Miss Universe Drops Title by Marriage

STOCKTON, CALIF. (U)—Miss Universe is now California's own and she has a new title: Mrs. Ronnie Margeno.

The 17-year-old French beauty, Christiane Martel, was married yesterday to the 21-year-old son of a department store owner and left happily in a shower of rice for a Palm Springs honeymoon.

They'll be back here in two weeks and move into a new, ranch-style home with a swimming pool.

MAN SWIMS TO SAFETY
SAGA, JAPAN (U)—A 32-year-old Japanese swam eight hours through raging seas to safety after a small fishing boat sank off Kyushu Island yesterday, police said.

Five other crewmen were believed drowned.

Majorettes to Vie January 22

The annual Drum Majorette Contest sponsored by the Salem Elks is dated for Friday night, January 22, starting at 8 o'clock at the High School Gymnasium.

Tom Hill and Vernon Wiscarson will again be co-chairmen for the event, and they say that not less than 20 entries are expected from high schools scattered about the state. The Salem High School band will again play for the event and admittance to the public will be without charge.

Silverton Reports 47 Fire Calls for '53

SILVERTON — Fire chief, Larry Carpenter, of the volunteers reports 47 calls being made during the year 1953. An estimated loss of $43,700, of which $30,000 was in the total loss of George's Cafe, and the Robbins Confectionery in the N. Water St. block.

Eleven calls were made to the rural district.

The chief, Carpenter, reported 720 man-hours put in by the volunteers.

ALBANY SHOP SOLD

ALBANY—Purchase of the Mode-O-Day shop here by Mr. and Mrs. Alan Cox from Madeline K. Davey of Portland was revealed Thursday. The new owners, who took over operation and management came here from Bend. They had formerly lived in McMinnville and St. Helens before going to Bend. Miss Davey established the Mode-O-Day shop here in the fall of 1945.

Show Thursday For Lady Elks

It will be ladies' night for the Salem Elks Thursday night, and a fine show featuring local talent, much of it of professional class, has been arranged by the entertainment committee.

Included will be Stan Williams who will share the spotlight with Betty Van Cleave in two outstanding acts. Williams was featured in the Broadway shows "It's Great To Be Alive" and "Alive and Kicking." Also he has appeared in two movies and has toured high class night club circuits. He has a tap dancing style that is unique.

Betty Van Cleave, a belle of the south, came to Salem recently from New Orleans.

"As a torch singer," says the committee announcement, "she brings us that wonderful blues and Dixieland rhythm. Having appeared on radio and television as well as in many outstanding clubs she is a welcome addition to our program."

The Dixielanders, a baton twirler, an acrobatic act, and the Gruesome Twosome in a new act will round out the show which will be opened and closed by the Chorus.

leers. Clyde Cook will be smooched. A buffet supper will be served after the show.

A short lodge session will be called at 8 o'clock and the show will start at 8:30.

NEW DALLAS RESIDENT

DALLAS — Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cota and daughters, Christine and Kathleen, of Longview, Wash., have arrived in Dallas to make their home. Cota began work this week as bookkeeper at the Polk County Federal Savings and Loan association. He has been with Montgomery Ward & Co. at Vancouver and Longview, and is a Linfield college graduate.

Harris to Be Judge of Barber Shop Event

FOREST GROVE (Special)—B. E. Harris of Riverside, Calif., organizer and first director of the Forest Grove Gleemen, will be a judge at the eighth annual All-Northwest Barber Shop Ballad contest and Gay Nineties Review, February 26-27, at Forest Grove.

Harris, former dean of the Pacific University School of Music, organized the civil male chorus nine years ago.

First contest entry of the year was filed by "The Minor Chords," formerly the Forest Grove Union High School quartet. The members Willard Kleen, Dale Deiser, Chuck Olson and Gail Hering, were graduated from the high school last spring.
