday, was held to 9 in Saturday's contest. Halbrook's 60 points was a new OSC conference series record.

Don Tripp paced Washington to its first win in 11 starts, bucketing 21 points, 2 more than Ron Benkin, the Cougar's high point man. WSC led 28-24 at the half and the score was tied 39-39 entering the final period. The Huskies went ahead 45-43 on Doyle Perkins' field goal four minutes into the last quarter and maintained an edge until the final gun.

Chadwick Plans Swimming Strait

VICTORIA, B.C. — Florence Chadwick, distance swimmer who has conquered the English Channel, the Straits of Gibraltar and the Dardanelles, now is eyeing the Strait of Juan de Fuca.

The Victoria Times said Saturday the San Diego, Calif., mermaid has been offered $10,000 to try to swim the 20-mile stretch between Port Angeles in Washington State and Victoria and will fly here Jan. 21 to inspect the course.

The attempt would be made about July 1, the Times said.

Bears Leading South Division; UCLA Toppled

SAN FRANCISCO — The California squad which upset UCLA twice over the weekend to lead the Pacific Coast Conference, Southern Division, basketball race could turn out to be "my best team," Coach Nibs Price said Monday.

The slightly favored Bruins of UCLA ended the first weekend of league play in the cellar after losing to California at Berkeley 62-53 Friday and 73-65 Saturday.

Southern California and Stanford were tied for second and third after splitting a two-game series at Los Angeles. The crippled Indians showed surprising strength against USC's effective backboard control.

Stanford won 61-59 Friday and the Trojans took Saturday's thriller 71-69 when Capt. Dick Welsh bucketed a jump shot in the final three seconds.

Price, who retires this season after 30 years at California, said he had hoped at best his Bears "maybe would get a split."

"UCLA applied a lot of pressure and they didn't crack. If they kept that up I might be saying, before I get out, that this was my best team."

This weekend, UCLA and USC play at Los Angeles Friday and Saturday nights. California plays at Stanford Friday and Stanford at Berkeley Saturday.

Molalla 1 0 1.000
Canby 1 0 1.000
Sandy 0 1 .000
Dallas 0 1 .000

SANDY (Special) — Canby and Molalla got off to a roaring start last week in Willamette Valley League wrestling and will be favored to continue their winning ways this week.

The Canby Cougars entertain Sandy Tuesday night. Canby blasted Dallas last week 39 to 13. Owing, Les Farmer, Jim Enteline, and Glen Harris registering pins for the Cougars.

The Molalla matmen travel to Dallas Wednesday night. The Indians scalped Sandy 35 to 9 last Wednesday. Pins were collected by Floyd Krupicka, George Krupicka, Don Kemp, and Mark Maben.

Huntington Tells SBC Of Old Days

Football teams aren't conditioned as well as they used to be when nearly every starter played the whole game. Holly Huntington told the Salem Breakfast club this morning.

The speaker, who played every minute of three Rose Bowl games in 1917, 1918 and 1920, referred to the bowl teams coached by Hugh Bendick at Oregon in the season of 1916 and at Mare Island in 1917.

Was "Vicious" Team
The 1916 Oregon team he described as "the roughest, toughest, fastest, most vicious team I was ever with and none before or since could touch it. Bendick has everyone snarling, practiced us for hours." Most of them were from 25 to 29 years old and "out-conditioned" Pennsylvania, which had four All-Americans, in the 1917 Rose Bowl, 14-0.

Huntington told the Senator hotel audience that clipping was legal in those days and kept a player on the alert. His brother, Shy Huntington, also was in the backfield for Oregon and coached the 1920 bowl team which lost to Harvard, 7-6.

In the Marine Corps next year at Mare Island Huntington was given a choice of being shipped out to Manchuria or of playing football. He chose football and "behind a tremendous line" beat all opponents by 25 to 30 points, taking Camp Lewis in the 1918 bowl 19-7.

Averaged 220 Pounds
After a year out of college he returned to Oregon U., playing at 26 years of age with a team of many sophomores. In the 1920 bowl, Harvard averaged 220 pounds and had two backs weighing 220. One of the Horrine brothers in the backfield for Harvard fouled Oregon's star, Bill Steers, laying him out of the game, an act which cost Oregon the victory, the Salem man said.

In the three years of college ball, there were no substitutes to replace him, he said.

Chuck Boyce, KGOO sports-caster, announced that persons wishing to attend the Banquet of Champions at Portland Feb. 4 may sign up at Wicklund's for transportation. Bill Vecek, baseball promoter will be speaker and many sports stars will be present. The banquet is to honor the person contributing most to Oregon sports the past year for the Bill Hayward trophy.

Vern Gilmore told of Salem high school's three basketball games this week — Tuesday at Corvallis and Friday and Saturday here against Bend.

John Lewis, Willamette coach, asserted "this might be a long year" for Northwest conference coaches, judging by the closeness of the six opening games.

E. E. Batterman presided. Ken Potts was program chairman.

Two Referees To Handle Tag Match Tues.

There will be two referees Tuesday night and both should watch Soldat and Ivan Gorky, two mat rascals who will play their trade against George Dusette and Carl Engstrom at the Salem Armory.

Their Australian tag team match will find three of four contestants returning from last week, when the Siberian slug-gers whipped Carl Engstrom and David Jons. Engstrom knows first hand about the Gorkys' satanic tactics and Dusette was an attentive observer.

Bearded and balding, the Gorky brothers took every advantage they could over their opponents last week, their favorite trick being to divert the referee's attention while the other sneaked inside to use some nanking hold or blow on an opponent already down.

In the semi-final, Toi "The Great" Yamato will mix his legal and illegal holds in a 30-minute scrap with Chester Wallick, the speedy young brother of Leo Wallick. Each is crafty.

Ivan Kameroff's foes in the special event is Danno McDonald, a husky who quickly left the refereeing ranks after trying to control the Gorkys last week. Kameroff defeated Lubich last week with a bear hug.

Tickets are on sale at Barb's Sporting Goods.

Filipski Gains for North Gene Filipaki, of Villanova, North back, goes through a hole in the South line for a short gain during the first quarter of the Senior Bowl game at Mobile, Alabama. Don Chelf (39) of Iowa, North tackle, takes Glenn Turner (42), Southern back from Georgia Tech, out of play. Crawford Mims (60) (right foreground), South guard from Ole Miss, comes in along with Mack Franklin (51), end from Tennessee, and Dreher Gaskin (86), end from Clemson, both of the South team. Dick Thomas (51), Northwestern back, of the North squad is at extreme right. North won, 29 to 14. (AP Wirephoto) involved directly in the college basketball bribery scandals of the last three seasons, yesterday suspended him indefinitely.

No Doubt "Through"
President Maurice Podoloff left little doubt that the 6-foot-6 Molinas is finished in pro basketball. The 21-year-old player is entitled to a hearing before being expelled automatically at the end of the season. But Podoloff said he doubted that Molinas will ask for one.

The tall youth told the Associated Press he had bet only on his team to win.

"I've never done anything dishonest in my life," he exclaimed, almost in tears.

Podoloff said in New York that Molinas offered to play without pay if the league would give him a chance to redeem himself. The NBA president turned him down.

Several hours after Molinas' suspension, Deputy Chief Inspector Edward W. Byrnes in New York said that a Bronx candy store operator had been questioned in connection with the incident.

Byrnes, in charge of Bronx detectives, identified the man as Isidore Batenski, about 54. Byrnes said the man had been released after being questioned for 1 1/2 hours but he was told to report
