The witness is Raymond A. Hill, The wilness is Raymond A. Hill, consulting engineer from Los An-geles. A report he made in 1952, while employed by the Interior Department, has been quoted by proponents of a plan to build a federal Hells Canyon Dam in the same reach of the river. The report is on future water depletion along the Snake River. Federal dam advocates claim Hill's findings support their view that the river flow would be ade-quate to fill the proposed reservoir during low-water years.
